M.S.C. SHADOWS

I.

M.S.C. we love thy shadows
When twilight silence falls,
Flushing deep and softly paling
O'er ivy covered walls;
Beneath the pines we'll gather
To give our hearts to thee,
Sing our love for Alma Mater
And thy praises M.S.C.

II.

When from the scenes we wander
And twilight shadows fade,
Our mem'ry still will linger
Where light and shadows played;
In the evening oft we'll gather
And turn our thoughts to thee,
Sing our love for Alma Mater
And thy praises M.S.C.

M.S.C. Fight Song

On the banks of the Red Cedar—is a college known to all;

Their specialty is winning, and those Spartans play football.

Spartan teams are never beaten—All through the game they fight,

Fight for the only colors, Green and White.

Smash right through that line of blue, Watch the points keep growing,

Spartan teams are bound to win, They're fighting with a vim.

RAH RAH RAH

See their line is weakening, We're going to win this game.

Fight Fight Rah team fight

Victory for M.S.C.

She's Your Counselor for Women

GREETINGS to Michigan State Coeds: This little book is designed as an everyday handbook to help you toward an effective adjustment to college. This is just a preview of what to expect, of how some things are done here. It cannot include everything you need to know. If you want to know something about which you are in doubt, ask. My door is always open to you. My telephone is always accessible even after hours. Our office is designed to serve you.

I hope you will know your student government and feel a part of it. Your governing boards are not remote boards of control. They are made up of representatives from your residences and form a truly representative government in which you have a voice.

Best wishes to you for a pleasant and satisfying year.

Your representatives in each dormitory and living unit will gladly answer questions for you. Also, your A. W. S. office on the third floor of the Union is open to you each day.

Wherever and whenever we can help you in any way, remember we shall be pleased to do so.

Best wishes for happy successful days at Michigan State.

President — Judiciary
Legislative Board

And Their Greetings to You

ON BEHALF of the Activities Board and Judiciary-Legislative Board of A.W.S., we wish to extend a friendly hand to welcome you to Michigan State.

As you know, living and getting along in a society requires a knowledge of its laws and customs. And that's why this little book—each woman registered at M.S.C. is automatically a member of A.W.S., so we have compiled this little book to help you, as one of us, gain a knowledge of the laws and customs of your new home.

The motto inscribed over the door of Beaumont Tower says, "As a man soweth," suggesting the rest of the saying, "So shall he reap." Take it to heart. For if you put a lot into your college life, you will gain much knowledge, satisfaction, and many, many new friends and experiences.

Our boards have been set up to help you in this task, so, if there is anything we can do for you, please let us know. Remember, you are A.W.S.
The best of luck!

Traditions

M.S.C. has grown to unprecedented heights in the last few years with the addition of many more students, many more buildings, many more professors, organizations, and friends. Yet with all this growth, we are becoming continually aware that much that is old has become so closely integrated with our college life, that it would be impossible to tear them from M.S.C.

Traditions are among the old. Many started with the first freshman class and have been kept alive by succeeding classes. They're not written laws . . . but they are a part of what makes M.S.C. your college, and they will add to the memories of your life here if you have learned to share in their functioning.

HOWDY

Our college is known to have a friendly campus, and with good reason, for it is traditional here to say "Hello" to everyone, whether or not you're acquainted. Make with the welcome to visiting F.F.A.'s, 4-H's, and visiting teachers . . . Public relations, you know! A smile once in awhile won't hurt its recipient . . . or you . . . a bit!

I DON'T HAVE A THING TO WEAR

Campus wear will probably be your first worry . . . don't let it! Sweaters and skirts or other casual sportswear are the picture for jaunts to class and the grill. When kept cleaned and pressed, a more appropriate outfit couldn't be had. If winter breezes chill you to the quick, dig out the slacks for that trek to South Campus. But beware . . . don't overdo it! Preserving manhood in the stronger sex necessitates your remaining feminine.

Shorts? They're permitted, but only when worn under a long coat.

