Foreign Scholars by Geographical Area, Country and Academic Department (Green Section)	4-5
III Alphabetical Listing of Foreign Scholars (Green Section)	6-9
IV Code Sheet to Use with Foreign Student List	10
V List of Foreign Students by Country	11-31

This list has been prepared to assist Michigan State University offices and related community groups in their relationships with students and scholars who are nationals of countries other than the United States.

There are two categories of foreign nationals on the campus. FOREIGN STUDENTS are individuals who are here for the primary purpose of pursuing academic course work. FOREIGN SCHOLARS are individuals whose primary purpose is something other than course work.

Persons who currently hold foreign citizenships but who have become permanent residents of the United States are not included in either listing.

FOREIGN SCHOLARS AT MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
ACADEMIC YEAR 1963-1964

6

March 1964

"Foreign Scholars" includes all foreign citizens not considered students: visiting professors, lecturers, instructors, advanced research and teaching fellows and associates, visiting scholars, academic guests, specialists and all foreign participants in MSU's educational program who are on the campus for one month or longer and who have permanent residence in a foreign country. Not included: those whose primary purpose on campus is pursuit of a degree or anyone considered a student; displaced persons who have come to the United States for permanent residence; foreign citizens who have become permanent residents of the United States, or persons from Puerto Rico and such American territories as American Samoa, Guam, US Virgin Islands, etc.

Where a source of support is indicated, that organization may furnish part or all of the scholar's support. Others are supported by MSU staff salary or other personal resources.
