A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

M. A. C. Easily State Champions and Close the Season in Good Financial Condition.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON.

The past football season has been the most successful in every way that M. A. C. has ever had. The student body has given better support than they have ever given before and the outside patronage has been far ahead of what it has been in former years, the profits for the year amounting to nearly nine hundred dollars.

Over seventy candidates reported to Coach Brewer the first week of the College year and of this number over half played throughout the season. The material was the best that an M. A. C. Coach ever had to pick from, a large majority having had high school experience. There was also more beef than in former years.

The first game was played with Detroit College, but owing to the wet condition of the field no good line could be drawn on the make up of the team. Only short halves were played and few substitutions were made. Score was 17-0.

The following game with the Flint mutes was played under ideal weather conditions, and the team began to show some of their old time form and speed. In this game every man on the squad was given a chance to show his football ability. In all twenty-four men were used. At the end of 40 minutes of play 40 points were rolled up against the mutes 0.

On Oct. 12 the team went to

The biggest game of the season was pulled off with Wabash on Oct. 26. By this time there was no more doubt as to who should play each position, and the game found Capt. Small at quarter, McKenna at left half, Vaughn at right half, Cortright at full, Frazer at right Brewer was picked up and carried from the field. The day ended with a rousing big celebration on the streets of Lansing.

No games were played the following two Saturdays as Kalamazoo and Albion both cancelled.

In the final home game of the sea-end, Exelby right tackle, Parker right guard, Moore center, Campbell left guard, Wheeler left tackle, and Shedd left end. Every man played a star game, but Exelby, Capt. Small and the backs put up a brilliant article of modern football. Wabash was heralded as one of the fastest teams of the west, which they demonstrated they were by defeating some of the strongest western teams this fall, and holding U. of M. down to 22 to 0. M. A. C. had never been defeated on her home field, and the student body said Wabash must not be the first to do the trick. Mass meetings were held every evening the week previous to the game, and at the game every student showed that he or she was with the team. With such backing nothing could stop Capt. Small and his followers when they once got started. The first half ended with neither side scoring, but in the second both sides scored but M. A. C. came out on top with 15 to Wabash's 6. The enthusiasm of the students could not be restrained and when the final whistle blew, every man with Coach son on Nov. 16, Olivet came here hoping to do things to the farmers. They had beaten M. A. C. a year previous by a score of 8 to 6 and were confident of repeating the trick this year. The whole town of Olivet accompanied the team to cheer it on to victory, but another wave of enthusiasm struck our campus similar to that shown at the Wabash game and the team went

OLYMPIC BANQUET AND DANCE.

On Saturday, Dec. 7, the Olympic Society held its annual banquet and dance. Owing to the early hour at which all social functions must come to a close the party began at five o'clock. As this was a hunting party the members all wore blue flannel shirts with a tie of bright red. The decorations were in keeping with the spirit of the occasion; the front of the dance hall was so decorated as to give the impression of a wood scene; in one corner punch was served from a hollow stump, while in the other corner the end of a hunter's shack was to be seen. The dancing was preceded by an Indian tableaux, which was very unique.

At 8:30 the banquet was served to the hungry hunters and their deers. After the toasts had been responded to the program was finished.

Dean and Mrs. Bissell kindly acted as patrons and the Dean did honor as toastmaster.

UNION LITERARY SOCIETY.

Last Saturday evening the members of the Union Literary Society, and a number of their resident alumni, enjoyed a venison supper in Club B. After the supper Prof. Hedrick, Mr. Tower, Mr. Gunson, and Mr. Robison responded to impromptu toasts.

The venison for the occasion was the gift of Mr. John Knecht.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

on to the field determined to wipe out the defeat of the year before. How well they succeeded can be seen by the score of 55 to 4. In this game Capt. Small kicked two pretty field goals and most of the touchdowns were the result of fake plays and long runs. Allen played at right half in Vaughn's place, the team otherwise lining up the same as in the Wabash game.

At this point the team reached the highest point of its development and from then on they took their usual end season slumps, due to the fact that from November 1st on, the team did not get one minute of daylight scrimmage owing to five o'clock classes. This year all but two or three of the team had classes up to 5 o'clock one or more days during the week. Under these conditions it is almost next to impossible for a coach to give much time to the much needed scrimmage and no new plays can be tried satisfactorily.

The last intercollegiate game was played at Alma. As Olivet had beaten Alma, everybody ex-played Thanksgiving day at Detroit with D. A. C. This game was another surprise, for this time Detroit handed out a defeat with a 4 to 0 score. M. A. C. played somewhat at a disadvantage for D. A. C. had a strong wind at their back throughout the whole game.

