CHURCH ORGANIZATION LAUNCHED.

Name Not Yet Decided Upon.

A meeting of about 50 interested persons was held in the East Lansing school house Sunday afternoon and steps taken whereby a church organization is virtually assured. Articles of faith and tests of membership were adopted after some discussion and action was taken upon some of the rules of regulation. A name however could not be decided upon and was left over until a future meeting. Twenty-two of those present signified their desire to join the church and several others, including many not present, have since declared their intention. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions which are being liberally pledged. The next meeting will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Blaisdell Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. The organization will be Congregational in character.

CAN WE MAKE IT GO?

We believe we can if the men of the college will co-operate. An endeavor will be made to have something doing in the armory every Tuesday evening at 6:30 and every Saturday evening at 6:45. Saturday evenings we will endeavor to make especially interesting. It won't be work, fellows, but sport, come over and have a good time. A series of league basket ball games will be worked up, some wrestling, horse and parallel-bar and also some water-polo.

There will be no extra expense connected with this, so everyone can come and take advantage of it. come over and get into it and help push it along, if this goes there is something else in store, so let us push it hard. Any man is welcome either on Tuesday or Saturday evening or both.

M. I. A. A. MEETING.

At a meeting of the Board of Control of the M. I. A. A. at Albion, last Friday night, there was adopted an eligibility rule permitting minus-freshmen, or students who are taking some sub-freshmen studies, to participate in athletics.

By a resolution adopted all colleges must submit to the other Michigan colleges before next Saturday a list of eligible football men and only those athletes will be allowed to play in M. I. A. A. games.

The following officers were elected: President, R. L. Coldron, Hillsdale; vice president, R. W. Thatcher, Olivet; second vice president, Prof. Green, Albion; secretary, H. W. Helmer, Alma; treasurer, Prof. Vedder, M. A. C.

F. T. Champion of the above class is now pastor of the M. E. church at Deshler, Ohio.

THE PUBLIC SPEAKING SOCIETY.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.—St. John, 1, 1.

Words are those invisible elfs that carry messages from one human soul to another. They are like living beings, they crawl into our minds and hearts, they pat and caress, they torture and burn, and inspire. He, who has mastered the Word, has acquired an endless source of pure and sacred joy for himself and a powerful means of influence upon his fellow men.

We, the students of M. A. C., are perhaps more deficient in this respect than in any other. How many are there among us who could get up even before a dozen or two of our own fellow students, not to speak of a more numerous and less familiar audience, and, without blushing and sweating, express their feelings, thoughts, or ardent soul's desires. Few, if any. And why? Just because we do not cultivate this ability, do not try to develop it. A few of us, belonging to the several existing literary societies, are perhaps a little better off in this respect, but by far the greater majority of our students remain, for various reasons, outside of these closed societies and their interests, with regard to the developing of the ability to speak in public have been, until lately, almost completely ignored.

The necessity of a loosely organized society accessible to each and every interested student, whose aim would be to cultivate among its members the art of mastering the Word has been felt by every conscious student. To meet this most urgent need a new society was organized last Saturday evening at the initiative of Dr. T. H. Blaisdell.

The formal christening of the society was postponed until the next regular meeting. Those present at the organization meeting eo ipsi became charter members. Any student, desiring now to become a member of the society, can do so by simply applying to any officer or present member.

The society will hold its regular meeting on Saturdays at 7 p. m. in room 11, College Hall. Extemporaneous speeches on assigned or chosen subjects, orations long and short, written or unwritten, will compose the program of the evenings. The society will take an active part in the preliminaries for the annual Intercollegiate Oratorical contest and stands an excellent chance of having its member elected to represent M. A. C.

At the first meeting the election of officers took place and several paragraphs of the constitution were discussed and accepted. Judged by the lively discussion that accompanied the acceptance of each point of this constitution the auspices of the new organization are very favorable indeed. Undoubtedly, many a Cicero in potentiam abides in our midst still unrecognized.

The officers elected are:

Pres., H. L. Kempster.

Vice pres., R. G. Voorhorst.

Sec. and Treas., J. L. Graybill.

RECORD Editor, J. A. Rosen.

Executive Committee, W. Postiff, G. S. Martin, H. D. Ingalls, R. G. Crane, H. M. Rouse.

