MISSION STATEMENT

Michigan State University, a member of the Association of American Universities and one of the top 100 research universities in the world, was founded in 1855. We are an inclusive, academic community known for our traditionally strong academic disciplines and professional programs, and our liberal arts foundation. Our cross- and interdisciplinary enterprises connect the sciences, humanities, and professions in practical, sustainable, and innovative ways to address society's rapidly changing needs.

As a public, research-intensive, land-grant university funded in part by the state of Michigan, our mission is to advance knowledge and transform lives by:

- providing outstanding undergraduate, graduate, and professional education to promising, qualified students in order to prepare them to contribute fully to society as globally engaged citizen leaders
- conducting research of the highest caliber that seeks to answer questions and create solutions to expand human understanding and make a positive difference, both locally and globally
- advancing outreach, engagement, and economic development activities that are innovative, research-driven, and lead to a better quality of life for individuals and communities, at home and around the world.

From the President December 2013

CONGRATULATORY LETTER

DEAR GRADUATES AND FAMILIES:

Graduation is an important milestone. At commencement ceremonies, we celebrate our graduates and their accomplishments at Michigan State University, and we acknowledge the encouragement and support that family and other significant individuals have provided them. Reaching this milestone marks the completion of a degree program and the beginning of the next chapter in each student's life.

Graduates become part of a tradition that spans more than 150 years. As a person with a long-standing connection to Michigan State, I have had many opportunities to interact with alumni, students, faculty, and staff who, on a daily basis, are advancing knowledge and transforming lives. Although much has changed along the banks of the Red Cedar River since I first enrolled in 1970, the core values of the University remain—quality, inclusiveness, and connectivity.

MSU leads as a "community-engaged university." Our faculty and students are involved in outreach and forge partnerships to serve the public good. Through research, education, and practice, we make the world and our campus better places. To be a Spartan is to be a part of something big. There are more than 500,000 Spartans at work on every continent, rising to practically every challenge imaginable. Every day, we make the world more sustainable, healthy, safe, and beautiful, proving again and again that "Spartans Will."

Our graduates go forth as caring global citizens, and although we bid you farewell I ask you to recall what our legendary President John A. Hannah confirmed. A special bond is forged with our graduates.

Until the moment degrees are conferred and diplomas presented, a university and its students are in a temporary relationship. Either can disclaim the other at any time before that final moment. But when commencement is concluded, Michigan State University places its stamp of approval upon you. You become part of this University ...forever.

Forever starts now. May you have a very bright future and come home often.

Sincerely,

Lou Anna Kimsey Simon Ph.D.
President

From the Acting Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs December 2013

CONGRATULATORY LETTER

DEAR GRADUATES AND FAMILIES:

Congratulations to our graduates and your families! As President Simon encourages you to come home often, so do I!

As you may or may not know, I earned my degrees at Michigan State University. This education has served me well.

It gives me great pleasure to be here at a time when Michigan State University continues to create new opportunities at home, in the state of Michigan, and around the world. With our students and faculty, we are achieving new levels of excellence even as we face many new challenges. Our students are enthusiastic in taking advantage of the opportunities to study and to expand their views, and to grow as individuals and global citizens.

As a student of Michigan State University you are a member of a vibrant community united by the common interest we share as scholars. I hope that even after earning your degree, you will always remain members of this community—that is, be hungry to learn, to seek new knowledge, and to share and apply that knowledge for the betterment of others and to contribute to a more sustainable planet for the generations of Spartans who follow you.

As you and your families celebrate your accomplishments at Michigan State University, we join you in that celebration and wish you the best in all of your personal and professional pursuits and in your future endeavors as Spartans. May the relationships you forged here with your professors and other students continue to inspire you.

