MICHIGAN AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

VOL. 18.

EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN, TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1913.

No. 35

INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET.

The annual interscholastic meet will be held at M. A. C. on Saturday of this week, and an unusually large number of schools will be represented. These young men are representatives from some of our best high schools in the state, and as our visitors will be entertained while here. No pains will be spared to make this a day long to be remembered by them.

Each of the men's societies will co-operate with the athletic department, and will report as to how many can be entertained.

The usual awards will be given to the winners, and additional prizes may be provided by the societies.

An effort will be made to show the visitors about the campus and farm and through the various buildings while they are here.

MEMORIAL DAY AT M. A. C.

It is peculiarly fitting that M. A. C. should do honor to the heroes of the rebellion. Her first class was unanimously dedicated to the preservation of the union, and these men took their places in the ranks of those who offered up their lives that the nation might live. On the threshold of a calling peculiarly devoted to peace, they were suddenly launched into a most bitter and bloody war. With all the vicissitudes of that fierce struggle we are familiar through song and story, if not from actual experience, and the present generation has witnessed the passing of those bitter sectional prejudices that so long survived the real conflict.

Memorial day is a specially fitting occasion, not only to commemorate the deeds and pay loving tribute to the patriotism of the nation's heroic dead, but at the same time to renew our allegiance to those principles for which the stars and stripes stand, and to take stock anew of our belief in the verity of constitutional government.

The RECORD takes pride in announcing that Memorial Day of the present year was most fittingly observed. The regimental parade of the cadets formed an appropriate prelude to the exercises in the armory, which consisted of several numbers by the college quartette and an address by Mr. H. M. Nimmo, editor of the Detroit Saturday Night.

When Mr. Nimmo led away from the well beaten paths of thought on such occasions, he did no less honor to those in whose memory the day was established, but rather argued for the preservation and perpetuation of that for which their sacrifices were made. It is well to be reminded that we have enemies in our midst; enemies of our country more elusive and more insidious, yes, and more dangerous than any which may come from without. The shadow of anarchy lurks in our midst; the godless spirit of disruption has found lodgement among us, and, all un-American as it is, would drag down the gentle goddess presiding over our destinies and annihilate the scales of justice. Mr. Nimmo did well to point out these things to the young men who are just going out from these halls to take their places in the ranks of American citizens, and to be there charged with greater responsibilities than was the lot of those who wore the blue in the days of the Rebellion.

The selfishness of modern industrialism, the greed for gain, and the love of luxury with freedom from toil, together with the insolence and militancy of organized labor are, like the famed giants of old, enemies of men, worthy of the steel of M. A. C.'s most valiant knight-errants.

We are glad that Mr. Nimmo came to us on this occasion. We are glad to be aroused in the midst of our prosperity and fancied security to the imminence of impending danger. Over the graves of our honored dead let us pledge anew our faith in the constitution and its interpreters, and enlist actively and for life in the cause of good government.

INTER-SOCIETY DEBATE.

By defeating the Feronians in debate last Wednesday afternoon, the team representing Sesame literary society now holds first place in the girls' contest for the inter-society cup offered by Prof. Johnston.

Those of the boys' societies interested in this contest are: Eclectic, Olympic, Athenaeum, Delphic, Ionian Phylean, Eunomian and Columbian. On June 4 the Delphic society meets the Ionian; and the Eclectic and Eunomians will also engage in debate a little later. The winners of these two semi-finals will then meet each other to determine the winner in the boys' contest.

The Sesame team is ready to meet the winning team in the boys' contest whenever they are ready, and the final debate for the beautiful trophy should be a most interesting one.

The various teams have been working hard on the subject of the honor system, and the excellent debates but give further assurance that there is excellent material at M. A. C. for future contests.

The announcement that M. A. C. will debate Minnesota University and Iowa State has had much to do with the increased interest in this important feature of the college work.

PROF. BABCOCK PASSES AWAY.

We regret to announce the death of Prof. Warren Babcock, of the class of '90, at his home on Abbot Ave., this morning at ten o'clock. Prof. Babcock has been connected with the department of mathematics since graduation, and in charge of his department since 1909. Further announcement will be made next week.

OLD GRADUATES WHO WILL ATTEND THE REUNION, JUNE 25th.

1867.

