NOTICES.

Meeting of all RECORD editors Monday evening 6:30 College Hall.

LOST—An Alph. Omega fraternity pin. Finder please leave at the bacteriological laboratory.

The Horticultural Club meets tomorrow (Wednesday) evening at 6:30. Miss Ross, Miss Waterman, Mr. Philips, and Mr. Wermuth will talk.

Horticultural Club meets at 6:30 Wednesday evening. Talks will be given by Misses Waterman and Van Loo and Messrs. Wermuth and V. G. Phillips.

The question before the Debating Club on May 15 is, Resolved: that co-education is not a successful system of education. The affirmative will be upheld by A. B. Rogers and Miss Buskirk, the negative by Prof. W. O. Hedrick and J. Fred Baker. An interesting evening is promised to all who attend.

The annual local tennis tournament will be played off this Friday (May 16th) and Saturday. Entries must be handed to M. H. Willett, room 131 Abbot, before noon Thursday May 15th. Only members of the Athletic Association eligible for field day may enter.

The last military of the year will be given Friday evening of this week. Tickets must be purchased before that evening and are on sale at Rooms 43, 76, and 152 at $1.00 and $1.50. Dancing will begin promptly at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30. Only the full gray uniform with gloves, or civilian's clothes, will be allowed.

The elaborate and expensive preparations, and the Boos orchestra, together, promise the most delightful party of the season.

BICYCLE REGULATIONS.

1. The walks are for pedestrians and while bicycles are permitted to use them, it must always be understood that the right of way belongs to those on foot.

2. Wheels should pass around at a safe distance—they are not entitled to half the walk. It is not necessary to use a bell. Those on foot must keep the walk and not step off.

3. No one is permitted to ride a wheel on the walk in front of faculty row nor across the bridge in front of Abbot Hall.

NEW HOUSES AT M. A. C.

A large amount of building is being done this summer in the immediate vicinity of the College and for the information of RECORD readers an estimate in some detail is given below.

In the Brook's addition to the College Delta, Mr. Parnel Baker is erecting a house on the lot immediately north of Mr. Champe's. Mr. E. R. Blair, foreman of the College farm, has just completed a house in Dr. Beal's addition and Mr. R. Guernsey is erecting one. Instructor Humphrey and Mr. Andrew Krentel, College carpenter, are both building houses on the delta. Across the road and opposite a residence is being constructed for Mr. S. A. Robinson. Secretary Bird's and Professor Holdsworth's new residences have been mentioned in previous issues. Besides these additions to Oakwood, Mr. C. Schaffer, contractor for the bacteriological laboratory, will erect this summer a house and barn. Passing east along the North Lansing road, the farm house of Mr. C. M. Chittenden is undergoing extensive repairs. East of the College orchard Mr. Hedrick is to build a house for his own permanent home. The residences of Mr. H. B. Angel on the property east of the Women's Building and Howard Terrace had a brief mention in THE RECORD at the time their erection was commenced.

It will be seen that a total of ten houses (excluding the three already built) are, or soon will be, in process of construction, all taken together forming a semicircle about the College campus on the west, north, and east. The value of these new residences, in round numbers will be over $30,000 which fact ought to prove to some extent the desirability and demand for property near the College grounds. Besides the new residences mentioned others are to be built this summer.

COLLECTORS' FIELD MAP.

With the inauguration of the experiment work in the destruction of mosquitoes, a hasty topographical map was made showing the location of pools, ditches, woods, etc., the whole including an area having a radius of about one mile with the College as the center.

Since the first work was begun, it has been thought advisable to make the map large enough for general use in collecting, consequently as now laid out the map represents an area extending five miles east and west and three miles north and south, the College campus as before being in the center. As now planned it is the aim to show the general features of the country, location of certain species of plant life, the haunts of small animals as the mole, field mouse, etc., insects, and, in short, everything that will prove of value and be a labor saver for the collector of specimens in botany, forestry, entomology, biology, geology, and any other sciences with which the courses of the College have to do.

The details of country immediately about the campus are fairly well indicated at the present time, but in order to make the map of greatest value, details of outlying districts should be added. In order that this may be done, it is imperative that each one having knowledge of details of region contribute his part toward the filling out of the map, no matter how slight such knowledge may be. At the present time Prof. Pettit has been most active and enthusiastic in the gathering of data and, until further notice, material may be given to him.