Next meeting will be held Saturday, October 26th, at 7 p. m., room 11 College Hall. Come, bring your friends, and become a member.

Y. M. C. A.

Busy as the men are with football and college work they are still showing their enthusiasm and interest in association work. Every Thursday evening the meetings in the Association rooms are well attended and interest shown. Especially was this noticeable last Thursday evening at our first open meeting led by Mr. Oviatt. The subject, The Influence of the Bible on Man, was well introduced by the leader and well discussed by other men.

The importance of Bible study has been greatly emphasized this fall and as a result the prospects for Bible study classes looks good. Close on to 200 men have already signed up in one of the four courses offered. Men, we want the co-operation of more of you, we will endeavor not to make this work a burden to you, but rather a pleasure. We realize you are busy so will not make your end of the class heavy. All men who have already signed up and all who have not but want to are requested to meet in college chapel next Sunday morning between 8:30 and 9. Don't forget the time and place.

Our foodstuffs keep on getting dear, The pocketbook grows thinner. Thanksgiving day will soon be here—

But how about the dinner?—Ex.

ALUMNI.

'85-'87.

Irwin B. Winsor, special during the years '85-'87, called with his wife at College Monday. Mr. Winsor is with the Danville Coal Mining Co., at Seattle, Washington, and this is the first time he had been at M. A. C. since he left 20 years ago. Dr. Beal and Prof. F. S. Kedzie are the only members of the present faculty who were here at the time Mr. Winsor was a student.

'93.

A. C. Burnham with his wife and two daughters called on college friends last Thursday en route from Los Angeles to N. Y. City. Mr. Burnham is now advertising manager for the American School of Law. His address is 30 East 21st St., New York City, 8th floor.

'93-'95

Ben H. Halstead and Allyn B. Robertson, at college during the above years, called on old friends here last week. Mr. Halstead is a member of a law firm at Petoskey and Mr. Robertson is with the firm of Robertson & Son, druggists, North Lansing.

'95.

B. H. Halstead, '93-'95, called on college friends last week. Mr. Halstead is now a lawyer at Petoskey, Mich.

'04

A letter from A. R. Alger states that he and Mrs. Alger are nicely settled in their new home at Cleveland where Mr. Alger is instructor in Civil Engineering at the Case school of applied science. Their address is 10917 Fairchild Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

'05

Frank Kratz of the above class called on college friends last week. He is now drafting for the Oakland Auto. Co. at Pontiac.

'07.

Miss Calla Krentel is teaching at Chatham, Mich.

G. H. Ellis is now employed in the U. S. reclamation service at Williston, N. D. They are engaged in large irrigation project at present. "I am given a so-called horse and army saddle" he writes "with which to get about to inspect the work."

O. K. White is now a member of the firm, Gephart, White and Co., fruit growers, Hart, Mich.

T. H. McHatton, '07, attended summer school at Cornell and has received his Ph. D. degree from his Alma Mater in Georgia.

F. D. Linkletter writes for the RECORD from Seattle, Wash. His address is Box 73 University Station.

'08.

G. V. Copson with the above class, is engaged in green house vegetable growing at Grand Rapids.

TUESDAY, OCT. 22, 1907.

GOOD consistent rooting, so essential to the success of a team, has been conspicuously absent at the games so far this season accountable perhaps by the slowness of the games. Lets turn out Saturday and cheer the varsity on to victory. By-the-way a good rousing mass meeting will help some.

THE sentiment expressed at the meeting of the East Lansing church society last Sunday and the adjourning of the meeting to a weekday for the transaction of business deserves hearty commendation. The action of many churches in devising plots and schemes on the Sabbath and often at the very hour of service to separate the congregation from their surplus cash, sometimes used wholly for mercenary purposes, and at the same time heaping opprobrium upon the heads of the poor samaritans for acts of innocent pleasure or recreation falls little short of hollow mockery.

D. U. S. will go to M. A. C. Saturday and play the farmers. Any team that Michigan can beat 46 to 0 isn't so terrific as to throw consternation into the breast of Coach Knickerbocker, in spite of the fact that his boys are of the prep school age.—Detroit News.