David Strange.—In favor of propositions.

1868.

A. G. Galley.—"No objections to 1, 2 and 5. Think rules already take care of 6. Not favorable to 3. Decidedly opposed to 4 and 7 taken together."

1869.

Charles E. Bessey.—"I hope these propositions will be accepted by the alumni. I am especially favored to No. 4."

1870.

A. H. Pinney.

Byron David Halstead.

1873.

Benjamin T. Halstead.—Votes "yes," except as to change of name. He does not want to drop the word "Agricultural" from the name of the College, nor does he see any good reason for the other proposed change. "The old names are good enough for me."

Frank L. Carpenter.—"I expect Ben T. Halstead, of Petoskey, to go down with me."

1874.

George W. Brown.

Jay Sessions.—There will be three in party.

1875.

W. H. Rand.—Is in favor of propositions.

B. H. Nevins.

Frank J. Annis.—Will try and meet with you.

1876.

W. J. Sloss.—There will be two in his party. They expect to drive down in their car.

J. E. Taylor.—"Not noted for playing, but tooted a cornet some in the pioneer college band, as bugler for the first drill company under Prof. Ingersoll."

1877.

C. I. Goodwin.

D. Davenport.—Mrs. Davenport and daughter are also coming.

H. F. Buskirk.

Emmor O. Ladd.—"I hope to attend the reunion."

James Troop.

1878.

E. D. A. True.—Uncertain as to coming. Votes "yes" on the propositions submitted.

H. E. Emmons.—There will be two in his party. He votes "yes" on the alumni propositions.

1879.

Ray Sessions.—With proposition 7, I do not fully agree. It is an alumni association, and should be so recognized.

1881.

A. H. Voigt.—"I am pleased to know that the class of '81 is waking up in the matter of the portraits."

Byron S. Palmer.—"I have your

ALUMNI

It is rumored that H. K. Patriarche, New England agent for the P. M. Ry. Co., is to be married on June 21. Why not make the triennial your wedding trip, "Pate?"

We are in receipt of a pamphlet on "The Home Garden," issued by the Alabama Coal Operators' Association and prepared by O. L. Ayrs, '02, now agriculturist with the Tennessee Coal Iron & Railroad Co. The object is to prove what a garden will do for a home, and the pamphlet gives many valuable suggestions relative to preparation of soil, cultivation, fertilizers, insects, etc., and gives a list of available U. S. bulletins along this line.

A. G. Craig, with the Arcadia Orchard Co., of Deer Park, Wash., writes that he will not be able to return for the Triennial, and gives the following as his reasons:

"I have personal and direct supervision of 6800 acres of orchards, ranging from one year old to four years. This company is practicing somewhat different system than most other orchard companies, in that they make a practice of growing crops in the young orchards. This year we have 2200 acres of wheat, 100 acres of garden peas and 400 acres of field peas. The peas are raised for seed purposes. We also have 400 acres of potatoes, and a large tract of clover and vetch. The vetch is grown for green manure and seed purposes."

"I am in hopes that we will be able to get away this winter and make old Michigan, and especially M. A. C., a visit. Please remember me to all the boys, and especially those of the class of 1902."

'07.

Fent E. N. Thatcher is now doing consulting civil engineering work in Grand Rapids. His business address is 207 Shepard Bldg.

Miss Zoe B. Wimple is the hustling food inspector with the health department of the city of Tacoma, Wash. Miss Wimple recently attended a vocational conference for college women, held jointly by the women of the Washington State College and the University of Idaho, when she gave an address on "Public Sanitation as a Field for College Women." This is the busy season for Miss Wimple, as in addition to her general inspection work she is also superintendent of the municipal market. She has caused to be published in a recent bulletin a list of Tacoma's bake shops and restaurants, with the correct rating as to their cleanliness.

H. M. Carter, '11, reports a good year's work at McCarron, Mich., as teacher of manual training and farm engineering in the Dunbar School of Agriculture. Mr. Carter will remain at McCarron next year.

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1913.

PLANS for the Triennial are going along nicely, and each mail brings numerous favorable responses from alumni. Classes are becoming more perfectly organized, with the result that class reunions will be a feature of the program.