As for evening wear for college functions, don't forget, that even at home stockings and flats were expected for concerts and the dra-mah! Shouldn't M.S.C. rate the same?

WALK AND PUFF

. . . But not while walking across campus, please. You light up in the Union or in your dormitories, but in classrooms or on the sidewalks . . . it just ain't done. Old cigarette butts are not conducive to the growth of struggling grass, nor, for that matter, are your feet. So keep them on the walks . . . both of them.

LOVE IS WHERE YOU FIND IT

Twelve o'clock and all is well . . . that is, if you're his Mary, and he's your Johnny, and you've just concluded a happy evening with that midnight kiss in the shadows of Beaumont Tower. It may not be love, but at least you'll never forget that it was Johnny who initiated you to the rank of "Official Coed of Michigan State College."

Beware the engagement bench nearby, however, unless you're wearing that crystalized carbon on your third-finger-left-hand. It's not a rest stop on your tiresome trip to the Library. If he takes the final plunge, and you find yourself a qualified squatter, then be prepared also for a tubbing from your dormmates. Everyone has a splashing good time . . . even you (?).

Pinnings (besides rating a dunking, also) usually draw out the brothers to serenade you beneath your window. If you're the Fortunate Miss, don a white dress or robe . . . carry lighted candle in hand . . . and stand at the window. If on the other hand the serenade is for the whole house, show your appreciation by clapping . . . or better yet, sing back.

An engagement or pinning means another serenading, also. Friends in the house should give forth with "I Love You Truly" for the betrothed, and "Sweetheart" for the pinned.

SIS

You'll call her your Big Sister, but she's really a friend . . . in need or otherwise. She'll be knocking at your door before you're hardly unpacked, and better than any map possibly could, she'll direct you to the Union or to your South Campus class. Got a problem? Just give her a ring, and she'll be ready to help you at any time!

FOR MEN ONLY

There's a place in East Lansing that's not for you. The fair female may have taken over just about everything else on campus, but the Smoke Shop remains the last stronghold of the men. Don't let anyone send you inside, for it's male territory with no exceptions.

QUEEN FOR A DAY

Do you yearn for honors? They can be yours at the PanHel, Blue Key, Co-op, Harvest, Homecoming, J-Hop, and Coronation Dances, when a king and queen are elected from and by the student body. And don't forget that there's no night more exciting every year than your own class dance. Whether it's a short dress or formal affair, you'll enjoy whirling across the Auditorium floor at the J-Hop, Senior Prom, Frosh and Soph annual dances. Programs go on your pin-up board and memories into your heart.

Girls! Here's your chance to ask that Handsome Hank in your Effective Living class to a real dance without feeling embarrassed. A.W.S., Mortar Board, and Tower Guard sponsor the Spinster's Spin, a winter formal dance, with coeds popping the question, calling for their dates, providing an appropriate corsage, and all the rest that goes with an evening of hilarious entertainment. Believe me, he'll bask in the fun of having you help him on with his coat, and revel in the delight of spending one free evening out with you.

WHEN NIGHT BECOMES A SONG

Students dot the lawn, sitting on blankets and coats, the band shell lights up as twilight falls, and everyone listens . . . for good music can be expected at the Fraternity and Sorority Sing. The Sing Cup is the prize for the most effectively presented song, and the fraternity or sorority which places first for three successive years, owns a fine mantle ornament as a reward.

ON THE FIFTY YARD LINE

There you are all decked out in the colors for fall . . . green and white . . . in anticipation of a wonderful game. Your team sees you are there . . . let them hear you, too. Sing out good and loud at pep rallies and football games, and cheer with all your might. The Alma Mater (M.S.C. Shadows) and the Fight Song are State's own songs, so learn them quick like a bunny. Admitted we can't win every game, but Spartans always take the cake as good sports.

OF LANTERNS AND MAY MORNING SINGS

May first finds coeds early in the morning gathered in front of Beaumont Tower. May Morning Sing is the time for the tapping of new members for sophomore and senior women's honoraries. These honors are awarded on the basis of service, high marks, and extra-curricular activities, so a word to the wise, keep up and aim for those honors.

