GREETING

To all who are in any way connected with the Michigan Agricultural College, to the faculty and to the students, old and new, the Christian Association of this institution extends glad and hearty greetings.

This Handbook has been prepared for the purpose of presenting to you a few of the important features of our college and of acquainting you with the various phases of its life. This little book has been placed in your hands as a standing invitation to join a Christian Association and engage in some of its lines of work.

We offer pledges of good fellowship, and ask the privilege of joining with you in promoting the very best interests of the College, this year, in every activity.

DON'TS FOR NEW STUDENTS

Don't forget that we were new once ourselves, so ask questions.

Don't think you must be a sport at M. A. C.

Don't forget Chapel 7:40 to 8:00.

Don't neglect your social life. Remember the receptions.

Don't fail to join a Bible and Mission class.

Don't be conceited, for there are plenty ready to take it out of you and it hurts.

Don't forget the resolutions you made before coming to college.

Don't eat to fast in the clubs.

Don't forget the Association meeting at 6:20 on Thursday evening in the Association room.

Don't do anything you would not have your parents know.

Don't neglect physical exercise, even if you can't make a team.

Don't forget mother—write home often.

Don't join any organization until you know what you are joining.

Don't neglect to learn the college songs and yells. (? ? ?)

Don't forget to join the Association.

Don't forget the foot ball schedule. Give the team your support.

Don't lose courage.

Don't waste time.

Don't look up the advertisers and trade with the other fellow.

Don't have your wishbone where your backbone ought to be.

FOOT BALL SONGS

I

They say that our team, they cannot play ball.

Play ball all the while, play ball all the while.

They say that our team, they cannot play ball.

Play ball all the while, all the while.

Rah! Rah!

II

Down before the farmers, down before the farmers.

Down before the farmers——goes!

Um— ah!—Tigers!

III

Cheer! boys, cheer! our team has got the ball,

My! oh, my! but won't they take a fall;

And when we hit their line, they'll have no line at all,

There'll be a hot time on the old form to-night.

M. A. C. (Repeat all.)

IV

Smashing, smashing, smashing,

Line bucks and forward passing.

Around the ends and thru the line,

Fighting for M. A. C. all the time,

We're going to beat you, Wabash,

You bet that we can win,

For the man who teaches us the game,

Is Mac! Mac! Lin!

OUR ALMA MATER

Words by A. M. Brown.
Close beside the winding Cedar's
Sloping banks of green,
Spreads thy campus, Alma Mater,
Fairest ever seen.

Chorus

Swell the chorus! Let it echo
Over hill and vale;
Hail to thee, our loving mother,
M. A. C., all hail.

First of all thy race, fond mother,
Thus we greet thee now,
While with loving hands the laurel
Twine we o'er thy brow.

Backward through the hazy distance
Troop the days of yore,
Scenes and faces float before us,
Cherished more and more.

College Hall and Wells and Williams,
Abbott and the rest,
Halcyon days were those spent with you,
Days of all the best.

Fold us fondly to your bosom,
Alma Mater, dear,
Sing we now their endless praises,
Sounding cheer on cheer.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

MOTTO:

"Not by might, nor by power, but by the spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

The membership of the Young Women's Christian Association of M. A. C. extend greetings to all new students. We are all striving toward the betterment of mankind through a higher education. However high our ideal may be we can reach it more readily by working in unison, and the association affords this opportunity. Then it is our loss if we do not get in touch with its work. The devotional meeting is held every Thursday evening, in the recitation room of the Women's building. (Plans are being made for an association room in the near future.) These meetings are conducted by members of the associations and occasionally by an outside speaker. The benefit and inspiration of these meetings are open to all. You will be asked to join in the fall term, but if for any reason you are overlooked, feel free to speak to the chairman of the membership committee about it.

BIBLE STUDY

Today a knowledge of the Bible is essential to every well educated individual. It is valuable as a history, as a story and especially valuable in close relationship to Him, who is more than a friend to us. An opportunity to join classes is afforded at any time during the school year.

MISSION STUDY

Although there may be things we might learn of our native land, yet we cannot afford to lose sight entirely of conditions abroad. The mission classes, which meet each week, tend to develop this feature and make us nearer the well rounded college woman.