The following eighteen men finished the season on the first team squad: Cap't Small, Parker, Frazer, Shedd, McKenna, Campbell, Moore, Vaughn, Cortright, Exelby, Wheeler, Allen, Mills, Lemmon, Cogsdell, McWilliams, White, and Anderson.

The following regulars will be awarded monograms:

Name.	Position.	Wt.	No. of Monograms.
Capt. Small, Q. B.		136	5
Shedd, L. E.		172	3
Parker, R. G.		180	2
Moore, C.		208	2
Campbell, L. G.		185	2
Frazer, R. E.		172	2
McKenna, L. H.		163	2
Vaughn, R. H.		163	1
Cortright, F. B.		145	1
Exelby, L. T.		177	1
Wheeler, R. T.		170	1
Allen, R. H.		150	1

This is the best team that has ever worn the olive green, and out of the eighteen who finished the season, all will be on hand next fall except Capt. Small and Parker, who graduate.

Of the twelve men who received monograms, nine were chosen on the All-Michigan-team. They were Small, Shedd, Parker, Moore, pected an easy victory for M. A. C., but the Presbyterians had a surprise party up their sleeves and they put up a defense which the farmers were not looking for with the result that the game ended with a 0-0 tie. A score would probably have been made if it hadn't been for the muddy condition of the field. Mills played his first college game at quarter in Capt. Small's place and next year he will prove a valuable man in that position.

The final game of the season was Campbell, Frazer, McKenna, Vaughn, and Cortright.

The team will receive sweaters for their season's work, and those who have already received sweaters may have the choice of fine olive green blanket with a white monogram and a star for every season they have made the team.

Bert Shedd '10 was unanimously chosen to captain the 1908 team. Bert has played on the team regular for the past three seasons. He played left tackle and was a star in that position. The past two seasons he has held down left end. He is a tower of strength on defense, and is also one of the most consistent ground gainers that ever wore an M. A. C. uniform. He is very popular with the fellows and will make an excellent leader.

also Jackson Y. M. C. A., Detroit
Y. M. C. A., and others.

The first promenade concert
given in the Armory Friday night was a success in every way. Fully five hundred people were present to enjoy the delightfully informal occasion. Such gatherings cannot help but improve the College spirit
and acquaintance.

The excellent support of the Lansing people has done much toward putting the athletic association in good financial standing. Now if we only do our part by giving them their money's worth we shall be able to schedule more games with some of the larger colleges.

A ten o'clock party was given by the Columbian Literary Society in their rooms Saturday evening.
The party consisted of a short reception, a literary program, and several original and enjoyable games
so that the evening passed very quickly. Refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts were served. The first number on the program was an interesting scientific paper by R. H. Gilbert. It was followed by a humorous talk by T. A. Jordan, Messrs. Hill and Lapworth gave a very good piano duet. The closing number was an oration by W. D. Frazer. Mr. W.
J. Wright was critic. Prof. and Mrs. Smith and Dean Gilchrist added to the pleasure of the evening
by chaperoning the party.

The People's Church of East Lansing, was formally organized last Sunday with 80 charter members. The armory, in which the services were held, was well filled,
many Lansing people being present.
Addresses were given as follows:
The Church, Rev. W. A. Minty;
The Church Member, Rev. O. J.
Price; The Church and the College, Rev. F. G. Ward; The Church and the Community, Rev.
Frederick Brown.

The end of the term is drawing near, and work is becoming harder, so just at this time when we are putting extra stress on our studies it would be well to recall that we came here for all-round development; let us not forget the physical, social and spiritual as well. Remember the Thursday and Sunday evening meetings. Last Thursday evening Mr. Ray Kurtz presented the subject, "An Ideal Athlete" in a most interesting manner. We regret that more were not present Sunday evening to listen to Prof. Meyers' practical talk and good advice. Next Sunday night Mr. Collingwood will address the meeting. Don't fail to hear him.

THE LITTLE BIJOU.

The little Bijou was the attraction at the Eunomian Ten O'clock party last Saturday evening. The orchestra rendered several selections which were especially good. The Bijoscope was the opening feature. The latest pictures of Joe Gans and Kid Herman were shown and also a most exciting "Duel to the Death." America's Most popular Comedians, "The Romboes," in their first appearance here, made a very favorable impression on the audience. The illustrated songs act was another of the main features. The playlet, entitled "Deaf and Dumb," was both interesting and instructive, as it proved an entirely new theory in the medical world. The grand finale was the Operatic Specialty, "Chinee Soje Man." The boy with the popcorn, chewing gum and candy was in evidence during the program.

Among those who enjoyed the show were the chaperons, Prof. and Mrs. Chapman.
