EAST LANSING

MAR. 11, 1921

A BOND ISSUE of $4,000,000 for the improvement of Lansing streets, including the East Michigan Avenue pavement from the Michigan Central Railroad to the east city limits, has been proposed by the city council. It will be placed before Lansing voters at the spring election. The east Michigan avenue pavement has been almost impassable during the fall and winter and college residents who are fortunate enough to own cars are rejoicing in the news that the Michigan Avenue improvement is to be one of the first undertaken, providing the bond issue carries.

SPRING PRACTICE is claiming forty enthusiastic devotees of the football squad every night, rain, snow or weather not with standing. The rudiments, passing, punting and now and then a scrimmage help keep the grid-ders warmed up on the chilly days. Football practice will continue for the rest of this term, when it will give way to baseball.

THE MICHIGAN SPORTSMEN'S ASSOCIATION held its annual meeting in Lansing March 3 and 4. Prof. Walter B. Barrows of M. A. C. presented a paper on "Bounties and Non-Game birds." Huber Hilton '11, East Tawas, Forest Supervisor of the Michigan National Forest, attended the meetings. This organization has accomplished a most humane work in the past decade thru the preservation of Michigan wild life. The association is asking this year for certain action from the legislature which will further protect wild life that would become extinct were it not for their watchfulness.

DEAN MARY E. SWEENEY is in Mt. Pleasant to take part in the Mt. Pleasant Normal Women's Section of the Farmers' Week program Thursday and Friday of this week. Miss Sweeney will appear on the program three times. Rose Hogue '16 is head of the Household Arts and Science department.

"CORN GROWING IN MICHIGAN," Experiment Station Bulletin No. 289, just off the press, is the first corn bulletin issued by the station in recent years and seems to fill a distinct need in its field. It is edited by J. F. Cox and J. R. Duncan of the Farm Crops section, and is very comprehensive, covering all phases of the subject thoroughly.

M. A. C. ENGINEERING ALUMNI in and about New York are invited to attend the annual joint meeting of Student Branches of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers to be held at the Engineering Societies Building in New York on Friday April 1. There will be an afternoon meeting at four o'clock, followed by a buffet supper. The evening program will be furnished by the Professional Section on Management.

THREE HUNDRED STUDENT VOLUNTEERS from the colleges of Michigan will begin to arrive today for the first annual Student Volunteer Convention for which the college will be host March 11, 12 and 13. Bishop Theodore Henderson of Detroit, Dr. Cyril Haas, for twelve years a missionary in Turkey, and O. W. Stanchfield, a missionary from India, will be among the speakers.

THE THIRD ANNUAL PAGEANT to be given under the direction of the senior girls at Commencement time will center around the founding of our state and will have as its theme the early history of Michigan. It is now being written under the direction of Norma Gilchrist Roseboom of the English department. In it will be depicted the ceremonials of the Indians, the establishment of the first settlements in Michigan by the brave Jesuit missionaries, and the discovery of the site of Detroit.

A PEN OF SCOTCH white leghorns, five females and two males, believed to be the first Scotch birds to be procured by any agricultural college in the country for experimental purposes, was received last week at the Poultry department at M. A. C. from Glasgow, Scotland. These birds are about half as large again as the American leghorn, and Prof. Burgess expects to cross them with the American strain and develop a larger bird which will be more hardy for northern sections of the state. He also hopes with this crossing to produce a 300 egg hen. The high record at the college is now 267 eggs. These leghorns are of the Minorca type.

TO PREPARE JUDGING TEAMS for the national and international dairy shows next year, a special course will be introduced into the Dairy division at the beginning of the spring term.

THE TOTAL NUMBER of short course students enrolled at the college this year, including the tractor course now in progress, is 525. A remarkable feature about the enrollment is the number in the tractor course—150. In some schools this work has been given up altogether this year because of lack of interest, and in others the number taking the work has been very small. The loving cup, given annually by Dean Shaw to the member of the short course judging teams was won by John Muir of Ypsilanti.

