On motion of Mr. McPherson, it was voted that the matter with reference to fraternity and sorority houses be approved.

Budget Rules

4. The Budget rules as outlined below are effective July 1, 1926.

BUDGET RULES

1. All salaries will be paid from institution funds and not from departmental funds. Requests for changes in salaries, additions to or replacements in staff should go to the President through the proper department heads, directors and deans.

New forms for selecting, engaging and notifying members of the staff will be developed early in the year for future use.

2. All purchases for the institution must be placed through the office of the purchasing agent.

3. Bills for purchases not thus placed will be referred to the President.

4. No bill for travel out of the state will be paid unless it bears the approval of the President.

5. All expenditures for repairs and minor improvements and for major equipment (with the exceptions to be noted in the next paragraph) will be charged against these items in the budget.

Applications for expenditures under these headings should be put into proposal form and sent through the proper channels to the Business Manager, and to be effective must be approved by the President of the College, and, if in his judgment it seems necessary, by the State Board of Agriculture

6. Each Department or service will be permitted to purchase minor equipment not in excess of five per cent of its budget allowance, except as heretofore all equipment for Experiment-Station and Extension Service will be charged to their respective apportionments.

7. Departments will be credited with all earnings except fees from students, and may use their earnings plus the amount of their apportionment.

8. All Departments should keep expenses within the amount allowed for maintenance, Over-drafts will not be permitted, and the Controller has authority to refuse expenditures that do not conform with the above rules or that threaten an overdraft in the annual budget.

5. The work of the Controller of the College as outlined below is effective July 1, 1926.

Work of Controller of College

President Butterfield recommended that the work of Controller of the College be outlined substantially as follows:

The Controller will be a member of the staff of the Secretary of the College and under his direction.

The Controller is to have immediate charge of the regular accounting service. He will make the reports ordinarily required in connection with this service and in addition such other reports, tabulations, services to committees, and so on, as may be asked of him, either by the Secretary, the President or the Board.

Subject to the general oversight of the Secretary, the Controller will have the authority to refuse expenditures not authorized by such budget rules as the Board may adopt, as well as proposed expenditures that threaten an overdraft in any fund or item in the annual budget or on special projects.

The Controller will act in the capacity of Business efficiency officer and will feel free to confer with any member of the staff on matters connected with expenditures, methods of saving money, effective use of funds, etc.

6. The Assignment of special legislative funds as recommended by the Committee on Buildings and Grounds and displayed below is effective July 1. This includes the transfer of $50,000 of Special legislative funds for 1925-6 to current funds same year, covering the item of general repairs and minor improvements.