We give the author of the above "jab" possible credit for not understanding that it was the Reserves which played the D. U. S. team Saturday. Judging from the exhibition game which the Varsity and second teams put up between halves we reflect with horror upon what might have happened to the "Prep. school" boys had they run up against Coach Brewer's regulars.

WHAT looks like a step in the right direction is the organization of a physical training club to meet at the Armory Tuesday and Saturday evenings. From the very nature of the present day system of college athletics the energies of the coach during the hours of the afternoon must be directed toward developing the team whose individual members are picked for the very reason of their perfect physical development. This leaves the weaklings unprovided for. In order to overcome this a number of students in conjunction with Secretary Moon of the Y. W. C. A., Coach Brewer and certain members of the faculty are backing up a system of entertainment for these evenings which will not only entertain but give the necessary exercise. Society men and others who feel the need of healthful exercise and a place to spend their Saturday evenings gladly welcome the movement.

DEBATING CLUB.

It is regrettable that not every freshman and sophomore was present at the Debating Club last Thursday to learn why he should be emancipated from the arbitrary dictation of the faculty as regards the choosing of the studies in his course and also to learn why he is not fit for such freedom of choice. Owing to the fact that convincing reasons were advanced for and against extending the elective system to the first two years, the decision of the house was close, being eleven for the extension and thirteen against it.

Both Mr. Graybill and Mr. De Camp, the principals, were clear, exact, and forceful. If we can secure for our team against Ypsi next spring such representatives as these men, Ypsi might as well "hang up their fiddle" right now.

The debate next Thursday will be by Mr. Crane and Mr. Bowerman on the question: Resolved, That College Hall should be replaced by a new structure. All come.

JOHN RUSKIN AND THE BIBLE.

As a lad John Ruskin read the Bible through, aloud, to his mother, time after time. Certain chapters, selected by her, he committed to memory. Late in life, referring to this fact, he wrote:

"I have just opened my oldest (in use) Bible; my mother's list of chapters with which, thus learned, she established my soul in life, has just fallen out of it. And truly * * * this material installation of my mind in that property of chapters I count very confidently the most precious and, on the whole, the one essential part of my education."

The list of chapters is as follows: Exodus 15 and 20; Second Samuel 1, from the 17th verse to the end; I Kings 8; Psalms 23, 32, 90, 81, 103, 112, 119, 139; Proverbs 2, 3, 8, 12; Isaiah 58; Matthew 5, 6, 7; Acts 26; I Corinthians 13, 15; James 4; Revelation 5, 6; 26 chapters in all.

It will be well for you to cut this out and paste it in your Bible. Do it now!

WORLD'S SHOT PUTTING RECORD AGAIN BROKEN.

The seventy-ninth annual games of the New York Athletic club were held at Travers Island Saturday afternoon, Sept. 14th. Ralph Rose broke the world's record for putting the eight-pound shot, held by Martin Sheridan. The put of Rose was six feet further than Sheridan's record, being sixty-seven feet seven inches.

BOTANY NOTES.

The leaves of White Pine die and drop off in autumn. Now is the time to see those of 1906, or 1907, leaving the tree.

Norway Spruce shed some leaves at this time of year, leaves that grew, not in any one season, but in several seasons. Some of them grew as far back as 1900.

Observe the Arbor vitae, also called White Cedar, now shedding its minute leaves, not separately but in clusters of from 50 to 200 or more still attached to the very slender, dead branches.

THE RULE OF CONTRARIES.

A man's life is full of crosses and temptations.

He comes into this world without his consent, and goes out against his will, and the trip between the two is exceedingly rocky. The rule of contraries is one of the important features of the trip.

When he is little the girls kiss him, but when he is grown the little girls kiss him.

If he is poor he is a bad manager; if he is rich he is dishonest.

If he needs credit he can't get it; if he is prosperous everyone wants to do him a favor.

If he's in politics it's for pie; if he's out of politics you can't place him, and he's no good for his country.

If he doesn't give to charity he is a stingy cuss; if he does it is for show.

If he is actively religious he is a hypocrite; if he takes no interest in religion he is a hardened sinner.

If he shows affection he is a soft specimen; if he seems to care for no one he is cold-blooded.

If he dies young there was a great future ahead of him; if he lives to an old age he has lived beyond his usefulness.

