GREETING

To all who are in any way connected with the Michigan Agricultural College, to the faculty and to the students, old and new, the Christian Association of this institution extends glad and hearty greetings.

This Handbook has been prepared for the purpose of presenting to you a few of the important features of our college and of acquainting you with the various phases of its life. This little book has been placed in your hands as a standing invitation to join a Christian Association and engage in some of its lines of work.

We offer pledges of good fellowship, and ask the privilege of joining with you in promoting the very best interests of the College, this year, in every activity.

DON'TS FOR NEW STUDENTS

Don't forget that we were new once ourselves, so ask questions.

Don't think you must be a sport at M. A. C.

Don't forget Chapel 9:55 to 10:10.

Don't neglect your social life. Remember the receptions.

Don't fail to join a Bible and Mission class.

Don't be conceited, for there are plenty ready to take it out of you and it hurts.

Don't forget the resolutions you made before coming to college.

Don't eat too fast in the clubs.

Don't forget the Association meeting at 6:20 on Thursday evening in the Association room.

Don't do anything you would not have your parents know.

Don't neglect physical exercise, even if you can't make a team.

Don't forget mother—write home often.

Don't join any organization until you know what you are joining.

Don't neglect to learn the college song and yells on pages 12, 14 and 16.

Don't forget to join the Association.

Don't forget the foot ball schedule. Give the team your support.

Don't lose courage.

Don't waste time.

Don't smoke on the campus.

Don't look up the advertisers and trade with the other fellow.

Don't have your wishbone where your backbone ought to be.

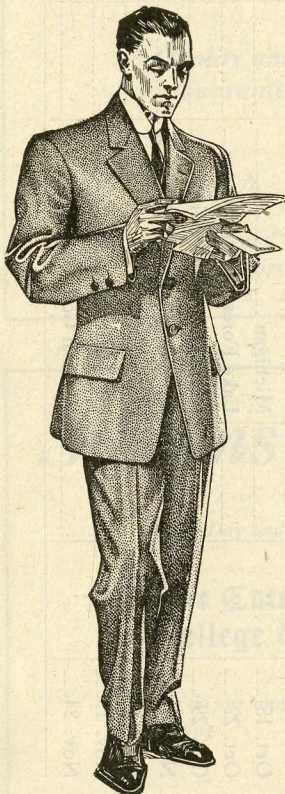

Ask Yourself

Here's a suggestion. Before you select your wearables for the coming season just look over the ground carefully.

Ask yourself what store has the reputation for selling the best clothes and giving the best value.

After the matter is settled we are sure you will come here for your clothes.

FOOT BALL SONGS

I

They say that our team, they cannot play ball.
Play ball all the while, play ball all the while.
They say that our team, they cannot play ball.
Play ball all the while, all the while.

Rah! Rah!

II

Down before the farmers, down before the farmers.

Down before the farmers——goes!

Um—ah!—Tigers!

III

Cheer! boys, cheer! our team has got the ball,
My! oh, my! but won't they take a fall;
And when we hit their line, they'll have no line
at all,

There'll be a hot time on the old farm tonight.

M. A. C. (Repeat all.)

IV

Smashing, smashing, smashing,
Line bucks and forward passing.
Around the ends and thru the line,
Fighting for M. A. C. all the time,
We're going to beat you, Wabash,
You bet that we can do 'er,
For the man who teaches us football,
Is BREWER! BREWER! BREWER!

That's not so bad, is it boys—not so bad as it would be if it were worse? But is there anybody on the campus who can do it worse—that's the question? Or rather, that's one of the questions, but not the main question. The main question is: where on earth can you get such gingery styles — such dependable merchandise — such variety and such "fascinating fits" in shirts, underwear, nightrobes and similar fixin's as we can give you? Keep quality in mind, and then remember that our prices are always the lowest.

CHORUS

Swell the chorus! Let it echo
Over hill and vale;
Hail to thee, our loving mother,
M. A. C., all hail.

First of all thy race, fond mother,
Thus we greet thee now,
While with loving hands the laurel
Twine we o'er thy brow.

Backward through the hazy distance
Troop the days of yore,
Scenes and faces float before us,
Cherished more and more.

College Hall and Wells and Williams,
Abbott and the rest,
Halcyon days were those spent with you,
Days of all the best.