Sincerely,

June Pierce Youatt Ph.D.
Acting Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Michigan State University, founded in 1855, is a leader in realizing the ideal of democratizing education and knowledge. Officially named the Agricultural College of the State of Michigan, it became the model for all land-grant institutions established by the Morrill Act, passed by Congress in 1862. The research and knowledge developed at land-grant institutions provides practical solutions that make a difference in the lives of individuals and in communities. Now, as a major public research university with global reach, Michigan State University continues this tradition with its commitment to advancing knowledge and transforming lives across the state, the region, and around the world.

From its beginnings on the site where Beaumont Tower now stands, the East Lansing campus has grown from 677 to 5,200 acres, and from three to 532 buildings. Today, 17,500 acres are used throughout Michigan for agricultural, animal, and forestry research.

MSU has more than 48,000 students from all 83 counties in Michigan, all 50 states, and more than 130 other countries. There are more than one-half million Spartan alumni living around the globe.

Since its agricultural beginnings, MSU has grown to 17 degree-granting colleges offering more than 200 programs of study, including graduate and graduate professional education. The Honors College attracts academically talented scholars and enables these students to pursue individualized, enriched programs of study.

Research and other grants total nearly $500 million a year. The top federal funding agencies include the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Other externally funded research programs include the MSU-U.S. Department of Energy Plant Research Laboratory, the Center for Advancing Microbial Risk Assessment, the Great Lakes Bioenergy Research Center, the Energy and Automotive Research Laboratory Centers, the Composite Vehicle Research Center, the U.S.-China Center for Research on Educational Excellence, the Center for Advanced Study of International Development, and the Center for International Business Education and Research.

The National Superconducting Cyclotron Laboratory is the premier rare isotope research facility in the nation. In December 2008, the U.S. Department of Energy selected MSU to design and establish the Facility for Rare Isotope Beams (FRIB). The proposed $730 million facility will bring together an international community of leading scientists. Their work will help unlock the mysteries of the universe and promote breakthrough applications for medicine, security, and industry.

MSU Extension reaches into all 83 counties in Michigan to provide practical, university-based knowledge. The AgBioResearch (formerly Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station) encompasses the research of 350 scientists in six colleges and a network of 13 research centers across the state. Their work ranges from agricultural production, alternative energy and biofuel production, food safety and environmental stewardship to childhood obesity, community development, and the quality of life of Michigan youth and families.

University Outreach and Engagement connects faculty with external audiences and constituencies to address community issues through research and collaboration. MSU Global extends academic and professional degree and certificate programs to off-campus learners.

MSU is a national leader in study abroad among U.S. public universities with more than 270 programs on all continents in more than 60 countries. Nearly 3,000 MSU students participate in study abroad each year.

Michigan State University is a member of the Association of American Universities, the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, the American Council on Education, the American Council of Learned Societies, the Council of Graduate Schools, and the Committee on Institutional Cooperation.

CEREMONY LYRICS*

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O, say, can you see
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free,
and the home of the brave.

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

ALMA MATER*

M.S.U., We love thy shadows,
when twilight silence falls,
Flushing deep and softly paling,
o'er ivy-covered halls.
Beneath the pines we'll gather,
to give our faith so true,
Sing our love for Alma Mater,
and thy praises, M.S.U.

When from these scenes we wander,
and twilight shadows fade,
Our mem'ry still will linger,
where light and shadows played;
In the evening oft we'll gather,
and pledge our faith anew,
Sing our love for Alma Mater,
and thy praises, MSU.

MSU FIGHT SONG

On the banks of the Red Cedar,
is a school that's known to all;
Its speciality is winning,
and those Spartans play good ball;
Spartan teams are never beaten,
all through the games they fight;
Fight for the only colors,
Green and White.
Go right thru' for MSU,
watch the points keep growing.
Spartan teams are bound to win,
they're fighting with a vim.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
See their team is weakening,
we're going to win this game.
Fight! Fight! Rah! Team, Fight!
Victory for MSU.

*The lyrics of Alma Mater were written by Bernard Traynor (MSC Athletic Department, 1925-1927). The melody is based on Donizetti's Lucia di Lammermoor. It was not until March 30, 1949, after a vote by the students, that the popular song on campus known as the MSU Shadows was finally adopted as the official Alma Mater.