The Road is Rocky, but Man Loves to travel it.—Ex.

Is our secretary becoming facetious? Recently he sent me a typewritten note reading as follows: "In turning in your pay rolls on the 30th inst. it is especially requested that the names be legible and accurately written." This amused me exceedingly. Had such a note been sent Dr. Blai-dell or several others of the faculty it wouldn't be so strange. The secretary did not venture to expose himself by writing with his own hand.

In all seriousness, possibly after all there may be some foundation for the note referred to. During vacation I registered at a hotel in Ann Arbor. A friend expecting me there telephoned as to whether Dr. Beal was there. The clerk scanned carefully his register and replied in the negative. He read my name W. J. Bed. How could he have made such a mistake, for if there is any one thing that I pride myself in doing well, it is that I write my short, easy name of four letters so that anybody can read it.

Miss Mary Tingley, sp. '02-'03, is teaching at the State school at Coldwater.

Miss Ida Robinson, sp. '02-'03, is taking a course in domestic science at Drexel Institute, Phila.

The Botany department has a special class in botany from 7 to 8 a. m.

Irving D. Fowler entertained his mother, Mrs. C. A. Fowler, and Miss Ford, of Hanover, over Sunday.

Dr. E. W. Allen, asst. director of experiment stations at Washington, D. C., made the college a call last week.

Geo. Fryman, '07 and Miss Margaret Cristie, Sp. were married at Grand Rapids Tuesday, Oct. 15. The RECORD extends congratulations.

Mrs. C. C. Wood of Collegeville has recently received from her publishers the tenth volume in a series on Junior Christian Endeavor work. Besides other Endeavor helps Mrs. Wood has written "In the Toils of Freedom" in the interests of child labor which is about ready for the press and a cantata, The Vision of Hensel, which is in the hands of an eastern music house.

There is no more marked difference between the uneducated and the educated man than in the great superiority of the latter over the former in his capacity to accomplish intellectual labor. His mind is obedient to his will. He can at once concentrate his mind upon his task and hold it steadily to duty. When the hour for his self-imposed toil comes, he can banish thoughts of all things else from his mind and fix his attention upon the task until it is done. The ability to do this is one of the most distinguishing marks of the truly educated man.

Ohio, in 1893, passed a law against "what is commonly called hazing," with a penalty of from $10 to $100, or imprisonment from thirty days to a year. This law was not precise in its definition. It is now replaced by a new act covering educational institutions of all kinds and defining what is meant by hazing. It is described as "any act that injures, frightens, degrades, or disgraces, or tends to injure, frighten, degrade, or disgrace any fellow-student or person attending such institution." The maximum fine is increased to $200 and the maximum imprisonment is reduced to six months; but provision is made for the imprisonment of the offender until the payment of the fine.

Through the kindness of Dr. Beal we are able to give this week some statistics regarding the alumni at the different experiment stations in the U. S.

In the United States there are fifty-eight directors of experiment stations, of which ten, more than one sixth, are headed by M. A. C. men, viz.:

Alaska, C. C. Georgeson, '78.
Colorado, L. G. Carpenter, '79.
Connecticut, Storrs Station, L. A. Clinton, '89.
Idaho, H. T. French, '85.
Illinois, E. Davenport, '78.
Nebraska, E. A. Burnett, '87.
New Hampshire, E. D. Sander-son, '97.
New York, Cornell Station, L. H. Bailey, '81.
Ohio, C. E. Thorne, with '66.
Wyoming, J. D. Towar, '85.

These men are all graduates except Dr. C. E. Thorne, who was here for only one year, but attended no other agricultural college.

Prof. H. P. Baker will sever his connection with the College about the middle of the month and leave to take up his work as Chief of Forestry at the Pennsylvania State College. This news is heard very unwillingly by many faculty members and students who have learned to know and appreciate Prof. Baker during the three years he has been at the College. But Mr. Baker goes there at a salary of $2500 per year, a very liberal raise over his present salary. Moreover, the state, with her numerous, large, and valuable forest reserves has certainly paid Prof. Baker a compliment in asking him to become her chief forester.—J. S. C. Student.

Prof. Baker is a brother of our Professor J. F. Baker and was graduated from M. A. C. in 1901.