Fold us fondly to your bosom,
Alma Mater, dear,
Sing we now their endless praises,
Sounding cheer on cheer.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

MOTTO:

"Not by might, nor by power, but by the spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

The Young Women's Christian Association of M. A. C. extend greetings to all new students. In an effort to get a college education, let us not neglect the higher education which makes the true woman. The devotional meeting of the Association is held every Thursday evening and is conducted by members of the Association. The good derived from these helpful and interesting talks cannot be overestimated. You will be asked to join the Association either as an active or an associate member. If you are overlooked in any way, feel at liberty to ask the chairman of the membership committee for a membership blank.

BIBLE AND MISSION CLASSES

The Bible study classes afford an excellent opportunity for all to study the Bible in a systematic way. A knowledge of the Bible is a source of moral and spiritual development.

The aim of the Mission classes is to bring one in touch with the outside world. In addition to a knowledge of the religious work one learns the habits and customs of the people of different nations, and so in this way is more able to see the cause of missions. It will pay you to take one or both of these courses.

At present we are helping to support Miss Dobbins in China.

these conferences one meets with persons of national fame as Christian workers, besides the representative girls from the various colleges and universities. The conference last summer was held at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, and the Association sent three delegates. It is likely that the conference will again take place at Lake Geneva next summer, and we hope that a much larger delegation may be sent.

MICHIGAN CABINET CONFERENCE

The cabinet officers of the Associations of Michigan met at a conference at Olivet last year for the purpose of discussing their various problems. Twelve girls from the M. A. C. Association attended.

juniors, and one sophomore, to be elected by the classes named the first week of each fall term. The officers to be a president from the seniors and a secretary from the juniors.

REGULATIONS AND CUSTOMS

I. Class numerals can be worn only by members of its football, baseball, basket ball, or track teams, or by those who have earned a position on the first or second varsity teams, and then only when these numerals have been awarded by the Athletic Council upon the recommendation of the class.

II. Each and every freshman and sub-freshman shall wear at all times during the fall and spring terms, except on Sunday, caps of the following descriptions: For freshmen, an official brown cap with a small visor and a green button, (amended, that present freshmen caps be worn for remainder of this year); for sub-freshmen, a gray cap with a black button. They shall not at any time while in college wear a pin representing their preparatory school in any manner, nor shall they wear any emblem or insignia of that institution.

III. "Student night" shall be the last Thursday night of the spring term, when a celebration in the form of a "Night Shirt Parade" shall be held under the supervision of the Junior class. At this time the freshmen and sub-freshmen caps shall be burned. All classes shall participate in this celebration.

IV. No freshman or sub-freshman shall be allowed to go without a cap or hat about the campus.

V. There shall be no hazing. Occasionally some individual first year man may be made to feel that one can know too much from the first, but hazing is severely condemned as a general practice.

VI. The old class rushes have been abolished and the "Organized Rush" on the second Saturday of the fall term substituted.

VII. No student shall be allowed to loaf around the college barber shop.

VIII. Freshmen and sub-freshmen shall at all times show due respect to upper classmen.

IX. All students shall show their respect to college professors by tipping their hats.

X. The most important social function of the college course is the "Junior Hop," given by each class during the winter term of its junior year.

XI. The week of commencement shall be known as "Senior Week."

PRIVILEGE

I. Only seniors shall be allowed to wear stiff hats about the campus.

TRADITION

I. A time honored tradition at M. A. C. is that no student shall smoke on the campus.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Alpha Zeta—In 1902 a chapter of the Alpha Zeta fraternity was installed at the college. It is the aim of the fraternity to honor students who have distinguished themselves in agricultural studies.

College Band—The students maintain a musical association known as the College Band, in charge of the military department.

Debating Club—The Debating Club holds weekly meetings during the college sessions, the main feature of each program being a debate between members selected by the club. For several years a debate has been held with the Ypsilanti normal during the spring term. This department is as important as athletics.

Farmers' Club—The Farmers' Club is a society composed of agricultural students, having for its object the study and discussion of practical up-to-date questions in agriculture.

Its plan of organization is identical with that of the regular Farmers' Club, and it is one of the units of that great Association of Farmers' Clubs of Michigan, sending delegates to the state meetings. It was organized December 6, 1899.

The club is a very wide-awake organization and its meetings are very largely attended.