Lyrics by Francis Irvin Lankey (MSU Engineering, 1916).

UNIVERSITY MACE

Michigan State University is pleased to include the University mace in commencement ceremonies. The introduction of the mace, at the 2005 Founders' Day celebration and inauguration of MSU's twentieth president, serves to commemorate the sesquicentennial celebration. The University, founded in 1855, celebrated its 150th birthday in 2005. The mace was designed by University Relations and produced by Physical Plant staff.

Historically, the mace is a symbol of authority dating from medieval times when knights carried them during processions with their kings. As the tradition grew, the mace became a ceremonial symbol of peaceful leadership, and maces were embellished with jewels and metals. Today, a university's mace is carried before the president or chancellor and platform-party dignitaries at commencement, inaugural, and other academic ceremonial processions.

The Michigan State University mace, 42 inches in length, includes important institutional symbols in its finial, crown, and shaft. The finial depicts the circular University seal, which includes an image of "Old College Hall." This oak-carved seal derives from an 1869 State Board of Agriculture (now, Board of Trustees) authorization for a woodcut to be used as the frontispiece of the college academic catalog. College Hall, built in 1856, was the first instructional building erected in the United States for the teaching of scientific agriculture. When it collapsed in 1918, John Beaumont (class of 1882) provided funds to erect Beaumont Tower in 1928 at the same location. The tower stands as a symbol of Michigan State's beginnings as the first land-grant college dedicated to teaching "agriculture and the mechanic arts" with a "liberal and practical curriculum."

The mace's crown is trimmed with a maple samara and acorn pattern carved from walnut, a pattern drawn from the "Michigan State College" limestone relief at the Abbot Road and other campus entrances. An image of Beaumont Tower lies in the crown's oak center. Below the crown is the cylindrical shaft, whose alternating, horizontal oak and walnut bands descend to a brass tip. Its oak is purported to be "Beaumont oak," that is, from one of the original saplings surrounding College Hall. Its walnut is from a tree removed to clear land for the Wharton Center for Performing Arts in 1982.

In its soaring verticality, Beaumont Tower continues to inspire the MSU community and is an appropriate symbol for the MSU mace. As President Robert S. Shaw (1928-1941) stated at the tower's dedication, it has served as "a unifying factor" to remind us, even through our individual activities, of the overall mission of Michigan State University to inspire us by "appealing to many of the better things in us" and to encourage us to "live up to higher standards, scholastically, socially, morally, and spiritually in all of our affairs."

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission, a group of leading American educators, introduced an academic costume code which by design of gowns and hoods would indicate the various degrees, and which by colors would identify the various faculties.

Three types of gowns are indicated by the code. Those worn by the bachelors have long, pointed sleeves. Those worn by masters have long, closed sleeves with the arc of a circle near the bottom. Doctoral gowns are faced with velvet. The sleeves are full, round, and open with three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The velvet facing of the bars on the sleeves may be black or the same color as the binding of the hood.

Hoods are made of material identical with the gown and are lined in the official academic color of the institution conferring the degree (e.g., green and white for MSU). If the institution has more than one color, the chevron is used to introduce the second color. Colored velvet or velveteen binds the hoods and indicates the department of faculty to which the degree pertains.

The color of the velvet of the hood is distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. For example, the trimming for the degree of Master of Science in Agriculture should be maize, representing agriculture, rather than golden yellow, representing science. Generally, the code for the velvet of the hood is the same as listed for tassels.

At Michigan State University, it is customary to identify the candidates graduating from the different areas of study by tassels of the official color as established by the Intercollegiate Code. Candidates graduating from the Honors College wear a white stole with the initials "HC." Candidates graduating "With Honor" or "With High Honor" wear a gold braid.

