HORT. TRIP.

The junior and senior students specializing in horticulture to the number of 37 left the laboratory Saturday morning at 7 o'clock to make their annual visit to the large apple orchard on the old Smith farm one mile north of Pine Lake. The trip was made in two large busses, supplemented by Mr. Gardner's auto.

Arriving at the orchard a study was made of the several varieties of apples and also of the diseases and insects. A life history of the oyster shell scale was explained by Mr. P. M. Mason. After lunch, which consisted of wieniewursts toasted at the campfire, rolls and coffee, an inventory of the orchard was made.

This orchard is one of about 35 acres, and is of historic interest from the fact that it is on the farm owned by the father-in-law of L. H. Bailey, and parts of the orchard were set by Mr. Bailey himself many years ago. The orchard was neglected for many years, but this season is in the hands of a company that are endeavoring to improve it. The efforts made were of especial interest to the students.

The return trip was started at 12:30, that those who desired to do so might witness the football game with Alma. Every one voted the trip a most delightful as well as instructive one.

The work in domestic art for senior women this term is an application of the first term's work in fine hand sewing, and consists in the making of a party gown. Some of these are very simple, while others are somewhat elaborate. A certain amount of time is required in class work, but the members are free to spend more than this if they desire.

Dr. Lyman's family arrived on Saturday last.

An informal reception was given at the Women's Building Saturday evening for the new teachers.

I. J. Cortright, half back, who is playing his fourth year on the football team, has been made captain of the team for the remainder of the year.

The News and Comment Class, conducted by Rev. Goldsmith, is proving to be very popular and helpful. The class is held on Monday evenings.

Reports coming into the headquarters of the National Dairy Show Ass'n, indicate a wide spread interest in the show, which begins Thursday, October 20, in the Chicago Coliseum. These reports are coming from leading dairymen, dairy officials, and the traveling fraternity and indicate a large attendance.

Instructor Kempster took his class to the B. F. Hall Lumber Co.'s plant Saturday forenoon where they were looking up the subject of material for poultry house construction. This is made a part of the instruction work, and Mr. Hall was able to give the class an idea of the kind and cost of material used in the construction of such buildings.

A fudge party was given by the Y. W. C. A., Saturday evening in honor of Miss Anna Brown, traveling State Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement. During the cooling of the fudge, a splendid informal talk on the "Missionary Work Done in the Foreign Countries" was given by Miss Brown, who expects to be one of the missionaries to go to China next Fall.

The senior girls gave their commercial luncheons on Friday and Saturday of last week. For these luncheons the young ladies buy, as far as possible, food already prepared. Later on luncheons will be given when the food will be prepared in the cooking laboratory. Careful estimates of cost will be kept in each case, including time of preparing food, time is record at 15c per hour. In the final score attractiveness as well as palatability will come in for count.

L. G. Rinkle writes Mr. Liverance for some help in short course instruction in Missouri. Mr. Rinkle is connected with the Dairy husbandry department at the Missouri Agricultural College and states that their special courses begin Nov. 1.

Bulletins No. 261, 262 and 263 are now being mailed from the station. No. 261 on Baby Beef Production is by H. W. Norton, Jr., '03; 262, Suggestions on Orchard Planting by O. K. White, of the Hort. Dept., and 263 is a bulletin on fertilizers by Mr. Patton, Chemist of the Experiment Station.

R. V. Tanner sends in his subscription to the Athletic Association which proves his loyalty. He is a forest ranger at Libby, Mont.

ALUMNI

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, Oct. 1, '10.
Dear Sir:—

It has been a long time since I received a copy of the RECORD and I am getting rather hungry for the news of the College. If my subscription has run out kindly let me know and the amount will be forthcoming. My address continues to be Bureau of Soils, Washington, D. C., but for the present I am stationed at Seattle. About the middle of November I shall probably move headquarters to San Antonio, Texas, where a reconnaissance soil survey is to be made of the Rio Grande country.

With best wishes for the success of the RECORD and everything pertaining to the College, I am,

Cordially yours,
A. E. KOCHER.

A line from Mr. Falconer states that Mrs. Falconer died of peritonitis on Sept. 16, after an illness of only one week. Besides the husband, a little daughter, Eleanor, ten and one-half months is left.

Scott B. Lilly, who located in Grand Rapids during the summer later accepted a position as assistant professor of engineering in Swarthmore College, Pa.