A spectacular sight can be seen during senior week when women from all classes gather at twilight, light their lanterns, and wind across campus to a meeting place where graduating senior women will be honored. Those who have given outstanding service to the college are recognized, and the new officers of A.W.S., Tower Guard, and Mortar Board are installed. To conclude the ceremonies, the seniors pass their lanterns to the juniors; the juniors to the sophomores; and they to the freshmen, thus signifying the passing on of class responsibilities.

A word to graduating seniors! Graduation means another dunking . . . so you'd best be prepared during Senior week for your friends' last tribute to you.

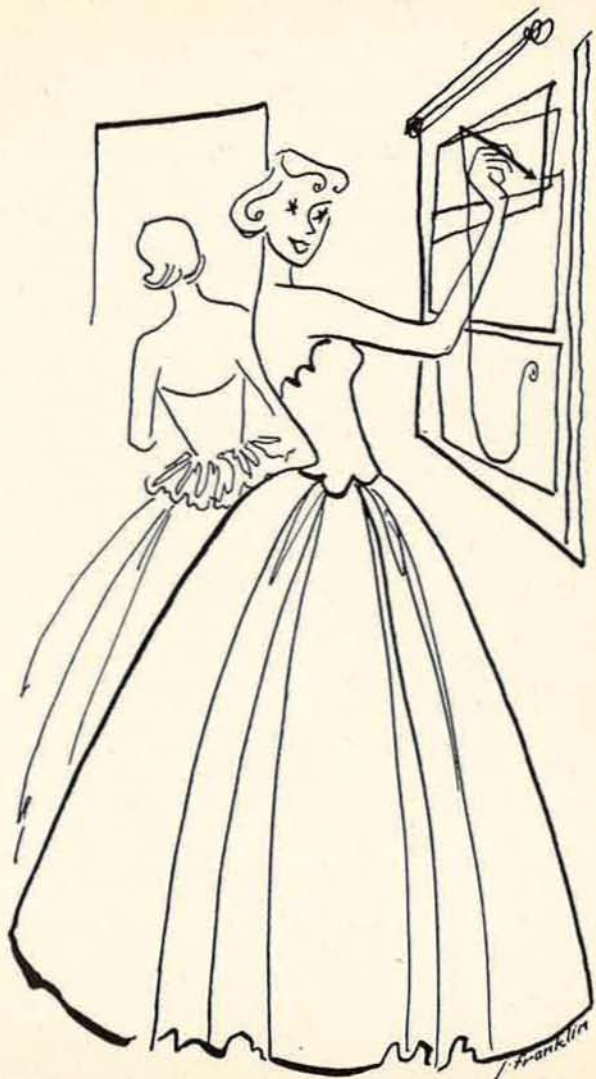

THE RED CEDAR, IN WAR AND PEACE

If you were good at Tug of War in your high school days, be on hand for the annual Freshman-Sophomore day when the two classes line up on opposite sides of the river in an effort to pull the other team in. An award is given to the winning class to retain until the following year's competition.

Rivalry takes the form of serene beauty when each housing unit prepares a float for the annual Water Carnival. Held in the evening along the Red Cedar, otherwise ordinary stage settings dabbed with tempera and held together with scotch tape take on a polished professional look when subjected to appropriate music and colorful spotlights.

AND THAT'S ABOUT ALL

We find traditions when we come,
We enjoy them while we're here.
For other's pleasure, let them live,
And increase from year to year.

quires that the girl be automatically campused for one week-end night, and is made up as follows:

- a. First 15 late minutes: 1 weekend night within the following 2 weekends.
- b. Second accumulation of 15 late minutes: 1 complete weekend (consecutive Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights) within the following 2 weekends.
- c. Third 15 late minutes: 2 full weeks, to begin immediately following accumulation.
- d. Repeated breaking of any residence rules will be dealt with by Judiciary-Legislative Board.