THE LANSING AND EAST LANSING branches of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae will meet with Mrs. Charles Thomas, 727 S. Grand Ave., Lansing, on March 15, at 8 o'clock. Marjorie Delevan of the State Board of Health will talk.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

"During my twelve years' presidency of our University I have met many alumni of many types in many quarters of the globe. I have never yet met one whose eye did not brighten and whose spirit did not glow at the mention of his Alma Mater. Some were radicals and wanted things done and done quickly and done differently. Others were conservatives and wanted nothing done. Some were progressives and saw with steady vision the path human nature ought to follow in our day. Others, however practical about their affairs, dissolved into sentiment immediately upon entering the long walk from the postoffice and saw the University as John Hay once put it in his literary zeal, 'Through the rosy mists of memory transfigured by the eternal magic of what once seemed to them endless youth,'"

—Edwin A. Alderman, President of the University of Virginia.

HOW DO WE GET THAT WAY

An alumnus came in the office the other day. Had lived within a hundred miles but hadn't been back in ten years. There is a local association in his town but he hadn't been out to their meetings. We know for we'd have caught him in their roster if he had. Had never been a member of the Association. Had never written us a letter. Not even a postal card.

Said he thought we had a "lame" alumni association not to know where he was. Well we have. We're lame on his foot. We admitted we were in the wrong. Said we would try to do better next time. And we will.

Comither faithful weegee.

CAMPUS DAYS

The very successful production of "Campus Days" as the first musical revue of the M. A. C. Union, has without doubt permanently established such an undertaking as an annual affair. The opportunity it offers for bringing out musical talent, a certain type of dramatic ability, talent in aesthetic dancing, and genius in business management and leadership, is surely not going to be overlooked either by students or faculty another year.

The Union was most fortunate in securing for its show one with such good music and with such a strong appeal to college people. It was a bright clean show, one that college students could so naturally portray. In it youth was at its best, particularly that type of clean, bright, energetic young men and women that M. A. C. is so proud to call hers. They were on their own campus just acting natural. With that feature there was given an added charm to the whole piece that quickly found its way into the hearts of the audiences.

Alumni of M. A. C. have an alumnus of Purdue to thank for their first Union theatrical undertaking. Hentry T. DeHart, '17 of Purdue, wrote the piece and the music, gave it gratis to the Union, and then, at the last minute when a professional director failed of appearance, he jumped in and directed it through to the finish. He and Mrs. DeHart gave practically all of their time to the work as the finishing touches were being administered, and gave it without compensation. The thanks of the Union and alumni are offered them. A second and most spirited handshake is theirs when it is known that between one and two thousand dollars has been netted from the first show for the Union Memorial Building.

And to Professor King, Professor Bumer, Miss MacCornack and others of the college staff who assisted and to the 140 students about equally divided among young men and women who did the work, also is extended the sincere "thank you" of alumni. The undergraduates who gave so much of their time and efforts have carried the thing across with the feeling that they were doing it, not for personal glory, but for M. A. C. During the grind of rehearsals, on the trips and in the relaxation after it was all over there was a splendid spirit shown—a spirit that all M. A. C. may be proud of.

In "Campus Days" the college has been given something which she should be happy to retain as a permanent annual fixture among student activities.

SORORIAN ALUMNAE in the vicinity of the college met for their monthly dinner at the home of Mazie Gitchell w'14 at her home in Lansing, on March 2. Officers elected for the coming year were Pres., Edith Langerbacher w'06; Vice-Pres., Leola Lewis Sessions '17; Secy. and Treas., Blanche McNaughton Reeves '18. Josephine Fry Nicholson '17, East Lansing, will entertain the members at their next dinner, the last Wednesday in March.