In order that all our alumni may be kept informed as to the arrangements, it has been decided to issue another Special Triennial Number of the RECORD on June 10, if it is possible to get the matter in shape by that time. The RECORD will therefore be glad to hear from the various committees as to further plans, and from alumni organizations, as well as from individual members who have something to announce in connection with the event.

Every effort will be put forth to make this number of interest to those who contemplate coming, and we desire the co-operation of our friends in the effort.

FROM GERMANY.

This old city of München is very interesting, and the countryside is beautiful.

Yesterday I went with Prof. Hugo Helmericks, head of the civil engineering department of the Ployto, to Planegg, a small mountain town. At Planegg we walked for the remainder of morning through the loyal Bavarian forest. Met the Oberforster by appointment, and after European etiquette had been satisfied we spent the remainder of the day in observations. The oberforster produced from the house two huge volumes of report of activities of forest operations. He kindly supplied me with detail information as to costs, income, etc., all of which was grist for my mills. I secured some good photos of areas observed. We then walked about ten miles to another railroad station, and returned home about 10:00 p. m.

Tuesday I leave for a five-day trip to the Spessart Mts. with Prof. Dr. Enders, of the forest school. The Spessarts are supposed to contain the finest white oak in Europe.

I anticipate being in attendance at the forestry conference in Paris, June 16 to 20, and at Ghents on this same journey.

Just how long we will be here in München I cannot say, but until the last of July any way. I only wish we could make the days twice as long.

I suppose ere this reaches you commencement activities will be not so far off. I would like also to secure copies of your April bulletin.

The RECORD has been received; glad to have it and the news.

Sincerely,

J. FRED BAKER.

BASE BALL.

U. of M. 5—M. A. C. 4.

In the first game, on Ferry Field Wednesday, the home team lost to the strong University nine 4 to 5, ten innings being required to decide the contest.

Blake Miller pitched for M. A. C., and proved himself exceptionally strong, and was given splendid support by his team mates, the work of Mogge, Dawson, and Harvey in the outfield being especially commendable. Only one stolen base was registered against our catcher, Bibbins, who played a good game throughout.

Contrary to the usual order of things, the fifth proved the big inning for M. A. C. At this stage of the game the University boys were in the lead by four points. The University pitcher, Quaintance, then proceeded to give three passes, and this, coupled with two wild pitches and two singles, netted M. A. C. three runs. In the sixth he was again found for three singles, when Baribeau was sent to relieve him. Bibbins then followed with a fourth single, bringing in the run which tied the score.

The game was won by the University in the tenth, when Hughitt and Pontius drew passes, Baribeau got a single, filling the bases, and Capt. Bell brought in the winning run with his third single.

From Ann Arbor comes the report that this was the best article of baseball seen on Ferry field this season.

U. OF M. 7—M. A. C. 2.

In the last game of the series with the University Saturday, M. A. C. was defeated by the score of 7 to 2. Peterson was in the box for M. A. C., and, while doing good work, his support was not what had been given in the previous game.

Sisler, for the University, was the man upon whom his team mates could depend, and seemed always to secure a hit when hits counted for the most. He was responsible for the big lead in the first, getting a three-bagger with the bases full.

In the fourth, Dawson, who got first on a grounder to short, scored on Grigg's hit to Sisler, the former reaching second safely. Griggs then tallied on a hit by Trowbridge. This ended the scoring for M. A. C.

The University scored 3 in the first, 2 in the third, and 1 each in the fourth and sixth; securing 11 hits to 5 for M. A. C. Each team is charged with four errors.

Two games are scheduled on the home grounds this week—Lake Forest coming on June 5th, and Ohio State on the 6th. The 7th will be taken up with the big Inter-scholastic.

A game in which some of the former M. A. C. stars will participate is promised on June 14.

Miss Maud Raymond, general student secretary of the Y. W. C. A. for Michigan, spent Wednesday and Thursday at M. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray G. Potts, of Washington, Mich., announce the birth of a son, John Daniel, May 24. Mr. Potts graduated with '06, and the mother was formerly Mary Pratt, '08.

OLD GRADUATES WHO WILL ATTEND THE REUNION.

card, relative to the reunion of my class '81, to be held at the time of the Triennial, June 25th, and would say in reply that, while it is not very convenient for me to get away at this time, if there was any indication or prospect of a number of my class attending, I could never resist the temptation to be one of the number, and would surely be on hand. I shall hope to hear from you again, and the more I think of it, the more I am hoping that your reply will be encouraging."

