HOLD MICHIGAN TO A SCORELESS TIE

Local Team had the University Eleven at its Mercy.

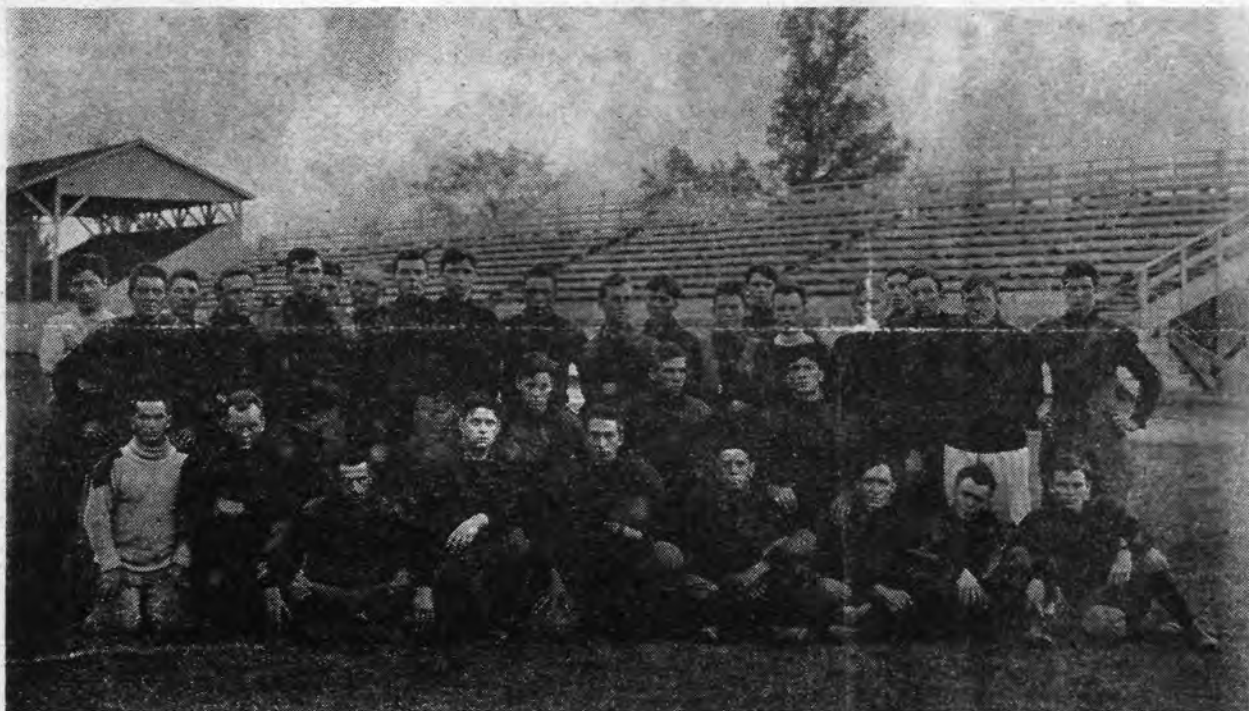

M. A. C. HAS NEVER YET BEEN BEATEN ON THE HOME FIELD.

The old slogan "Never beaten on the home field" still holds good in spite of the fact that the great Yost aggregation invaded the M. A. C. camp Saturday. Not only was the Michigan eleven held to a scoreless tie, but it was clearly out-classed by Brewer's all-star team. Three-fourths of the play was in Michigan's territory. Only four times did the maize and blue make first downs, while the defenders of the olive green repeatedly broke the teams, yet not uncomfortable for the spectators who thronged the grand stand and bleachers on every side of the field. The gridiron, which had been thoroughly sprinkled, was in first class condition, and every one was in excellent spirits.

At five minutes before three o'clock the visiting team appeared, looming up like giants, and were loudly cheered from a thousand throats while the band played "Michigan, My Michigan," and at and placed the ball on Michigan's 30 yard line McKenna again failed to drop kick and Allerdice punted out of danger. McKenna returned the punt, and Wheeler broke through the Michigan line and fell on the ball on Michigan's 40-yard line. McKenna tried again for goal, but failed. Allerdice punted back 60 yards, M. A. C. lost on downs, and Allerdice's long punt was again resorted to, which brought the ball to M. A. C.'s 20-yard line. Court-through the weak Michigan line for long gains, netting eight first downs. In punting only were the locals out-done. M. A. C.'s goal was but once in danger, while at six different times the locals worked the ball to within striking distance of their opponent's, and a trial made for a goal from field, but McKenna and Courtright failed to make good with the toe. Yost's "smile" disappeared after the first ten minutes of play, but was reflected on the face of every loyal M. A. C. fan, among whom were to be seen many overjoyed alumni.