EROPHIAN ALUMNAE of Lansing and East Lansing met at the home of Mrs. Emma Mason Vanderzahn (with '09) in Lansing on the evening of March 8 for their monthly dinner. Their next meeting will be with Mrs. Lenna Whitlock Keith (with '15) at 532 Townsend St., Lansing.

President Kedzie Denies Resignation.

Contradictory reports were frequent in various papers of the state at the close of last week, to the effect that President Kedzie had resigned and that he had not resigned.

President Kedzie has not resigned nor has he tendered his resignation. This statement he, himself, authorizes, out of justice to the college and the public and the board of agriculture, in view of the widespread gossip concerning the situation.

"I have not resigned nor have I tendered my resignation to take effect at some future time," said President Kedzie. "However, there is a complete understanding between the board and myself as to what my inclinations are as to the office I now hold.

"Reluctantly I took the presidency of the college, but having taken it I threw into the work all of my best endeavors, and now, after six years, particularly the strenuous war years, I feel that I have earned the right to retire. However, as I have said, there is a thorough unofficial understanding between the members of the board and myself, and we are all confident that the situation will work out to the best interests of the institution we represent—that, not personal considerations, is the chief issue.

"No, there has been no authorization of the various statements concerning us. It is officially apparent from the records that I had not resigned at the last meeting of the board, and there has been no other meeting since the last one publicly reported."

Many Vacancies in Army. Examinations April 25.

The military department is giving notice to students and alumni of examinations on April 25 for commissions as first and second lieutenants in the regular army. The base pay of the second lieutenant is $1700 a year, and of the first lieutenant $2000, with quarters, light and fuel, medical and dental care added. There are now in the regular army 2,585 vacancies, with 1200 for the rank of first lieutenant. These vacancies are in the infantry, cavalry, field and coast artillery, engineers, air service, signal corps, quartermaster corps, ordnance department, chemical warfare service and Philippine Scouts.

Alumni who are interested may gather particulars by corresponding with Major Wrightson, commandant.

Employees Do Last Honor to W. H. Van Dervoort '89.

As a mark of deep regard in which the late William H. Van Dervoort '89 of Moline, Illinois, was held by workers and employees in the Root and VanDervoort plants at Moline, the twenty pallbearers at his funeral carried his body from the home to the cemetery, a distance of nearly a mile. The pallbearers were all employees and co-workers of Mr. Van Dervoort in the Moline shops.

He was very active in clubs and civic enterprises and Moline papers express in his death a great loss to the city.

Varsity Homecoming Mar. 19.

When the Alumni-Varsity Basket ball teams step into action on Saturday night March 19th, a crowd rivaling that at the Notre Dame game is likely to witness the fracas. Lansing clubs, faculty, students and town people have been out after tickets and the supply is about exhausted. Local people seem bent upon joining in welcoming home the former wearers of the green and white.

Letters from Blake and Hughie Miller, Gauthier, Spencer, Hood and others come in daily. Norm Weil who is handling the affair says that more than 100 will be at the banquet for Varsity Men. Society houses are to be decorated in honor of returning athletes. Preparations are being made to make the first Varsity Reunion a Memorable event.

Six Records Broken at Indoor Meet.

Six track records for the Michigan Aggie gym were broken Saturday afternoon, when Coach Art Smith's squad defeated Western State Normal, 54 to 35. The final count between the two teams in this year's dual meet came as a reversal of the meet held in 1920 when the Kalamazoo athletes took the long end of a 47 to 42 score.

Captain Ernst of the Aggies was the brilliant performer of the day. He won four first places, was largely responsible for the victory of the Aggie relay team, and established three of the new records.

Particularly noteworthy was his victory in the 40-yard dash over Altenburg and Walker of Western State Normal, a pair of sprinters who have been touted as the fastest in the state. Both of these men have won places in the First Regiment meets in Chicago and have crossed the line ahead of every leading collegiate dash artist in the state.