When the map reaches a fair degree of completion and accuracy, it will be reduced, printed, and published. It will then be given to all who desire it and can put it to practical use.

BOTANY CLUB.

The Botanical Club had an unusually interesting meeting last Tuesday evening. Mr. M. Craig gave a short talk on the advantages of a map of the surrounding country, upon which might be checked off the localities in which the different plants might be found. Dr. Beal then gave a talk on "How can we save our forests?" His remarks were illustrated by views. The doctor was asked several questions from a discussion of which those present gathered a number of very good points. More than the usual number of interesting observations were reported. An interesting program has been prepared for next Tuesday night, and you are urged to be present.

THE PROHIBITION ORATORICAL CONTEST.

The Michigan Intercollegiate Prohibition Oratorical Association held its annual oratorical contest in the College Chapel at Hillsdale, Friday evening, May 9. Those taking part were: A. W. Brown, representing Kalamazoo. His subject was "The Apostle of Temperance Reform"; C. P. Salmon of Adrian on "A Menace to the American Home"; E. M. Moore of Ann Arbor on "The Ethical Saloon"; B. E. Rifenbergh of Hillsdale on "A Plea for Better Citizenship," and Miss Maud Squires of Albion whose subject was "Wrecks."

Mr. E. M. Moore representing the U. of M. won the first prize of fifteen dollars and will represent Michigan at the interstate contest at Lincoln, Neb., in June. Mr. A. W. Brown of Kalamazoo College won the second prize, a ten dollar gold medal, and third honors went to Miss Maud Squires of Albion College.

The judges were: On composition, Harry S. Warner of Chicago, H. A. Bacon of Pontiac and Chas. Russell of Detroit; on delivery, Rev. Ira D. Hall of Coldwater, Rev. Archibald Wheaton of Jackson, and Rev. N. L. Bray of Jackson.

Immediately after the contest the State convention was held at which the officers of the association for the coming year were elected. They are: President, G. H. Hobart of Hillsdale College; vice president, E. S. Hawkins of Adrian College; secretary, M. S. Sanburn of Kalamazoo College; treasurer, Fred Geib of the University of Michigan.

The entire contest was a success, each contestant doing credit to himself and his college. The only thing we have to regret is that M. A. C. had no contestant and it is hoped that we will have a representative in the contest next year which will probably take place at Adrian College.

TUESDAY, MAY 13, 1902.

THE home field meet to be held Saturday should be well attended. The track team has been doing hard, consistent work and deserves the support of every student and member of the faculty. Little has been said about the track team this spring and as a consequence very few know just what our prospects are at the M. I. A. A. meet. On Saturday, a good opportunity will be afforded to see the try-out of the team and to show loyalty to M. A. C.

FOR several issues, there has been printed on the first page of this paper a column devoted exclusively each week to alumni news. It will be the aim of the editors to continue this feature in future numbers of the paper. That this may be done, it is absolutely necessary that M. A. C. alumni, themselves, put aside any false modesty and send in for publication alumni items similar in character to those that have appeared in the RECORD for the past month. Several M. A. C. alumni have already sent us interesting alumni notes. To those alumni we owe thanks. But the alumni interest should not be confined to a few. All the alumni should co-operate in this matter. Every word of this article should be an individual appeal to each M. A. C. alumnus.

H. RAY KINGSLEY, Manager.

Y. M. C. A.

The Thursday evening prayer meeting was led by Mr. A. A. Fisk. Theme: What does it cost to be a strong Christian? To be a strong Christian means that we must have our lives hid with Christ in God.

All we have to offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul and spirit,
All we yield to Thee

—Thwing.

Chapel services, Sunday morning, were conducted by Rev. W. H. Pound of the Plymouth Congregational church, Lansing. Text: Luke, 6:46, "And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" How many are there who, in the last day, will hear Jesus say: "Depart from me for I never knew you?" My dear friend will you be one of that number?

If we truly love our dear Master as every true Christian does, we will unconsciously do those things he desires us to do. Jesus says, "If a man love me he will keep my commandments."

The union meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A., Sunday evening, was led by Mr. J. J. Myers. Theme: "Our Responsibilities." Mr. Myers showed that we are each responsible to ourselves, to those around us, and to our God. It is a very easy thing for us to shift our responsibilities to some one else, but we cannot shift the penalty which is attached to the neglect of Christian duty.