Foresters' Club—An organization of forestry students and others interested in forestry which meets each alternate Tuesday evening forms a valuable adjunct to the course.

Horticultural Club—For those interested in horticulture a club has been organized which meets every week during the college sessions.

Engineering Society—A club has been organized by the engineering students to discuss subjects relating to mechanical, civil and electrical engineering. Weekly meetings are held in the physics lecture room at which papers are read and discussed. Non-resident engineers of note in their respective lines frequently appear before the engineering students under the auspices of this society.

All engineering students are urged to become members.

Prohibition League—This is an organization for the purpose of studying the saloon question from economic standpoint.

LIBERAL ARTS UNION

The Liberal Arts Union is an organization among students and faculty. It is designed to promote those interests not falling within the scope of the class room activities, especially in the way of entertainment and other general interests. It is hoped that the union may assist the various college organizations in at least an advisory capacity and thus stimulate those interests that contribute towards general culture. Thus far the union has done much in creating a new interest in a better class of entertainment. The course selected for this season is made up of some of the best artists of the country and every student will be missing a great opportunity if he does not attend all of the lectures, readings, concerts, etc.

THE COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

Another outcropping of the spirit of democracy which prevails at this college was manifested in the organization of the Cosmopolitan Club which took place during the past year. The movement began last term when all the foreign students and a few Americans gathered for the purpose of considering some means of cultivating social intercourse between the students of the various nationalities represented at this institution. At that time, temporary officers were elected and a committee was appointed to draw up a constitution which would suit the needs of such an organization. The club now has a membership of sixteen, representing eight nationalities. As stated above, the object of this club is to cultivate social intercourse between the students of the different nationalities, and further, as its constitution states, "to study the conditions of, and to promote a better understanding of the political, social and cultural problems of the various countries, and thereby foster the spirit of universal brotherhood."

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The student department of the Y. M. C. A. is the largest inter-collegiate organization in existence. There are 739 student associations in the colleges and universities of North America, with a membership of 47,000. The Y. M. C. A. of North America is affiliated with the student organizations of other lands in one gigantic world-embracing student federation. Thus one in allying with the body is not only joining himself to a local organization, but he becomes a part of a great world-wide movement, far reaching in its effect. By entering its membership, a student associates himself with those who are endeavoring to promote Christian activity at M. A. C. All who have sympathy with such a purpose and all others who believe in right living are urged to join the Association within the first week of the fall term.

THE COMPASS

Four things a man must learn to do
If he would make his record true:
To think without confusion clearly;
To love his fellowmen sincerely;
To act from honest motives purely;
To trust in God and heaven securely.

—Henry Van Dyke.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

Section 1. The object of this Association shall be, the development of Christian manhood and good fellowship among its members and the promotion of Christian work, especially among students.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The members of this Association shall be classed as Active, Associate, Honorary and Sustaining.

Section 2. Active membership of this Association shall consist of students of this institution who are members in good standing of an evangelical church and have been approved by a majority of the membership committee. Only active members shall have the right to vote and hold office.

Section 3. The associate membership of this Association shall consist of students of good moral character who have been approved by a majority of the membership committee.

Section 4. The honorary membership of this Association shall consist of all alumni members and such members of the faculty as the membership committee consider are entitled to membership, because of their especial interest shown in the work of the Association.

Section 5. Sustaining membership of this Association shall consist of persons who otherwise than by regular dues contribute to the work of the Association.

Section 6. Dues for active or associate members shall be $1.50 per year.

MEETINGS

The regular Y. M. C. A. meetings are held every Thursday evening during the college year in the Association room. The meetings are held immediately after supper, and are very effective in inspiring those who attend to a cleaner and better life. The meetings held Sunday nights in conjunction with the Y. W. C. A. are of special benefit. These meetings are addressed by members of the faculty, business and professional men. The aim is to make these meetings as popular as possible, and at the same time be of definite help to those who attend.

BIBLE STUDY

We believe that a practical knowledge of the Bible is a necessary part of a student's education, as well as a source of moral and spiritual strength. There will be a number of classes organized which will make an especial appeal to the college man. It is a truism that your Bible will aid you more if you know it than if you don't. Every student is urged to join one of these classes.