In winning this event, Ernst clipped a fifth of a second from the former gym record doing the distance in 4 2-5. Two-fifths of a second were knocked off of each of the records in the hurdles when the Aggie captain won these events. He did 40 yards over the low sticks in five seconds flat and the same distance over the high hurdles in 5 2-5.

Brendel covered the eight laps for a half-mile in 2:10, thereby lowering the East Lansing gym time, three seconds. Adolph did the mile one second faster than it has ever been done indoors here finishing in 5:54. The sixth record established was set up by the Aggie relay team consisting of Noblet, Perry, Brendel and Ernst. This quartet finished in 3 minutes and 55 seconds, two and three-fifths seconds under the old mark.

Pacific Coasters Show Spirit in Portland.

The eleventh annual banquet of the Portland M. A. C. alumni association was held on the evening of February 19th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bale, 481 East 18th Street North. There were 37 present. The many good things to eat were thoroughly enjoyed by all, and the banquet was declared to be one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held by the local M. A. C. Association. Everyone present expressed appreciation for the wonderful efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Bale who surely deserve much credit for the affair as does also Miss Bale and her girl friend, who served so daintily.

After the banquet, a short business meeting was held. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Suggestion was made that the annual picnic be held on some other date than Labor Day, as usual. Motion was made and carried that the 1921 picnic be held on the third Sunday in August. Mr. H. E. Weed extended an invitation to the association to hold this picnic at his famous Peony Farm, at Beaverton. Said invitation was heartily accepted.

Then followed the reading of a letter of regret from C. S. English, who was unable to be present.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Roy G. Scofield '07; Vice-President, Mrs. P. E. Kuenzel '14; Sec.-Treas., A. F. Douglass '08.

Suggestion was made that a notice of the Portland banquet be sent to the M. A. C. Record which suggestion was acted on by the retiring secretary.

Those present were:

Central Michigan Annual Meeting on Campus March 19.

The Central Michigan Alumni Association is to have a Bohemian dinner followed by a business meeting and election of officers in the hand ball room, the finest room in the College Gymnasium, at 6:00 P. M. Saturday March 19th.

Bring that basket of feed with you and join in the activities on that evening, which are to be followed by the Alumni-Varsity Basketball game at 8:00 o'clock. Blake and Hughie Miller, Gotchie, Frim, Baldy Spencer, Dutch Miller and others are to be present. Old time athletes back as far as 1895 are to be back for a Varsity reunion. Action and much of it is promised. Be on the job with friend wife or sweetheart and all the rest at 6:00 o'clock. There'll be an exciting evening, starting with lifting the lid of the first basket, following through with the election (?) of officers and finishing with a peppy basket ball game, and the band and stunts 'n everything.

Livingston Aggies Hold Annual Meeting.

Loyal Alumni of the M. A. C. Livingston County association held a very enjoyable get-together and dinner at the Howell High School Gymnasium, Saturday evening, Feb. 26th. After the inner man was satisfied, a little contention over the honor of acting as toast master was so strong between James G. Hays and Henry T. Ross, that the President had to flip a coin. The honor fell to Senator Ross who uncorked a few good ones. The following people responded to toasts and short talks: Prof. A. L. Bibbins, Miss Florence Stoll of the M. A. C., Miss Etha Smith of Webberville, R. B. McPherson, Ward Andrews, James Hays, Glenn Burkhart, and F. S. Dunks. Mrs. Glenn Burkart also favored the association with a delightful solo. At a short business session Glenn Burkhart was re-elected President and F. S. Dunks Secretary. The remainder of the evening was spent in renewing acquaintances, singing, dancing, and a few good yells led by Mr. F. England of '17. In spite of the stormy evening a good crowd was out and all expressed themselves as having had "A Heck of a time."