Every man must give an account of himself unto God.

Let us, therefore, meet our responsibilities like brave men and women, seeking, first of all, to please God and then those with whom we come in contact as far as possible.

DEBATING CLUB.

The question debated May 8th was, resolved: that capital punishment should be established in Michigan. The affirmative side was argued by W. K. Wonders and E. O. Elmer; the negative by N. D. Rudolph and J. H. Taylor.

The affirmative made their strongest arguments upon the fact that a man need not fear further punishment when he is receiving the full penalty for a crime already committed and so would not hesitate to commit a second crime. Under capital punishment this would be impossible.

The negative side argued on the impossibility of rectifying a mistake if the jury should happen to make one, and upon the injustice of killing a man who has committed murder in a sudden frenzied moment. The decision of the judges was two in favor of the negative and one in favor of the affirmative.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS.

Prof. U. P. Hedrick's little girl was very ill last week. For several hours her life was despaired of.

Messrs. E. I. Dail, W. J. Geib, and A. G. Craig have recently passed civil service examinations for managers of experiment stations in the Philippine Islands.

The steers which have been fed on silage and beet pulp were shipped last Saturday to Buffalo by Dennis Bros. of Williamston, who purchased them.

In the paper read before the Michigan Superintendents' Convention, Lansing, Mich., May 9, 1902, Prof. George S. Waite, superintendent of manual training work, Grand Rapids, made the following statement: "At present the Agricultural College is graduating each year a few women thoroughly prepared to teach domestic science work. If the young ladies sent to Battle Creek and Grand Rapids are specimens, we would advise those wishing domestic science instructors to talk with Dr. Snyder."

Three years ago a young woman in attendance at this institution left to finish her course at the University. She graduated and is now endeavoring to secure a position in Washington. She has been informed that if she were a graduate of the Agricultural College she could receive the appointment at once but as her diploma is not from this institution, she will be required to pass the civil service examination. It might be well for the patrons of this institution to know that there are positions open for its graduates which are not open even to University graduates.

The Phi Delta Society entertained Friday evening of last week. The rooms were tastily decorated with the society colors, white and blue. Mr. McClure furnished the music for dancing, which was enjoyed by all. Several of the old members were present, and lent their aid in making the party a thorough success.

W. E. Russell, ex-OI, who is now in Purdue made some good records at the Purdue home field meet recently. In the broad jump he broke both the Purdue and State records, jumping 22 ft. 5 in. Besides this he won first in the 120-yd. hurdles, tied for first in the 100-yd. dash—time 10:1-5, won first in 220-yd. hurdle, and second in the half-mile run.

During the past week the Freshmen Classes in Cookery have been listening to Demonstration lessons conducted by Miss Lyford. In the first of the lessons the subject of Salads was discussed, French Dressing, Mayonnaise and Mack Mayonnaise Dressings prepared Chicken Salad, French Fruit and vegetable Salads were made and were served with Harlequin Sandwiches. In the second lesson the subject of the use of Cheese in Cookery was discussed, and the use of the Chafing dish explained. The receipts prepared were Cheese Fondue, Welsh Rarebit, Lobster a la Newburg, and Puff Pudding with Strawberry Sauce. During each demonstration Miss Lyford was gracefully assisted by three members of the class.

The agricultural year book put out by the University of Tennessee has an extremely neat cover design.

LECTURE COURSE.

The M. A. C. Entertainment Club Committee met, in the president's office, Saturday. Representatives from the Central Lyceum and Slayton Lyceum Bureaus to make arrangements as far as possible for the coming season's course of entertainments. Nothing definite was done, but the following lecturers and entertainers were considered with a strong sentiment in favor of the first six named:—

Hon. J. P. Dolliver, Geo. R. Wendling, each distinguished orators; Miss Ida Benfey, an able reader; the Wesleyan Male Quartet and Houston; the Bostelmann string quartet, assisted by Carl Grange; Durno-Emmett Co., famous magicians and trick musicians; DeWitt Miller, a reader; John Temple Graves; Roney's Boys Concert Co.

In making these selections the committee aims to have as wide a range of entertainments as possible, comprising some of the best speakers, readers, musicians and magicians, thereby ensuring the interest of the whole College community from the highest minded professor to the most enlivened student.

The course of entertainments will probably be definitely decided upon during this week.