C. R. Dart.—"I will endeavor to be in Lansing on June 25th."

Walter I. Lillie.—"Notice of a meeting, or 'round-up,' as you say, of class '81 on the 25th of June, 1913, received and contents noted. If nothing happens I will be there, for it will give me great pleasure to meet all my 'young' classmates. Think of it—all who are now attending the M. A. C. have been born since we graduated!"

Chas. McKenny.—"I have your postal card of May 13, regarding the reunion of the class of '81. It is unfortunate that our commencement at the Normal College occurs June 25th. It looks pretty dubious for me. I should not miss the reunion if I could possibly be there. I do not know whether it would be possible for me to tear myself away in time to see some of it. I presume I could be there in the evening, but in the day time it is pretty certain I shall have to be in Ypsilanti."

Jason Woodman.—In favor of propositions.

1882.

Joseph Edward Coulter.—Votes "yes" on the proposition submitted.

John W. Beaumont.—"Yes, I am in favor of propositions, except as to No. 3. I have wondered if too frequent times of meeting might not militate against the number who would come. I should be sorry to see the Triennial abolished."

A. J. Chappell.—"Wife and myself expect to be present at the whole or part of the exercises of commencement week."

Wm. T. Langley.—"We have assurances from all but four that '82 will be there. Those four must come. Count on every one."

Will Erwin Hale.

L. B. Hall.—"You fellows do as you please, and we will dance to your music."

E. M. Ball.

1883.

A. M. Emery.—There will be two in his party. Votes "yes" on the propositions submitted.

E. P. Clark.—There will be four in party.

Osmond C. Howe.—There will be two in party.

1884.

Clarence E. Smith.

W. A. Dohany.—Two in his party.

W. D. Barry.

1885.

J. D. Towar.—"Expect at least ten members of '85 back. '85 class supper 6 p. m., June 25."

R. W. Hemphill.

Harris E. Thomas.

L. G. Palmer.

1886.

H. B. Howe.—There will be two or three in his party.

J. E. Hammond.—votes "yes" on the propositions submitted.

R. W. Edling.

C. H. Judson.

1887.

Frank R. Smith.—"I am in favor of part of the propositions submitted, but not all."

1888.

W. A. Taylor.

John C. Stafford.—"Will come if the peas and the clover don't have to be cut at this time, or the beans cultivated."

Harry Thurtell.

1889.

Geo. J. Jenks.

Ray Stannard Baker.—Four in party.

1890.

Mrs. Jessie Beal Baker.

E. J. Rowley.—"Get everyone out." There will be one in his party. Votes "yes" on the propositions submitted.

1891.

R. J. Crawford.

Clayton Cook.

Henry H. Doty.—"Whether I attend or not, I thank you for the invitation, and hope the affair will be a great success."

Alfred R. Locke.

1892.

Don N. Stowell.—There will be two in his party.

A. C. Burnum.—"Think I'll undertake to be present."

1893.

Clarence E. Holmes.—Votes "yes" on the propositions submitted.

U. P. Hedrick.

William G. Smith.

Lucy Clyde Woodworth.

Dwight S. Cole.—"To the propositions submitted, I take few exceptions."

W. Paddock.

O. B. Hall.—"After deliberation, I could not resist the temptation to set aside business for the pleasure of visiting."

1894.

John W. Rittenger.—Doubtful as to being at the reunion. Votes "yes" on the propositions submitted.

C. J. Barnum.

1895.

Thorn Smith.—There will be one in his party.

Frank Johnson.

M. C. Bagley.

J. Smitshell.

H. R. Parish.—"Tell the Columbian Literary Society to save me a 'cot' in some of their rooms."

1896.

James R. Petley.—"Am looking forward to the old college association, and hope to see the same faces of years ago. May run a 100-yd. with some of your youngsters."

1897.

Chas. F. Herrmann.—"Think it might prove a mistake to make the meetings annual, as the triennial plan assures a large gathering of alumni."

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Field Agent White was called away last week, on account of the serious illness of both his mother and father.

Prof. Halligan, with the seniors taking landscape gardening, were in Chicago and Grand Rapids last week, where they visited the various parks of these cities.