LAKE GENEVA CONFERENCE

Sixteen girls are anticipating all the pleasures of Geneva this summer. This means two tents filled with M. A. C. representatives. The conference will be held from August 26 to September 4. The situation of the camp is ideal; the tent life is ideal; the conference spirit is ideal and its value to you can not be over estimated. There are seven states represented and the total number of delegates last summer was 650. Plan to go to Geneva at least once during your college course.

freshmen, an official brown cap with a small visor and a green button, (amended, that present freshmen caps be worn for remainder of this year); for sub-freshmen, a gray cap with a black button. They shall not at any time in college wear a pin representing their preparatory school in any manner, nor shall they wear any emblem or insignia of that institution.

III. "Student night" shall be the last Thursday night of the spring term, when a celebration in the form of a "Night Shirt Parade" shall be held under the supervision of the Junior class. At this time the freshmen and sub-freshmen caps shall be burned. All classes shall participate in this celebration.

IV. No freshman or sub-freshman shall be allowed to go without a cap or hat about the campus.

V. There shall be no hazing. Occasionally some individual first year man may be made to feel that one can know too much from the first, but hazing is severely condemned as a general practice.

VI. The old class rushes have been abolished and the "Organized Rush" on the second Saturday of the fall term substituted.

VII. No student shall be allowed to loaf around the college barber shop.

VIII. Freshmen and sub-freshmen shall at all times show due respect to upper classmen.

IX. All students shall show their respect to college professors by tipping their hats.

X. The most important social function of the college course is the "Junior Hop," given by each class during the winter term of its junior year.

XI. The week of commencement shall be known as "Senior Week."

STUDENTS ORGANIZATIONS

Alpha Zeta—In 1902 a chapter of the Alpha Zeta fraternity was installed at the college. It is the aim of the fraternity to honor students who have distinguished themselves in agricultural studies.

College Band—The students maintain a musical association known as the college Band, in charge of the military department.

Debating Club—The Debating Club holds weekly meetings during the college sessions, the main feature of each program being a debate between members selected by the club. For several years a debate has been held with the Ypsilanti normal during the spring term.

Farmers' Club—The Farmers' Club is a society composed of agricultural students, having for its object the study and discussion of practical up-to-date questions in agriculture. It was organized Dec. 6, 1899.

Foresters' Club—An organization of forestry students and others interested in forestry which meets each alternate Tuesday evening forms a valuable adjunct to the course.

Horticultural Club—For those interested in horticulture a club has been organized which meets every week during the college sessions.

Engineering Society—A club to discuss subjects relating to mechanical, civil and electrical engineering. Non-resident engineers of note in their respective lines frequently appear before the engineering students under the auspices of this society.

Sociological Club—The sociological club is an organization of limited membership and restricted to upper classmen. The purpose is to deal with sociological problems which confront the college men in college and after life.

The Cosmopolitan Club—The object of this club is to cultivate social intercourse between the students of different nationalities, and further, as its constitution states, "to study the conditions of, and to promote a better understanding of the political, social and cultural problems of the various countries, and thereby foster the spirit of universal brotherhood."

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The student department of the Y. M. C. A. is the largest inter-collegiate organization in existence. There are 739 student associations in the colleges and universities of North America, with a membership of 47,000. The Y. M. C. A. of North America is affiliated with the student organizations of other lands in one gigantic world-embracing student federation. Thus one in allying with the body is not only joining himself to a local organization, but he becomes a part of a great world-wide movement, far reaching in its effect. By entering its membership, a student associates himself with those who are endeavoring to promote Christian activity at M. A. C. All who have sympathy with such a purpose and all others who believe in right living are urged to join the Association within the first week of the fall term.

EXTRACTS FROM CONSTITUTION

Article I—Name

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be: The Young Men's Christian Association of the Michigan Agricultural College.

Article II—Object

Section 1. The object of this Association shall be, the development of Christian manhood and good fellowship among its members and the promotion of Christian work, especially among students.

Article III—Membership

Section 1. The members of this Association shall be classed as Active, Associate, Honorary and Sustaining.

Section 2. Active membership of this Association shall consist of students of this institution who are members in good standing of an evangelical church and have been approved by a majority of the membership committee. Only active members shall have the right to vote and hold office.

Section 3. The associate membership of this Association shall consist of students of good moral character who have been approved by a majority of the membership committee.