B. Campusing

1. When a girl is campused she must:
 - a. Remain in her room after 8:00 p.m. until the next morning at 5:30 a.m.
 - b. Notify the housemother's office in person at 8:00 p.m. or before of intention to take campusing.
 - c. May not make or receive phone calls during her period of campusing.
 - d. May not receive any callers in her room, nor may her roommates have any callers in the room.
 - e. She may have one fifteen minute recess, but she may not make or receive any phone calls during this time. She must notify her floor counselor at the beginning and end of this period.

2. In an emergency, campusing may be postponed or re-arranged by petitioning the Judiciary-Legislative Board. An additional penalty may be given in this case.
3. For sudden emergencies, postponement of campusing may be obtained by calling the

C. During exam week:

2. If a girl acquires any five late minutes during exam week, she must forfeit one week night. (campused)
3. If a girl is unable to complete her camping during exam week because of early departure, the camping will be carried over until the next term.
4. If a girl has time to complete her camping and does not do so, her penalty will be doubled and carried over to the following term.

2. Wire if you cannot possibly call as to time of expected arrival.
3. Call College 8-1511 and ask for your Housemother on her private line if your residence switchboard is closed.

B. Penalty.

1. A girl will receive 10 late minutes if she fails to notify her Housemother of expected delay, plus the penalty decided by A.W.S. for being late.

VI. PERMISSIONS

A. Late Permissions:

1. Definition: A late permission is a 1½ hour extension of time beyond the regular closing hour.
2. Each student will be granted a maximum of six late permissions a term. A student should consider late permissions a privilege. This privilege may be restricted or withdrawn by A.W.S. or the college if the necessity arises. Use of late permissions in excess of allotment will be severely dealt with by the Judiciary-Legislative Council. Students are therefore urged to keep track of their permissions and to check with the Housemother in advance if in doubt as to the number already used.
3. Arrangements for using a late permission must be made with the Housemother before closing hours by signing directly with the Housemother on a special sheet as well as noting "late permission" on the regular signout sheet. The student must personally telephone her Housemother directly, before her expected time of return to request use of a late permission and confirm its use on the special sheet when she returns.
4. The penalty for incorrect signing in or out for a late permission will be three late minutes.

5. Conditions governing use of late permissions:
- a. They may be used at the discretion of the student, but only Sunday through Thursday nights.
 - b. Only one may be used in any one night.
 - c. A girl using a late permission may return before 11:30 p.m. but may not leave her college residence after the regular closing hour, nor may a girl come in and then go out during the time of her special permission.
 - d. Late permission during the week up until 12:00 midnight may be arranged in advance with the Housemother by forfeiting one weekend night (not Sunday) within the coming two weekends for the extra half hour past time allowed with the permission.
 - e. All college functions covered by the student activity book may be attended without using a late permission.
 - f. All college functions not included under "5" will require the use of a late permission. The Judiciary-Legislative Board will publish a list of functions which do not require late permissions each week.
 - g. Permission for plays, concerts, and lectures held in Lansing covers the duration of the program plus direct return to the residence. One late permission covers each such approved program. The Housemother must be notified in advance and the ticket stub must be presented to her upon return.
6. Cancellation: If a student does not use her late permission after requesting it, she must so report to the Housemother directly upon her return to her residence in order to save this permission for another time.

7. Use of late permission Sunday night: A late permission Sunday night allows a girl to remain out until 12:00. When women are returning from out-of-town, they should plan to be in East Lansing by 10:30 and use their permission only in case of emergency.

