President Snyder presented his resignation as president of Michigan Agricultural College, in the following communication:

"East Lansing, June 9, 1914.

To the Honorable State Board of Agriculture:

Resignation Gentlemen:

of The class of over two hundred to whom I shall have the honor to hand
President diplomas in a few days is the nineteenth class to graduate under my administration.
Snyder. For some time Mrs. Snyder and I have felt that we would wish to retire from this strenuous life upon the completion of twenty years of service. As this is the last Board meeting of the college year, I therefore tender my resignation thus far in advance that you may have ample time to select my successor to take charge at the beginning of the college year, September first, 1915.

Very respectfully,

J. L. Snyder."

On motion of Mr. Graham, the resignation was laid upon the table.