ATHLETICS.

In their second game of the season our second team was defeated last Saturday by Detroit University School in a very well played game by the score of 11-0.

The game was a fine one from the spectator's point of view, as there were many sensational plays made. The reserves were outclassed in team work by the Detroit boys who ran their plays off with precision and speed. The two teams were evenly matched for weight, but the team work decided the score. The reserves played a good defensive game with the exception of breaking up forward passes which were used frequently with great success by D. U. S. Our boys had several chances to score, but each time lost the ball by a fumble or were held for downs.

The first touchdown was made after 10 minutes of play by D. U. S. getting off a fine forward pass, which was caught by one of their men who had good interference and a clear field for a touchdown. The first half closed with the ball in Detroit territory. Shuttleworth, who played quarter in the first half, was replaced by McGraw in the second half, both men playing a good game. The reserves seemed to have more ginger in the second half, but the prospects of D. U. S. for victory made them fight harder, and the ball was in M. A. C.'s territory most of the time. Malisky outpunted the D. U. S. kicker, and his good bootwork with Exelby's defensive playing and the work of the D. U. S. ends were easily the features of the game. Lysle and Bignell also played good football at ends.

Near the end of the game the reserves got the ball on D. U. S. five yard line but could not carry it over owing to good defensive work on the part of the Detroit boys and fumbles and bad passes on the part of M. A. C. With the ball on the reserves twenty yard line D. U. S. tried a place kick the ball struck the cross bar of the goal bounded back and was picked up by a D. U. S. man and carried over for a touchdown.

Between halves of the game the varsity lined up for 15 minutes against the third team and tore up the scrubs for several touchdowns. This work out was hard and fast and several exciting plays brought the crowd to their feet. Several of the first squad men were out of the game on account of injuries, Moore is still bothered by his knee, Court-right's arm is still stiff and sore. Wheeler was in the scrimmage for a few minutes, for the first time since the Mich. game.

It is earnestly hoped that every man will be in the best possible shape for Wabash next Saturday, for according to dope the Hoosiers are stronger than M. A. C. From a spectators point of view the M. A. C. line does not seem to hold the way it should as the scrubs repeatedly got through tackle and guard in Saturday's game and spoiled the plays. This week will be one in which every loyal student should proclaim himself and support the team as it has never been backed up before. There will be two mass meetings in which everyone will have a chance to show his or her enthusiasm by attending, and learning the college songs and yells. Friday night the band will head a students' parade about the campus and around the field to show the team that we are with them every minute win or lose and when they line-up against Wabash they will have behind them the splendid spirit of M. A. C. and the best wishes of their Alma Mater.

THE WABASH GAME.

For the first time in the history of M. A. C.'s football the team will contest with one of the "Big Elevens" on the local gridiron next Saturday. Wabash, last Saturday, from all reports clearly played far better ball than Michigan, their only disadvantage being in the lightness of the team. The game next Saturday will be spectacular to say the least. The teams are fairly evenly matched and play the same style of game. It will be M. A. C.'s sensation in football this season.

ABOUT THE PRICE.

Saturday's game will cost the management in the neighborhood of $700. Whether or not we can continue our relations with the larger teams depends on how well this game is patronized. The price has been placed at the uniform price of 50c, which includes a seat as long as they last, and this, compared with the price of the Michigan-Wabash game last Saturday ($1, $1.50, $2 and $3) is cheap indeed. If you can possibly afford it come out and help M. A. C. to continue its relations with the larger teams. Eckersall, last year's all-American quarterback, will referee the game, and Chas. Killpatrick, holder of the world's half-mile record, will act as umpire.

AVERAGE men are as colorless as average clothes. College men are outside the average—their togs have to be—College Brand Clothes are. Just a bit more dash to 'em, a great sight more style—and the precisely right amount of fit. Though exclusive their price isn't enough to exclude you from wearing 'em. For the young man and the "like-to-be-young."

ALL MEATS . . .

May look alike to you, but there is a very great difference in the quality we handle and that sold by some other markets. We handle none but the very best. Like the pudding, the proof of good meats is in the eating. A trial will convince you that you ought to trade with us.

We make daily trips to the College.
BOTH PHONES. Careful attention given to phone orders.