Mr. D. T. Moring, one of the Central Office men in the U. S. Weather Bureau at Washington, was at the college recently to confer with Mr. Seeley concerning his need of certain instruments for class use. Beside promising to send on a fine line of these instruments, Mr. Moring stated that for the work in hand we have one of the finest and best equipped buildings in the country. Beside Mr. Seeley who has charge of the local service, the following M. A. C. men are in like work: W. S. Palmer, of Wyoming, C. F. Schneider, of Grand Rapids, and J. H. Kimball, observer at Richmond, Va. With the establishment of the Bureau at M. A. C. it is quite likely that more of our graduates may be attracted to this work.

A. L. Snyder who taught last year in Wilbur, Wash., is now with the Bates & Rogers Construction Co., at Avery, Idaho.

R. J. Carr is now connected with the Bureau of Animal Industry as Junior Animal Husbandman in animal breeding investigations at Washington, D. C. His address is No. 7-2914 Eleventh St., N. W. His former address was Columbia, Mo.

R. R. Lyon, Second Lieut. Coast Artillery, has been transferred from Fortress Monroe to Fort Terry, N. Y., where he is in camp at present. Mr. Lyon seems to be enjoying the life of a soldier.

MME. LANGENDORFF.

Madam Langendorff, who will sing here Oct. 19th is without question the greatest soloist that has ever appeared at this institution, and in fact she is one of the most popular concert singers in the country today, ranking with Nordica, Gadski, Farrar, etc.

Last year Madam Langendorff sang at the famous festivals at Bangor and Portland, Me., and was received with wild enthusiasm. During the past few days we have received very flattering newspaper clippings from Berlin and other large cities abroad where she has been singing the past summer.

Ordinarily Madam Langendorff commands a price far in excess of what we would be able to pay, but owing to the fact that the lecture bureau have her engaged for a long series of concerts, they were able to send her here at a reduced price. Every student should take advantage of this opportunity to hear one of the really great soloists. The board of directors of the Liberal Arts Union need the support of every student in college in their endeavor to make the entertainment course an annual affair and to place it on a sure foundation. The course this year is the best that has ever been offered and every number is excellent. Think it over and buy your season ticket before Oct. 19. Reservations may be made, beginning Monday morning, either at the secretary's office or at Emery's Book Store, Lansing.

CHORUS.

Prof. Fred Killeen will have charge of the chorus work this year. He is a brother of Prof. Earl Killeen who had charge of this work last season, and comes to us very highly recommended. He has studied abroad in addition to the training received in this country. Prof. Killeen will locate in Lansing where he will conduct a studio. While it has not been definitely settled as to the production to be given next spring, it is thought that "The Rose Maiden" a charming cantata by Cowen will be given. Miss Freyhofer will act as accompanist. The first chorus meeting was held last night.

Levi Davidson '14, of Baltimore, Md., is ill in the college hospital.

It has been thought wise to devote hereafter a corner of the RECORD where may be found announcements of college happenings for the following week. The fact that many would plan to attend one or more of such meetings if the dates were given each week, has led to this arrangement and we trust it may be of use to all. We shall be glad to have from students or departments notice of any meeting which they desire to bring before the college people. We shall include in this "Chronicle" chapel speakers, Sunday services, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. meetings and announcements of various club meetings. Athletics will come in for notice as will the parties so far as they can be learned. Any help given to make this "Bulletin Board" complete will be greatly appreciated.

FROM NEBRASKA.

My Dear Friend: I thank you for the RECORD which I received tonight. It reminded me that I must subscribe for it immediately if I am to miss none of the news during the present year.

I have begun my second year in the chair of German and French at Grand Island College. Our attendance is considerably larger than it was at this time last year. My work continues pleasant.

I hope my friends back there think of me sometimes. I still greatly enjoy them through my memory and the RECORD.

Yours cordially,
GEO. L. STEVENS,
Grand Island, Nebr.,
Grand Island College.

Mr. F. H. Stover of Bay City, visited his daughter, Miss Edna Stover, a day or two the past week.