Section 4. The honorary membership of this Association shall consist of all alumni members and such members of the faculty as the membership committee consider are entitled to membership, because of their special interest shown in the work of the Association.

Section 5. Sustaining membership of this Association shall consist of persons who otherwise than by regular dues contribute to the work of the Association.

Section 6. Dues for active or associate members shall be $1.50 per year.

MEETINGS

The regular Y. M. C. A. meetings are held every Thursday evening during the college year in the Association room. The meetings are held immediately after supper, and are very effective in inspiring those who attend to a cleaner and better life. The meetings held Sunday nights in conjunction with the Y. W. C. A. are of special benefit. These meetings are addressed by members of the faculty, business and professional men. The aim is to make these meetings as popular as possible, and at the same time be of definite help to those who attend.

BIBLE STUDY

We believe that a practical knowledge of the Bible is a necessary part of a student's education, as well as a source of moral and spiritual strength. There will be a number of classes organized which will make an especial appeal to the college man. It is a trueism that your Bible will aid you more if you know it than if you don't. Every student is urged to join one of these classes.

MISSIONS

A number of classes are conducted for the study of history of Christian progress in foreign lands and at home. You will find this field of investigation one of peculiar interest and value.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONVENTION

The Quadrennial Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement was held at Rochester, New York, during the Christmas vacation. There were eight delegates—two girls, one instructor, the secretary and four students from M. A. C. present at this great convention. The inspiration which they received at this convention has added a stimulus to the missionary work at the college. These conventions are held but once in a college generation. Men and women from all parts of the world take part in them.

STATE CONVENTION

The State Y. M. C. A. Convention was held at Detroit, Michigan, during the latter part of April of last year. The secretary, the president and one other member of the Association were in attendance. Plans for the work of the coming year were discussed and policies were adopted.

SUMMER CONFERENCE.

The Annual Summer Conference was held at Linwood Park last year. M. A. C. sent a delegation of three men. These conferences are one of the greatest factors in stimulating an active interest in Christian work. The colleges from Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, western New York and the Province of Ontario are represented at these conferences. It is a great help to the Association to be able to send delegates to these conferences. We hope to send more next year.

PURPOSES OF THE ASSOCIATION

To assist all students.

To provide uplifting social environments.

To promote high college ideals.

To provide practical religious instruction.

To lead men to follow Jesus Christ.

To present the responsibilities of citizenship.

To lead men to join the church.

To present the claims of religious callings.

SOCIAL

The Y. M. C. A. seeks to develop the social side of the students. Socials and receptions are held throughout the year, one or two for the men of the college, and as many are held in conjunction with the young ladies at the Ladies' Hall.

The Bible is the one book that no intelligent person, who wishes to come into contact with the world of thought and to share the ideas of the great minds of the Christian era, can afford to be ignorant of.—Charles Dudley Warner.

There are no songs comparable to the songs of Zion, no orations equal to those of the Prophets and no politics like those which the Scriptures teach.—John Milton.

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to do your best will breed in you temperance, self-control, diligence, strength of will, content, and a hundred virtues which the idle will never know.—Charles Kingsley.

NUGGETS

Who seeks for heaven above to save his soul
May keep the path but will not reach the goal
While he who walks in love may wander far
Yet God will bring him where the blessed are.

Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

For God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

STRAY STRAWS FOR STRANGE STUDENTS

Christianity is a man's job.

Stick to your aim; a mongrel's hold will slip; naught but a crowbar can loose a bulldog's grip.

It has been said that the first three weeks of a college man's career determines his whole college life. How are you going to start?

"He that humbleth himself shall be exalted."

If you do not use your talent, you lose it.

We can gain power and acquire strength of will by overcoming resistance; by doing what we ought to do; by being what we ought to be; by going where we ought to go, no matter what the obstacle.

If you think about your past records, think of them for one thing only, and that as a stimulus to greater deeds.

The way to be useful and happy is to forget self—do something for others

There are in Shakespeare's works more than five hundred and fifty Biblical quotations, allusions, references and sentiments. Shakespeare quotes from fifty-four of the Biblical books, and not one of his thirty-seven plays is without a Scriptural reference.—Bishop Wardsworth.

The educated man is the one who is unwilling to view the world from the spire of the parish steeple.—Voltaire.
