

So who needs an Oktoberfest?

THE GREEK INTERPRETERS OF EAST LANSING PROUDLY ANNOUNCE THE
FIRST ANNUAL NOVEMBER DEVINE BUST

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1985

PISTACHIO'S RESTAURANT, 2827 E. GRAND RIVER, E. LANSING

COCKTAILS (CASH BAR) 5:30 DINNER 7:00

STORY: "THE ADVENTURE OF THE SIX NAPOLEONS"

The program for the evening will include the usual quiz, Canonical toasts, etc. Anyone wishing to offer a paper, book or film review, report of travels or visits of Sherlockian interest, reports on activities of other Scion societies, volunteers for toasts, or other items of entertainment should contact Howard Brody, 2726 Fontaine Trail, Holt, MI 48842, 694-2396.

The Menu will consist of a choice of three entrees: Canadian Whitefish; Chicken Marsala Medallions (sauteed in butter with mushrooms); or London Broil (with bourdelaise sauce). An advance selection need not be made. With each entree comes salad, bread, vegetable du jour, potato du jour, coffee or tea, and a parfait sherbet. Cost is $11.00 per person which includes tax and tip.

Please complete the form below and mail to Erik Beckman, School of Criminal Justice, 522 Baker Hall, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824. Enclose your check for the proper amount made out to Erik Beckman. Reservations must be received by the morning of Monday, November 18.

Please reserve _____ places for dinner at $11.00 per person. I enclose the sum of $_____.

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Mail to: Erik Beckman, School of Criminal Justice, MSU, East Lansing, MI 48824.