B. Overnight permissions:

1. Permission to be absent from a college residence to stay overnight or longer must be sent directly by the parents to the Housemother before the student may be permitted to leave her college residence. This may be covered by the A.W.S. "yellow slip" sent by parents to the Housemother.
2. Permission to stay in an out-of-town hotel must be sent directly from parent to the Housemother each individual time a girl wishes to stay overnight in a hotel. The Michigan League in Ann Arbor is considered a hotel.
3. A student is permitted to remain overnight in a Lansing hotel ONLY with her parents, and then only if her parents talk to the Housemother directly.
4. Each student may have one overnight permission in EITHER Lansing OR East Lansing (within city limits) each term which can be taken at any time providing she has permission as stated in Part 1 or 6 of this section. This means one night, not a complete weekend.
5. Each student is granted two overnight permissions in another college residence a term which can be taken at any time that guests are allowed. A college residence is a residence where hours are kept, i.e., dormitory, cooperative house, approved off-campus house, or sorority house.

6. A girl may take no overnights after a dance without specific written permission from home in advance of each occasion unless she is to stay in another college residence.

- a. The student may request that the house-mother call the parents collect and receive the permission.

C. Senior Permissions for Spring Term:

1. Senior closing hours will be 11:00 p.m. Sunday through Thursday.
2. 12:00 midnight permission is granted if attending Wednesday night senior parties when they are scheduled.

At Your Service

Students, here's your chance to buy your textbooks cut-rate!

A.W.S. is offering a big service to all students. STUN, Student Texts, Used and New, has been set up to enable you to buy books at a fair rate.

WANT TO SELL A BOOK?

Come to the A.W.S. office and purchase a card for a nickel. List your book in the STUN files and a buyer will be calling you.

WANT TO BUY A BOOK?

Come to the A.W.S. office and ask STUN for the book you want. You pay a nickel for the card, see the owner, and the book is yours for the price asked on the card.

If the book you desire is not listed, fill out a request card and your troubles are over.

STUN will operate from the beginning of each term to the end. The first three days of classes you can find STUN in the concourse of the Union. After that it will be located in the A.W.S. office, third floor of the Union.

You can find not only books but also equipment needed for drawing courses in STUN files.

STUN is inexpensive, easy, fast, and no red tape attached!

WANT TO BE OF SERVICE?

Then watch that point average. Every Spring, Tower Guard, the Sophomore women's honorary, and Mortar Board, the Senior women's honorary, look for the gals with the high scholastic averages who have demonstrated their characteristics of high character, leadership, and service.

Tower Guard is our local service honorary, a group already famous for helping poor lost souls at registration, reading to blind students, and working on numerous other jobs with other organizations.

Mortar Board is a national service honorary, very well known and very highly regarded. Is there anything with which your organization would like some help? Call on Mortar Board. Its program is filled with many tasks, but it can always squeeze in one more!

Who the new members of these groups will be is a big secret not to be divulged until the lovely tapping ceremonies at the May Morning Sing. But if you'd like a hint as to who the new members are to be, keep a sharp ear open the night before, 'cause both groups will be serenading at the places where their members-to-be live. It might be YOU!

Merit System

Are you taking part in any extracurricular activities? Then give a look to our Merit System. The A.W.S. Activities Board has set up this system this year as an experiment. Previously it has been a Merit and Limitation System to foster interest and participation in activities, and, at the same time, to limit an individual's participation. This year we are trying to inaugurate the Merit System. We feel that the Spartan Coed will limit herself to the activities that she is sincerely interested in and that she can handle without damaging her scholastic average.

The Activities Board is counting on you to make this program a success. It also asks that, if you have any recommendations concerning the system, you come to its meetings or tell your Activities Board representative about them. Your comments will help us in formulating a proposed amendment to the A.W.S. Constitution concerning the Merit and/or Limitation System.

Membership and individual offices held in the various organizations are awarded set points correlated with the time, energy, and service devoted to the group and to the college.

Your Activities Board representative will be asking you each term to bring your activities up to date on a Merit Card that she keeps on file with the cards of your housemates. Be sure to list all your activities, because they will serve you well. While you're in school they serve as references for organizations, such as Tower Guard, Mortar Board, sororities, and others, when they are seeking women eligible for membership. After you graduate, this information is kept on file in the Counselor for Women's Office among permanent college records. They're very good reference material for future employers, too.

Listed below are the points allotted for all activities. "Co-op" is used to include off-campus housing.