Early in the afternoon alumni and friends of the college began congregating at the local field, and by 2:45 at least 4,000 people were on hand to watch M. A. C.'s first home clash with a great university eleven. The day was perfect—just cool enough to put the pepper in one end of the field floated a banner bearing the inscription, "Penns'y must be beaten, we are with you." At 3:05 the whistle sounded and the game was on.

THE FIRST HALF.

Courtright kicked off 50 yards to Green, who returned it 20 yards. Allerdice circled the end for a 60 yard run (the only long run of the game), but Michigan was penalized 15 yards for holding, and failed to make the downs—M. A. C.'s ball. Allen and Exelby were sent through the line for a total of 20 yards and McKenna dropped back for a drop kick. It went wild and Wasmund returned it 10 yards from the goal line. Allerdice punted 50 yards to Courtright, McKenna returned the punt. Michigan fumbled and McKenna fell on the ball. Courtright made a brilliant quarter-back run right returned the punt, Michigan was penalized 15 yards for holding, M. A. C. held and Michigan was forced to punt. Courtright returned the punt to Wasmund, and Michigan then uncorked the forward pass, but without a gain. Again M. A. C. held and Allerdice punted over Courtright's head, and he was downed on M. A. C.'s five-yard line, but punted out of danger. Michigan then tried another pass, which netted 50 yards, and for the only time in the game brought Michigan within striking distance of M. A. C.'s goal. Another pass was attempted, but Frazer grabbed the ball out of the air—M. A. C.'s ball. Courtright gained 15 yards on a fake forward pass, followed by a punt of 30 yards, which relieved the goal. Michigan tried another forward pass, but Frazer was again in the way—M. A. C.'s ball. Time was called with the ball in Michigan's territory. Both teams appeared to be in good condition.

SECOND HALF.

M. A. C. had the advantage in the first half but in the second it was more apparent. Not once in the second half did Michigan make first downs while Exelby and Wheeler tore through the holes opened for them in the weakening Michigan lines for constantly increasing gains. Wasmond kicked off to Exelby who ran the ball back 45 yards to the middle of the field and from then the battle was almost entirely in Michigan's territory. M. A. C. worked the ball down to within 10 yards of their opponents' goal but lost the ball. Allerdice punted to Courtright who made a fair catch and a fifth trial for goal but failed. A exchange of punts and a gain of 25 yards through the line again brought M. A. C. into striking distance but the ball went over and Allerdice was again brought into play with his magic boot. Courtright again made a fair catch but kicked low making a touchback.

From then until the end of the game neither side gained particular advantage. Allerdice occasionally was brought into play for a long punt, but either "Mac" or Courtright would manage to return them far enough to make up for the extra advantage gained. The game ended with the ball on Michigan's 30-yard line.

The crowd went wild. No one could hardly realize that Yost's great machine had been blanked, much less had been out-played. During the game Michigan gained approximately 50 yards, exclusive of punting, and M. A. C. 120 yards.

Final score—M. A. C. 0. Michigan 0.
Referee—Neil Snow, Michigan. Umpire—Jamieson, Purdue. Time of halves, 25 minutes. Attendance 6,000. Field judge—Elder of Penn. State. Head linesman—Walter Fishleigh, Michigan.

It is difficult to tell just who played the best game. Exelby, Frazer and Burroughs put up the best secondary defense ever seen on the M. A. C. field. Wheeler and Shedd, each outweighed by 50 pounds, played their men to a stand still. Bennett and Campbell held their ground like stone walls, and opened up gaps in the opposition almost at will. Allen, also outweighed, played with a vengeance, being taken out only toward the latter part of the game after a hard tackle and was replaced by Lee. He was only slightly shaken up, and appeared at supper feeling as well as ever. McKenna and Courtright did most creditable work running back punts and in all plays in which they featured, while Octy Moore bobbed up serene and smiling after every scrimmage as if nothing had happened.

Burroughs had an ankle slightly turned, and Campbell played almost the entire game with one of the small bones of his hand cracked, but after cleaning up none looked much the worse for wear. In fact they came off the field fresher than many a time after a heavy practice. It was an all-star team with but one thing to be desired—a good punter and drop kicker.

PROF. PETTIT RECEIVES PAINFUL INJURY.

While starting his auto at his office Friday noon Professor Pettit sustained a painful injury to his wrist from the crank. At first it was not thought to be a serious injury, but Dr. Bruegel, who was called, had two x ray photographs taken at the physics department which plainly showed a fracture of one of the bones of the forearm at its junction with the wrist. Though the arm is doing nicely the injury is doubly serious with Professor Pettit who walks with crutches, and the breaking of his arm makes it impossible for him to get about.

DEBATING CLUB.