ATHLETICS

M. A. C., 35—DETROIT, O.

Five touch downs with a goal for each, one goal from field and a safety, tells the story of the game with Detroit college on Thursday of last week. The day opened rainy and the outlook for a game was rather gloomy. But the weather cleared up in time and a big crowd witnessed the first game of the season. It was really M. A. C. all the time, for at no time was the home goal in danger and the visitors were forced to kick often. Four quarters of ten minutes each were played or forty minutes of actual playing. Under the new rules, the players are given a rest of three minutes between the first and second and third and fourth quarters, and a period of fifteen minutes between the halves. It was necessary to shorten this time a little at this game on account of the late hour at which the game was called.

Some of the features of the game were as follows: Hill kicked one goal from the field; McWilliams blocked a punt on the visitors goal line and forced them to a safety; Montfort intercepted a forward pass, broke away from the tackler and secured a touchdown; Stone received two forward passes for big gains and Montfort took one.

For an early season game the one on Thursday was very satisfactory. Only two of last year's regulars—Campbell and Stone—were put in and Stone was taken out later. In addition, the heavy rains had left the field in bad condition and the ball was at times very hard to handle. Following are the players who won the first game:

ALMA GAME.

M. A. C. won the second football game of the season by defeating Alma's strong aggregation by a 12 to 0 score. Alma has plenty of weight this season, and is playing excellent ball. Hurst, our former genial Y. M. C. A. secretary, was with the visitors, and with Ashley acted as an official. While M. A. C.'s playing was erratic at times, a thorough understanding of the new rules of the game would have caused less criticism on the part of our rooters. The fact that M. A. C. failed at times to work a good play simply indicated that they were up against men who knew football, and not that the work was not well executed.

One of M. A. C.'s touchdowns came early in the first quarter, made by Hill who also kicked goal.

The second touch down in the third quarter was also made by Hill who followed with an easy goal. One of the features of the game was the playing of F. Campbell. His playing was on the order of "Babe Kratz" of former years who seldom failed to make good gains when given the ball. The visitors secured the ball on fumbles at times, when they were forced to kick out of danger. The visitors were practically all veteran players while M. A. C.'s line up was much the same as that in Thursday's game, except Davis and Pringle who went in at end and guard. Drew also replaced Hill at half near the close of the game.

A mass meeting will be held Wednesday evening when plans will be perfected for the game with the university on Saturday.

It is planned to reach Ann Arbor just before noon, leaving that place for the return shortly after supper. One fare ($1.30) will be charged for the round trip, and admission to the game will be fifty cents. A section will be saved for M. A. C. rooters so that they may all be in a bunch. The prospects are certainly very uncertain. Their men are veterans while many of our men are playing their first season as regulars. Case played them to a standstill on Saturday and their playing, it is understood, was ragged.

They will have a week of hard practice no doubt. Meanwhile M. A. C. will be doing a few things also.

Everybody attend the mass meeting and learn more about the particulars, then as many as can line up and yell for old M. A. C. You will have help from some former loyal M. A. C. men when it comes to rooting.

FORESTRY STUDENTS WRITE AN EXAMINATION.

Eight forestry students will leave, on the evening of October 23d, for Au Sable, Mich., to write on the civil service examination for assistant forest rangers.

Assistant forest rangers are paid an entrance salary of $1,100 per annum. It is estimated by the forest service that over 350 eligibles will be needed during the field season of 1911.

The duties of the rangers are to carry out the work of the National Forests, under the direction of the supervisors. Their duties include patrol to prevent fire and trespass, estimating, surveying boundaries and marking timber, the supervision of cuttings and similar work. They issue minor permits, build cabins and trails, oversee grazing business, investigate claims, report on applications and report upon and arrest for violation of forest laws and regulations.

The examination will consist of questions regarding the use of the forests, supplemented by a field test to show the applicant's fitness to do the actual work of a ranger.

HORT. CLUB.

Mr. Thayer, a graduate of the class of '00, gave some general advice this week, concerning mistakes that are made in fruit-growing. They were principally business faults, and needed business remedies. The summer vacation experiences, related by the juniors, were both interesting and humorous.

Fameuse apples and Niagara grapes were served.

Miss Virgilia Purmont, teacher of domestic science at M. A. C. in 1904-5 has recently been elected to the position of professor of home economics at Ames, Iowa. Miss Purmont was at Drexel during the year '05-'06.

COLLEGE BUS HEADQUARTERS

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

W. L. Gardner, who took the freshman work of the engineering course in 1905-06, has again entered college to continue his work.

Miss Margaret Dupee writes from Chicago of the death of her father on Sunday, October 2, of an acute attack of pneumonia. Miss Dupee was instructor in botany during the past year.

