DEBATING CLUB.

Those present at the meeting of the debating club last Thursday evening were especially well pleased with the debate rendered by Mr. Gunson on the affirmative and Mr. Rosen on the negative of the question, Resolved, that the Russian people are not fit for a constitutional government. One old member said it was the equal of any debate given in the club since he has been in college. Some of the points presented by the affirmative were: That the common people of Russia are grossly illiterate, even their representatives in the first douma not knowing the commonest parliamentary forms; that there are too many different people under the Russian rule to maintain a harmonious representative government; that the people have not as yet that spirit of liberty manifested, for instance, by our revolutionary forefathers; and that the people, as evidenced by their representatives in the doumas, are not deliberate enough, not diplomatic enough in their demands.

The negative took the stand, that, although a majority of the common people were unable to read and write, they are, nevertheless, a civilized people and are better acquainted with and more interested in the ideas of their great men than are Americans with American authors, that they elect representatives who truly represent them while the Americans do not; that they have been sufficiently cognizant of liberty to carry on a struggle for it for a century.

The program committee has so arranged the work as to be able to offer an opportunity at the conclusion of each debate for a general discussion, in which each and every one present is invited to participate. A cordial invitation to join the club is extended to all and especially to the new students. At any rate, don't fail to hear some of these debates and to join in the discussion afterward. No collections, no fees. The subject for next Thursday is, Resolved, that the work for the freshman and sophomore years should be elective. This debate will be given by Messrs. DeCamp and Graybill.—E. MARTIN.

FARMERS' CLUB.

The attendance at the Farmers' club last Tuesday night was an unusually large one, much to the satisfaction of the officers. Prof. C. D. Smith treated his subject in a very unique and interesting way. In developing his subject, "Humus, Humor, and Humanity," he pointed out very clearly the close relation existing between the three words. This done, he confined the rest of his talk to the subject of humus.

Next week Tuesday night Prof. Thomas Gunson will speak on the subject of "Development of Canadian Agriculture," and all are cordially invited to come out and hear him. Remember the date, next Tuesday night, Oct. 15, at 6:30 p. m. J. S. WELLES.

MICHIGAN 46—M. A. C. 0.

Defeated but by no means disgraced were the wearers of the olive green when they stacked up against "Hurry Up" Yost's formidable machine on Ferry Field last Saturday afternoon. The score was 46 to 0, but taking all into consideration, the team made an excellent showing and should not be found fault with. Coach Brewer expressed himself as well satisfied with the work of the team.

Capt. Small and his men were given a rousing send off Saturday morning when they left for Ann Arbor and every man went away knowing the students were behind them and they fought to the last ditch.

Of course, the university men greatly outweighed us and this combined with good football was the team's defeat.

Michigan scored five touchdowns and three goals in the first half, but in the second half M. A. C. took a brace and all Michigan could do was to cross our goal line three times. During this half McKenna once secured the ball on a fumble on the Michigan 25-yard line and by good straight football, our backs and ends carried the ball to the 8-yard line, where McKenna dropped back for a trial at the goal, which he just missed by a few inches. Both sides punted quite frequently and in this line, Ernie Vaughn had it all over Harry Hammond, of Michigan. He got his punts off well and always sent the pigskin 40 to 50 yards. Magoffin and Loell did all the scoring for the yellow and blue. The left side of our line, was hammered almost continually, several of Michigan's best gains being made through that side. Every one of the players came through the game in fairly good shape with the exception of a few minor bruises. A small band of rooters accompanied the team and they cheered the team to the last.

The teams lined up as follows:

MICHIGAN	M. A. C.
Miller, Whitmore.....	L. E. Shedd, Allen
Casey.....	R. E. Moore, Shedd
Emes.....	L. G. Campbell
Schultz.....	C. { McWilliams, Moore, Parker,
Graham.....	R. G. Parker, Lemmon
Rheinchild, }.....	{ Wheeler, Exelby,
Crumpacker }.....	{ R. T.
Hammond.....	R. E. Frazer
Wasmund, }.....	{ G.
Sullivan }.....	{ Small
Magoffin, Miller.....	L. H. Vaughn
Alledice, }.....	{ R. H. McKenna
Rumney }.....	{ F. B. Cortright
Loell, Rheinchild.....	F. B. Cortright

Touchdowns—Rheinchild 2, Magoffin 5, Loell 1.
Goals from touchdowns—Graham 6.
Referee.—Eldridge, Michigan. Umpire.—Giddings, Michigan. Head linesman, Lenderink, Michigan. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

Coach Brewer put the team through the stiffest kind of practice the past week, Scrimmage being in order every night. No shifts were made, but every man was given individual coaching and more snap and ginger was displayed by the team than any other time this season. Mr. Halligan was on the field every night and assisted Coach Brewer in drilling the line men. The left side of the line still seems to be a little weak, most of Michigan's gains going through that side. It is hoped this weakness will be remedied before the Wabash game.

McKenna has shown up well the past week as a drop kicker and with more practice, promises to become a star at that branch of the game. Vaughn still continues to boot the ball well and is doing some star work at half. He and McKenna are showing great form in the use of the forward pass.