On account of the mass meeting last Thursday evening, the debate scheduled for that meeting had to be postponed. This week the time will be occupied in discussion of the Ypsilanti Debate, and the matter of credits, for those who take part in this debate. Pres. Snyder, Dr. Blaisdell, Prof. Hedrick, Prof. Ryder, and Prof. King have kindly consented to be present at the meeting, and to give us their views. Ypsilanti has submitted the question,

"Resolved, That corporations doing an Interstate business, should have a Federal Charter, constitutionally ceded."

It is for us to choose which side we will debate.

The debate that was intended for last week will be held a week from the coming Thursday. The question is,

"Resolved, That the existing tariff on lumber, oil and steel should be removed."

Mr. C. M. Mason will argue the affirmative, and Mr. F. H. McDermid the negative.

Don't forget the time—Thursday evenings in Room 7 College Hall, from 7 to 8 p. m. Everybody invited.

HORT. CLUB.

On Wednesday evening the members of the Hort. club spent a very pleasant evening listening to the lecture by Mr. Chas. Shirley on the subject of "The Agricultural Guilds of Chicago University." Mr. Shirley has been a member of these guilds and understands their workings thoroughly. He defines an Agricultural Guild as an institution where young men, interested in agricultural pursuits may learn the fundamental principles of the practice of agriculture, and at the same time pay their expenses.

Many of the young men on these farms are students from the University of Chicago, while others are not in any way connected with it. He believes that the farm guild is filling a long felt want in our educational institutions and that it offers great opportunities to the young men of the city.

Sickel pears were served and a general discussion followed.

'01.

M. L. Ireland of the above class called on old college friends Friday. He is still in the ordnance department of the U. S. A., with headquarters at Frankfort Arsenal, Philadelphia. Incidentally he mentions to his friends the fact that he has a 16 months' old boy, who will sometime, we hope, be a candidate for M. A. C.

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE GAME.

M. A. C. has an "all star" team.

The average weight of M. A. C.'s line was 183 pounds—Bachfield, 158 pounds. The team's average was 174 pounds.

Reporter, to Coach Yost after the game.

"What have you to say about the game?"

"Oh, h—, they played rings around us."

Only 12 men were used by each side. Lawton was substituted for Green for Michigan in the second half and Lee took Allen's place toward the close.

We were clearly outplayed and the only reason we were not whipped was because we had a better punter and M. A. C. was unfortunate in six attempts at field goals. Allerdice was outpunting their man from 30 to 35 yards on each exchange but our line on the left wing was a veritable sieve and this was pierced at will."—Keene Fitzpatrick.

At the end of the first half Yost's men walked dejectedly off the field. The famous hurry-up coach, sans famous broad grin, waded into his men and told them a few pertinent things. But there was "nothing doing."

With Shulz and Casey in the game and five weeks of training Michigan still has hopes of getting even with Pennsy. Shulz still has a condition to work off, however, and Casey had not reported for practice up to the time of the M. A. C. game, so that the team Saturday was the best that Michigan could produce.

The showing made by M. A. C. Saturday demonstrates that a wise move was made when relations were severed with the peanut colleges of the M. I. A. A.—State Republican.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Repairs on the college road have been abandoned until spring.

The Y. M. C. A. rooms are now connected by phone, number 173.

Remember Pres. McFarland's
lecture at the Armory tonight, 7:00
p. m.

The Farmer's Institute campaign
for the season will begin with a one day institute at Bark River, Delta Co., Oct. 19.

Mayor Bennett has extended an invitation to Pres. Snyder, Pres. J.
Horace McFarland and Prof. Baker to inspect with him on Wednesday morning the Lansing Park System.

The botanical department has recently sent 500 samples of buckhorn and 500 samples of stinking smut of wheat to Prof. P. G. Holden, of Iowa, for demonstration purposes.
They are not common pests in that state.

The Electic society held a party
at their society house Friday night
which was attended by about 30 couples including a few visiting alumni. Director and Mrs. C. L.
Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. H. K.
Vedder were patrons.

Fully 500 students were present at the Union Y. M. and Y. W. C.
A. reception held in the armory
Friday evening. A short musical program was rendered, consisting of a piano solo by Lee L. Chambers, and two vocal solos by R. A.
Turner and Charles Edwards.
Refreshments in the shape of ice cream cones, were served.

The Michigan Forestry Association will meet in Battle Creek Nov.
10.

Dr. Miller, of Olivet College, addressed the union meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Sunday evening.

Instructor Howe judged the agricultural exhibits at Leslie recently which were a part of the home coming celebration.

Mr. F. H. Sanford visited the Arnold Arboretum Saturday of last week and obtained a few very rare
tree seeds for experimental work.

The Olympic society gave its first party of the year in their rooms in William's hall Friday evening.
Prof. and Mrs. C. P. Halligan and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parker were the patrons.