HONORARY DEGREES

Alumnus Eli Broad, for whom MSU's Eli Broad College of Business is named, is a renowned business leader who built two Fortune 500 companies from the ground up. Not only is he a successful entrepreneur, but Mr. Broad and his wife, Edythe, are engaged in many important philanthropic endeavors. In fall 2002, Michigan State University proudly awarded Mr. Broad an honorary doctorate of humanities.

Eli Broad and his wife, Edythe, with a total gift of $28 million, have made contemporary art available to the entire Michigan State University community and those who visit us from around the globe. The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum officially opened November 10, 2012. The world-class art museum is designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Zaha Hadid. For information about the facility, exhibitions and programs, please visit www.broadmuseum.msu.edu.

We tell our graduates to "Come Home Often." We hope that you, and your family, will come home often and include a visit to the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

MARY SUE COLEMAN

As president of the University of Michigan since 2002, you have been nationally recognized as a higher education leader who has impacted future generations of your students, as well as society at large.

You are regarded as a national spokesperson on the educational value of diverse perspectives in the classroom and have been honored by the Michigan Roundtable for Diversity and Inclusion with their Humanitarian of the Year award and the Michigan Women's Foundation with its Trillium Lifetime Achievement Award.

Your extensive leadership positions in higher education have included the National Collegiate Athletic Association Board of Directors, the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, and the Association of American Universities.

After earning your undergraduate degree in chemistry from Grinnell College and your doctorate in biochemistry from the University of North Carolina, you had a distinguished research career focused on the immune system and malignancies, working for 19 years at the University of Kentucky.

You are a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and have been elected to the Institute of Medicine. As the co-chair of a major policy study at the Institute of Medicine that examined the consequences of uninsurance, you became a nationally recognized expert on that issue.

For your visionary leadership in higher education and health policy, as well as your courage in promoting openness and diversity throughout the academic community, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from Michigan State University.

JAMES PATRICK HACKETT

You are chief executive officer and director of Steelcase Incorporated overseeing all company operations for nearly twenty years. During that time, you transformed Steelcase from a traditional manufacturer into an industry innovator that conducts operations in more than 50 countries around the world from headquarters in Grand Rapids.

At Steelcase, you fostered an atmosphere of lifelong learning throughout the company. You have served as a role model for other businesses to follow by leading a sustainability revolution throughout the supply chain industry that serves your company.

Your Michigan roots are strong. After earning your bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan, you held sales and management positions at Procter & Gamble in Detroit. You serve on the board of advisors to the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy and the leadership council of the Life Sciences Institute at the University of Michigan.

You are a past chairman of the Board of Overseers for the Illinois Institute of Technology's Institute of Design and a member of the executive committee of the board of directors for the National Center for Arts and Technology.

For your integrity and creativity in providing value to your customers and prosperity to your company in a responsible, sustainable way, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Michigan State University.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

SERGIO MARCHIONNE

You are the leader of one of the most well-known vehicle manufacturing conglomerates in the world. As chairman and chief executive officer of Chrysler Group LLC and chief executive officer of Fiat S.p.A., as well as several related corporate entities, you have earned global admiration for returning your companies to profitability during a time of economic upheaval.

You are a truly multinational leader. A native of Chieti, Italy, you grew up in Canada and hold dual Canadian and Italian citizenship. You are a member of the board of the Peterson Institute for International Economics and the chairman of the Italian Branch of the Council for the United States and Italy.

You are a barrister, solicitor and chartered accountant, having earned a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy and Economics from the University of Toronto, a Bachelor of Laws from Osgoode Hall

Law School at York University in Toronto, and a Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Windsor, Canada.

Among your many honors, you hold the Cavaliere del Lavoro, the Italian national order of chivalry for those who have been singularly meritorious in agriculture, industry and commerce crafts, lending and insurance. In 2011, Columbia Business School awarded you the Deming Cup for operational excellence and fostering a culture of continuous improvement in your enterprise.

For your admirable leadership in challenging times and your commitment to a multicultural, collegial style of problem-solving that we in academia aspire to model for the engineers of the future, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Engineering from Michigan State University.