Courtright is doing good work at fullback. Shedd has been playing left end in his old time form, while Frazer has been holding down right end. Wheeler seems to have first choice for right tackle, while Tiny Parker is in his old place at right guard. McWilliams, Campbell, Octy Moore, Allen, Dunlap, Lemmon, McGraw and Anderson are all playing good ball.

Capt. Small, the old reliable, is still shouting signals, but a successor will soon have to be found to fill his place as it is doubtful whether he can play in any of the championship games. McGraw and Courtright are the most likely candidates.

The game with Notre Dame which was to be played next Saturday has been cancelled, as the Wabash game is to follow a week later, and as this will be the biggest game ever played at M. A. C., the management deemed it unwise to play three big games in three weeks. Instead of playing the Hoosiers, a regular game will be played between the varsity and the reserves. This ought to prove a more interesting game than if some weak team were played.

M. A. C. SECOND TEAM VS. OLIVET RESERVES.

While the Varsity was batting at Ann Arbor, the second team remained at home and fought it out with the Olivet reserves. It was a hard fought game, the two sides being almost evenly matched. M. A. C., however, had a slight advantage and in the first half scored a touchdown and a safety. In the second half Olivet secured a touchdown on a fluke and kicked a goal, making the score 7 to 6. The half ended with the ball in Olivet's territory, no more scores being made. The second team lacked team work, but almost every one played a good individual game. The team has had but little chance thus far to practice together, but before the end of the season they will hold their own with any of them.

TUESDAY, OCT. 15, 1907.

TO be a good student does not necessarily mean that one must shut himself out from all the joys of human life. In this busy, industrial world it is not the book-worm but the man of affairs which achieves success. The training which comes from hard study coupled with the experience which comes from mixing with our fellow men makes the well rounded character, but strenuous devotion to either alone is very apt to result in a warped and narrow view of life. Athletics, social functions, the training that comes through the various specialized clubs, the chorus class and by no means least the Christian organizations serve to add to the dull routine of class work that spice of variety which develops the student into a well formed link in the chain of human progress.

FERONIAN PARTY.

The social season of the Feronian Literary society, was formally opened last Saturday when the annual luncheon was given in Hotel Downey, for the new women at the college. The young women assembled for an informal reception at 12:30 o'clock and at 1 o'clock a four-course luncheon was served in the dining room, covers being laid for 70. Following the luncheon the guests were entertained at dancing in the college armory. The presence of a number of the alumni added to the pleasure of the occasion. Mesdames Brewer, Vedder, Landon and Dean Gilchrist were the chaperones.

UNION LITERARY ELEVEN O'CLOCK.

The first eleven o'clock party of the Union Literary Society was given in their society house last Friday evening. About seventy-five people enjoyed a very delightful evening. Good music, tasteful decorations of autumn leaves and pennants, and a pleasant lack of formality were the chief factors in the success of the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Halligan added to the pleasure of the evening by chaperoning the party.

John Corcoran, an employe of the farm department, dropped a purse in the yard the other day containing some $30 in greenbacks and $1.50 in silver. When he discovered his loss and went in search of it he found a Jersey cow calmly chewing the purse from which she had extracted the greenbacks. The silver, however, proved too much for her and was recovered.

Many complaints are heard from students and others on account of the lack of accommodations on the morning cars. Those who live in the city and have to be at college for eight o'clock classes complain that the cars are so crowded that many have to hang on at the steps of the car. An extra car in the morning would be a great accommodation and might also be the means of preventing some serious accident.

We were very glad to have with us this week, Mrs. Young from Lansing, who has spent some time traveling in China. She appeared in Chinese costume and had with her an idol that had been worshiped by the Chinese. Also some pictures and tiny shoes, that they wear on their bound feet, which seemed too small to even put a very small banana in. Her talk was very interesting and I am sure all enjoyed it very much. We learned so many things about China and its people that we never knew before. We hope to have her again sometime to tell us more about China. SEC.

UNION MEETING.

Next Sunday evening, Oct. 20, the union meeting will be addressed by Judge C. B. Grant, under the auspices of the Prohibition League. Mr. Grant has been a judge of the supreme court for a number of years, and is well known for the stands he has taken on the important problems of the state. The many addresses he has delivered throughout the state have been favorably received, and we are very fortunate in getting him to speak to us. We should show our appreciation of his good work by greeting him with a large attendance.

COLUMBIAN ELEVEN O'CLOCK.

The Columbian Literary Society gave their fall term eleven o'clock party in their rooms in Williams hall last Friday evening. The beauty of the decorations have seldom been surpassed. They consisted chiefly of autumn foliage and harvest time suggestions. A very pretty old English inn was represented in one of the rooms, which was both original and attractive. Parker's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. Dean and Mrs. Sawyer and Prof. and Mrs. Ryder acted as chaperons.

AVERAGE men are as colorless as average clothes. College men are outside the average—their togs have to be—College Brand Clothes are. Just a bit more dash to 'em, a great sight more style—and the precisely right amount of fit. Though exclusive their price isn't enough to exclude you from wearing 'em. For the young man and the "like-to-be-young."