The Scrooby club will give a reception in the chapel on Friday evening to all the students and young people of East Lansing. A splendid amusement program is in preparation.

Father Branchau of St. Mary's church, Lansing, spoke in chapel
Sunday to the students of St.
Mary's parish. On the second Sunday of November Father Bran-chau will again visit the college to speak in chapel to the Catholic students. A Jesuit priest will accompany Father Branchau on this occasion and will also speak. It is hoped that all the Catholic students especially will be at this meeting.
All are welcome.

Alma College is having football troubles akin to those of M. A. C.
last year. Both Ypsilanti and D.
A. C. have cancelled their games which makes Alma's schedule a light one.

Dean Glichrist and her sister, Norma, entertained informally at the parlors of the Women's Building Monday afternoon for their mother, Mrs. H. C. Gilchrist, of Lorenz, Iowa.

President and Mrs. Snyder delightfully entertained the members of the teaching force at a reception
Tuesday evening given for the purpose of introducing the new members. About 150 members of the faculty and instructors and their wives were present. In the receiving line were President and Mrs.
Snyder, Professor and Mrs. Eustace, Professor and Mrs. Wilson, and Professor and Mrs. French. The professors in charge of the several departments assisted in introducing the instructors under their charge.
The decorations were chrysanthemums in the parlors, and pink and white roses and carnations in the dining room. Throughout the evening music was rendered by Miss Hopson and Miss Michaelides.
Since the annual faculty reception at the armory was given up two years ago there has been no opportunity for the new members of the teaching force to meet the older members, and this charming opportunity at the home of President and Mrs. Snyder was gratefully accepted.

Fatherland, and will leave for Germany soon.

Mrs. F. L. Gaskins, who was in charge of domestic art last year, is in Cornwallis, Oregon, where she is taking work in the State Agricultural College. Her son, Mr. Wm.
F. Gaskins, is professor of music in that institution and his wife, whom many will remember, is teacher in voice. Mrs. Gaskins writes very enthusiastically about the climate,
the people, and the college.

Wife (reading)—"Isn't this funny, my dear? Here is an article which says they have found a new species of birds in Australia which have four legs. Now, whatever do you suppose they want four legs for?"

Husband (yawning)—"They are probably politicians, my love, and by this beautiful dispensation of their Creator they are enabled to stand on both sides of the fence at the same time.—Ex.

RUSKIN'S BIBLE.

John Ruskin, one of the most learned men in England during the past century and one of the most beautiful stylists in English literature, speaks thus of his general knowledge of the Bible and especially of the chapters which his mother helped him to commit to memory in his youth:

"This maternal installation in my mind of that property of chapters I count very confidently the most precious and, on the whole, the one essential part of my education."

These are the chapters referred to: Exodus 15 and 20; II Samuel 1, from verse 17 to end; I Kings 8; Psalms 23, 32, 90, 91, 103, 112, 119, 139; Proverbs 2, 3, 8, 12; Isaiah 58; Matthew 5, 6, 7; Acts 26; I Corinthians 13, 15; James 4; Revelation 5, 6.

Cut this out and paste it in your Bible!

THE SALARIED MAN.

He gets his "twenty-per" each week,
enough to pay his way,
He doesn't own a country home, a yacht
out in the bay;
Three children romp about his door,
that self-same door is rented.
But still he smiles his way along, with all the world contended.
He meets his bills as they fall due, at night sleeps like a top,
And resting sweetly never fears that copper stock will drop.
He plods along right faithfully and when his work is done
He calls his children round him for the evening hour of fun;
His weary wife looks through the door
and smiles to see them there,
And in her heart there's gentle peace,
her soul is free from care.
She hums a little song of love and kisses one and all.
She fears no market crash to drive her husband to the wall.
Great wealth has never seared their souls
or spoiled their simple lives.
And on their hearth rank envy's weed
seldom, ay! never thrives;
Modest their dress and plain their food,
the greatest of their joys,
The love they bear each other and the love they bear their boys.
Theirs is a struggle, sometimes hard,
but all the odds they face
With calmness, for they have no fear
of ruin or disgrace.
Go forth today and tread your way
along the city street,
Who is the happiest man of all that you may chance to meet?
Not he whose wealth uncounted is, not
he of splendid fame.
Not he who boasts a world of power, not
he of public name;
But he, the unassuming man, whose face is homeward turned To greet his wife and little ones, his daily wage well earned.

ALL MEATS...

May look alike to you, but there is a very great difference in the quality we handle and that sold by some other markets. We handle none but the very best. Like the pudding, the proof of good meats is in the eating. A trial will convince you that you ought to trade with us. We make daily trips to the College.

BOTH PHONES. Careful attention given to phone orders.
Gottlieb Reutter.