JULIE MEHRETU

You are an accomplished artist who has been internationally recognized and sought after for your unique vision.

You have received the MacArthur "Genius" Award, the American Art Award from the Whitney Museum in New York, the Pat Hearn Inaugural Award, and numerous grants for your work. You have been a resident of the Core Program, Glassell School of Art, The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, and the Artist-in-Residence Program at the Studio Museum in Harlem.

New York Magazine describes your paintings as "exuberant abstract works (that) map real and imaginary cities in layered flickers of ink and broad strokes of color." The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum notes that your "semiabstract works explore the intersections of power, history, dystopia, and the built environment and their impact on the formation of personal and transcommunal identities."

Although you are well-known for your large abstract paintings, your work with prints and etchings has resulted in acclaimed collaborative projects at professional printmaking studios across America.

You were born in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and studied at University Cheikh Anta Diop, Dakar, Senegal. You earned your bachelor's degree from Kalamazoo College, Michigan, and your master of fine arts from Rhode Island School of Design, Providence.

For your successful efforts at representing worldwide social concerns through your highly creative and thought-provoking artwork, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Fine Arts from Michigan State University.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

WILLIAM SAMUEL WHITE

You have devoted 44 years of your life to serving the ideals of the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, of which you are now chief executive officer. You serve as a role model of the foundation's world vision in which each of us is in partnership with the rest of the human race—where each individual's quality of life is connected to the well-being of the community, both locally and globally.

While the foundation remains strongly committed to its hometown of Flint, Michigan, which received $32 million in support last year, you have taken a global view of your mission. As a result, you have received such recognition as the Republic of Poland's Officer's Cross of Merit award—given in appreciation of the role the Mott Foundation has played in building independent, active, and viable non-governmental organizations working for the public good. The United Kingdom's Community Foundation Network (CFN) gave the first-ever Beacon Award for Services to Community Philanthropy to you for your "creative and innovative approach to leveraging new money into communities."

A champion of community-wide support for education—from early childhood to post-secondary education—you received both your bachelor's degree and your master's in business administration degree from Dartmouth College.

For your tireless commitment to making the world a better place, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Michigan State University.

HONORS

The University acknowledges candidates for the bachelor's degree who will graduate as Academic Scholars (A), from the Honors College (H), With Honor (*), or With High Honor (). Academic Scholars completed a two-year honors program including at least four honors-caliber courses. Honors College graduates are academically talented students who have participated in rigorous, highly individualized programs of study, including at least eight honors-caliber courses.

Graduation Honors: the current minimum grade point average for seniors graduating With Honor is 3.71 and those graduating With High Honor is 3.90 (which is approximately 20 percent of graduating seniors who have earned the highest grade point averages). Recognition of graduation honors in the commencement program is based on the grade point average of all work at MSU completed prior to the opening of the semester of graduation. To be eligible for graduation honors, transfer students must earn a minimum of 50 semester credits at MSU.

Presentation of Diplomas

Lou Anna Kimsey Simon, President

Concluding Remarks

Lou Anna Kimsey Simon, President

Alma Mater (lyrics, page 9)

Composed by Bernard Traynor, Arranged by Michael D. Sailors
(The Orchestra, Mrs. Fortin, and Audience)

Recessional

The MSU Jazz Orchestra I (Be-Bop Spartans)
Conducted by Rodney T. Whitaker, University Distinguished Professor

Professor L. Susan Carter, Chairperson, The Steering Committee, MSU Academic Governance, is the academic mace bearer. We would like to express our appreciation to the Senior Class Council and staff for their assistance at the commencement exercises.

The audience is requested to remain seated while those in the processional are entering and leaving the arena.

Fred L. Poston, Dean

"Until the moment degrees are conferred and diplomas presented, a university and its students are in a temporary relationship. Either can disclaim the other at any time before that final moment. But when commencement is concluded, Michigan State University places its stamp of approval upon you. You become part of this University . . . forever."

John A. Hannah (1902-1991)
 President, Michigan State University (1941-1969)