Prof. and Mrs. C. H. Horn, of Grinnell, Iowa, were the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Ryder over the week end. Prof. Horn was formerly superintendent of schools at Traverse City.

Messrs. Lowe and Norman, who left college last spring to engage in forestry work in the west, have engaged rooms in the dormitory, and will return in September to continue their course in forestry. They were with 1913.

The spring number of the engineering students' directory will be ready for distribution this week.
There will be no new features, but the directory will furnish the usual information, including the geographical distribution.

Several students have received pay for literary work this year.
During the winter term the boys in the course in agricultural journalism had several articles accepted and paid for. J. M. Wendt sold three or four. It won't be a great while until we shall know who gets the twenty-five dollar Eumonian prize. The Holcad prizes, recently offered, will also mean a little good money to several students.

Those interested in the botanical excursion left Saturday morning at 8:35 for a trip north of the college on Abbot road.

On Thursday evening of this week will occur the annual Geneva banquet. Following the banquet, a program of toasts will be given.

Miss Richeson, of the department of domestic science, spent the holiday and week end at Bay City, as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. F. E.
Webb.

A. J. Olney, of the present graduating class, has accepted a position as superintendent of orchards for a large orchard company at Garden, Mich., and has already begun operation.

Several plows from the Oliver Plow Co., of South Bend, Ind., have been received by the department of farm mechanics. The collection includes six walking plows of different types, sulkey plow, gang plow, one cultivator, and a collection of points, shares, etc.

On Tuesday evening of last week was held the first annual banquet of the M. A. C. Veterinary Association. The banquet was attended by 24 students, and was held in honor of the graduating class of 1913. M. B. Kurtz acted as toastmaster, and responses were made by Dr. G. W. Dunphy, recently appointed State Veterinarian, Dr.
Lyman, G. L. Caldwell, '14, W. B.
Massie, '16, and Pres. Snyder. Mr.
Fred Moran closed the program with a toast to the graduating class.

Mrs. H. J. Eustace and Mrs. A.
C. Anderson left Monday for the Adirondacs, where they will spend about three weeks.

Miss Casho, of the department of physical culture, visited at the home of Mrs. Hugo Layer, Chicago, over Sunday. Mrs. Layer was formerly Miss Hazel Berg, of our department of domestic art.

The senior class of the School of Domestic science, Battle Creek Sanitarium, visited the college laboratories and grounds Thursday of last week. They were entertained at the Women's Building.

I. T. Pickford, '13, has been promoted to be horticultural superintendent of the Grand Traverse Fruit Co. Mr. Pickford has already completed his work for graduation, but will return for commencement.

Miss Ellen B. Bach, former instructor in botany at M. A. C., was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Ryder a few days the past week. She is now in charge of the department of biology in the public schools of Kalamazoo. Mrs. Ryder entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Bach.

Mr. I. J. Mathews has just received a fifteen-dollar prize for a short essay. The Michigan division of the Colonial Days of America offered a money prize for the best paper on "The Place of Woman in Colonial Days." Mr. Mathews contested, and won with an essay of about twelve hundred words.

Prof. Eustace and Mr. Gunson, with some 25 senior students in horticulture, are visiting the large nurseries at Monroe, Mich., Monday and Tuesday of this week. They also planned to visit the fruit farm of Mr. W. W. Farnsworth, near Toledo, while on this trip.

The class in farm management, numbering about 40 students, in charge of Prof. Jeffery, leave Lansing at 7:50 Thursday morning, and will spend the time from 9:45 to 2:30 on the A. P. Bliss farm, Swan Creek, nine miles from Saginaw.
They will then proceed to the Oviatt farm, near Bay City, and will spend the night in that city.
The following day they will inspect the large farm near East Fergus, owned by the Owosso Sugar Co.,
returning home Friday morning.
On Saturday the class will go to Owosso, where they will look over the farm of A. B. Cook, near that city. This trip will complete the program of the class.

NOTICE TO ENGINEERING ALUMNI.

All engineering alumni are invited to attend a meeting in room 117 of the engineering building at 2:30 p. m. on the day of commencement, June 24. At this meeting announcement will be made on matters of interest to engineering alumni, and an opportunity given for discussion of the engineering course and its activities, particularly with regard to its relation to the alumni.
