Agricultural College Mich.

Vol. 3.

April 5 1892.

No. 6.

Locals.

Mr. J. N. Estabrook is stopping for a few days at the College.

The State Board of Agriculture will meet tonight.

The Juvenile school will open this morning.

Miss Baker who lives on the road to Lansing has the measles.

Mr. Stutz, who came down with measles in room 26 William's Hall has been removed to the third story of the Veterinary Laboratory and put in quarantine.

The wind storms of the last few days have been most terrible, and many lives have been lost in Kansas, and other places. At the rate the wind has been blowing this morning, we expect to hear of great damage being done in some localities nearer home.

After the diphtheria, winds, measles, quarantine, and April fools, what shall we look for next? And what kind of a showing would Job have if he were here?

Margaret Kedzie Mayo, daughter of Ned and Mollie, born March 28, weight 8 & 3-4 pounds.