The young ladies at the Women's Building find recreation in playing field hockey these fine October days. A field is staked in front of the building, the game being played much the same as that of ice hockey.

On Saturday the football team goes to Ann Arbor for a game. A special train will be run and it is expected a large number of students and college people will take in this trip. A mass meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, at which time the final arrangements will be announced.

The forestry department has received numerous specimens of western woods for work in wood technology, which will be of great benefit. Among the specimens are typical pieces of pinon pine, one of the nut pines of Arizona and New Mexico. This is of a very slow growth and scraggly in appearance. It is the chief fuel wood of the southwest, and sells in Albuquerque, N. Mex., for $8.50 per cord of 14 in. wood. It is used locally for fence posts, but is not at all durable. Specimens also have been received of western yellow pine, which is the commercial timber tree of the Rocky Mountain region.

Miss Grace L. Scott, instructor in music, entertained her mother over Sunday, Oct. 2d.

H. H. Douglas, '10, of Northville high school, spent Saturday and Sunday with college friends.

Prof. Jeffery has ten seniors in agricultural 9 a, (soil physics), the largest number ever entered for this work.

Mr. J. C. Paltridge, for two years instructor in English at M. A. C., has a very pleasant position in Belmont college, Belmont, Cal.

The contract for the 1911 calendar has been awarded to the Manz Engraving Co. of Chicago. They will be something pretty fine and an opportunity will be given each to secure one.

Clarence Clippert, who has been employed in the laboratory of the experiment station chemist, was quite badly burned one day last week and was taken to the hospital where he could be properly cared for.

Mr. W. H. Beal, one of the U. S. Experiment Station inspectors, was at the college a day or two the past week. There are three or four of these inspectors who make annual tours of inspection to the various experiment stations in the U. S.

The first Debating Club of the term was attended by about thirty persons and plenty of enthusiasm. There is a new lease of life promised to the club, and if we are given a chance at Ypsilanti this year we shall surely come off victorious.

M. Putterman, '15, was called to his home in Detroit last week on account of the serious illness of a sister.

LOST. — Mouth piece for bass horn. Finder please return to Prof. Clark or to the office of the Military Dept.

Chas. N. Mason, '09, visited college friends a day or two the past week while on his way East from Birmingham.

Remember the date of October 19. One of the greatest musical treats ever offered at M. A. C. You cannot afford to miss it.

Mrs. C. B. Collingwood gave a reception to the Michigan Agricultural College Women's Club at her home, Sunset Lane, yesterday evening.

Mr. K. B. Bovay, who has been spending his vacation at his home near Big Rapids, called on his brother, A. G. Bovay, '12, last week. When here Mr. Bovay was on his way back to Washington where he is employed in the Patent office.

At the Michigan State Teachers Association held in Bay City Oct. 27-28, the alumni and friends of M. A. C. will hold a banquet on Friday evening, at 5:30 o'clock in the parlors of the First Congregational church. It is hoped that all alumni who are teaching, and all others who can possibly do so will attend. All who can do so should notify Prof. W. H. French, chairman of the committee on arrangements, at once. Address Prof. French at E. Lansing.

Prof. French visited R. G. Hoop- ingarner '09, teacher of agriculture at Otsego, last week and reports very favorably on the work Mr. H. is doing.

Prof. French addressed the Western Michigan Schoolmaster's Round Table at Kalamazoo, Friday evening on the subject of Industrial Education.

Several new hot beds have been constructed immediately south of the cold storage plant. The walls are built of cement, so will be practically indestructible.

Miss Mary Mead, of Jamestown, N. Y., who has been spending the summer with her niece Mrs. Bogue, returned to her New York home Friday of last week.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Arvilla Coomer, sp. '04-'05, to Mr. Richard Perry White at her home in Pontiac. Mr. and Mrs. White are at home in Cedarville, Mich.

Miss Anna Brown, national secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, spent Sunday at M. A. C. Miss Brown is a graduate of Wellesley College, and headquarters are in New York City.

The Forestry club have elected the following officers: J. F. Campbell, chief forester; Albert Frutig, associate forester; Arthur Bovay, chief of records and accounts; L. J. Cortrite, chief ranger; H. B. Collingwood, member of executive committee. The club meets each alternate Tuesday. Meeting tonight.
