

THE EAGLE

Agricultural College Mich.

No. 7. March 15 1892. Vol. 2.

LOCALS

Mr. Wallace, one of our students, is quite ill.

It is agreed that the last cold snap has been the most disagreeable of the winter.

Prof. Taft's horse was frightened the other day and ran away with the carriage, he was fortunately stopped near Dr. Kedzie's barn before any harm was done.

WANTED— some more soprano singers for the choir.