MISSIONS

A number of classes are conducted for the study of the history of Christian progress in foreign lands and at home. You will find this field of investigation one of peculiar interest and value.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONVENTION

The Quadrennial Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement was held at Rochester, New York, during the Christmas vacation. There were eight delegates—two girls, one instructor, the secretary and four students from M. A. C. present at this great convention. The inspiration which they received at this convention has added a stimulus to the missionary work at the College. These conventions are held but once in a college generation. Men and women from all parts of the world take part in them.

STATE CONVENTION

The State Y. M. C. A. Convention was held at Detroit, Michigan, during the latter part of April of last year. The secretary, the president and one other member of the Association were in attendance. Plans for the work of the coming year were discussed and policies were adopted.

SUMMER CONFERENCE

The Annual Summer Conference was held at Linwood Park last year. M. A. C. sent a delegation of three men. These conferences are one of the greatest factors in stimulating an active interest in Christian work. The colleges from Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, western New York and the Province of Ontario are represented at these conferences. It is a great help to the Association to be able to send delegates to these conferences. We hope to send more next year.

PURPOSES OF THE ASSOCIATION

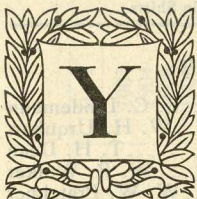

- To assist all students.
- To provide uplifting social environments.
- To promote high college ideals.
- To provide practical religious instruction.
- To lead men to follow Jesus Christ.
- To present the responsibilities of citizenship.
- To lead men to join the church.
- To present the claims of religious callings.

SOCIAL

The Y. M. C. A. seeks to develop the social side of the students. Socials and receptions are held throughout the year, one or two for the men of the college, and as many are held in conjunction with the young ladies at the Ladies' Hall.

STRAY STRAWS FOR STRANGE STUDENTS

Christianity is a man's job.

Stick to your aim; a mongrel's hold will slip; naught but a crowbar can loose a bulldog's grip.

It has been said that the first three weeks of a college man's career determines his whole college life. How are you going to start?

“He that humbleth himself shall be exalted.”

If you do not use your talent, you lose it.

We can gain power and acquire strength of will by overcoming resistance; by doing what we ought to do; by being what we ought to be; by going where we ought to go, no matter what the obstacle.

If you think about your past records, think of them for one thing only, and that as a stimulus to greater deeds.

The way to be useful and happy is to forget self—do something for others.

The Bible is the one book that no intelligent person, who wishes to come into contact with the world of thought and to share the ideas of the great minds of the Christian era, can afford to be ignorant of.—Charles Dudley Warner.

There are in Shakespeare's works more than five hundred and fifty Biblical quotations, allusions, references and sentiments. Shakespeare quotes from fifty-four of the Biblical books, and not one of his thirty-seven plays is without a Scriptural reference.—Bishop Wardsworth.

There are no songs comparable to the songs of Zion, no orations equal to those of the Prophets and no politics like those which the Scriptures teach.—John Milton.

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to do your best will breed in you temperance, self-control, diligence, strength of will, content, and a hundred virtues which the idle will never know.—Charles Kingsley.

The educated man is the one who is unwilling to view the world from the spire of his parish steeple.—Voltaire.

OUR PAPER

For two years the students of M. A. C. have published a paper, The Holcad. The publication has had unprecedented success because of its snappy, up-to-date news and stories. The students are proud of this paper and it is up to you to put your shoulder to the wheel and do your little stunt.

First of all, subscribe for the paper and then boost by handing in contributions and talking about it.

THE ADVERTISERS

In this little hand book have made it possible by their loyal support, and we in turn should show our appreciation by giving them our trade.

THE PUBLISHERS

Wish to thank the merchants of Lansing for the readiness in which they took out ads, and hope this will be a banner year in your business.

DIRECTIONS

To get to M. A. C. take any car going east from the Union depot, or north from the Grand Trunk. Tell conductor where you are going and he will get you there.

After reaching the grounds the first place to go is to the president's office and get registered after showing proper credentials. From there you go to your class officer, and he will make out your classification slip. Now you are ready to see the secretary where all fees and incidentals are paid. You now go to the registrar's office and have your slip countersigned and now you are ready to classify by enrolling in each class and having the teacher sign their initials opposite the subject taken. When all are signed, return slip to class officer who signs and returns to you.