Michigan Aggies attending were:

'82 Erwin Ball, '90 R. Bruce McPherson and Mrs. McPherson, W'92 Dr. J. E. Browne and

Mrs. Browne, '04 Henry T. Ross and Mrs. Ross, '05 Ada Howe Crandall and Mr. Crandall, '05 F. S. Dunks, Grace Dunks, '10 G. P. Burkhardt and Mrs. Burkhardt, '11 James G. Hays and Mrs. Hays, '11 George R. Merrill and Mrs. Merrill, '12 Laurence Queal and Mrs. Queal, '15 Etha Smith, '15 A. L. Bibbins, '16 Florence Stoll, '17 F. England, '20 C. Ward Andrews, W'21 Winifred Smith, w'22 Ethel Sharp, W'23 Flora Crandall, W'24 Otto E. Meyer, Minerva Fouts, Instructor in Household Arts at M. A. C., Clarence Taylor, Laurence Dunning, and Miss Marion McFayden, prospective '25ers.

—F. S. Dunks, Sec'y.

Flint Club Elections.

The Flint M. A. C. Club had another "Get-together" last Thursday evening at the Dort School. Routine business transacted and the following officers elected—H. L. Froelich, '18, Pres.; C. J. Hatfield, '09, Vice-pres.; Mrs. P. B. Pierce, '05, Sec'y; A. C. Anderson, '06, Treas. A Bohemian supper was served. Nearly 50 attended and every one reported a fine time. Hope at the next meeting (the first Thursday in April) to double the attendance.

—Mrs. P. B. Pierce, Sec'y.

Detroiters' Column

I'm sitting in Norm Weil's office as I write this week. It's raining, and they've been spreading fertilizer all over the campus but it still looks pretty good. Truly a grand old place!

The details for the dance are all complete. It is to be Thursday night, March 31, in the Elk's Temple on Lafayette, and we have secured the same orchestra that met with such favor with those who attended the last party.

All that is needed to make the party a big success is YOU. The Detroit Club at school here are going to be there 100% strong and are going to bring a host of their high school friends and it is up to the grads to show these younger people that they have just as much pep.

Don't forget—Thursday March 31.

Dancing from eight till twelve.

Tax two dollars and you are sure of your money's worth.

Shelley Lee '17, Sec'y.

The attendance at the Friday noon lunches still continues to grow. Two weeks ago there were thirty present.

Stub Clark says carrying a suitcase on Washington Blvd. is a nerve-racking job.

SHE WAS SUSPICIOUS.

Stub's steno calling one of the directors of the Detroit Club on the phone—"Hello, is Mr. Director going to the meeting tonight?"

Mrs. Director: "Ahem—a—her—Why I thought that was to be a stag affair."

Battle Creek Alumni to Hear Dean Sweeney.

M. A. C. Alumni in Battle Creek are planning a banquet and organization meeting on the evening of March 22, details to be announced later. Dean Mary E. Sweeney of the Home Economics department will be the speaker of the evening.

Mark Small '22 Entertains Northeast Mich. Aggies.

The regular monthly meeting of the M. A. C. Alumni association of Northeastern Michigan was held at the Board of Commerce club Thursday evening with about 25 members present to hear one of the best programs offered by the association since its inception.

The guest from M. A. C. at the meeting was Mark Small, new cheer leader of the college, who is accepted among the students as the best entertainer in any middle-west university. Mr. Small started a song at 8 o'clock and at 9 o'clock he was still singing the same number with a steady stream of different verses.

The local association promises a treat to local music lovers when on March 29, the glee and mandolin clubs, a quartette and a soloist from the college will give an entertainment at the armory, following which the regular community dance will be held.

On March 19, George Gauthier, community director, Harry Nelson and Arthur MacKinnon, the only members in Bay City of the 'Varsity club at the college will attend a meeting of that club at East Lansing.

The next regular monthly meeting of the local M. A. C. club will be held at the Grotto club on April 15.

Reunion Calls.

This is a facsimile of the '16 that we daubed on the old water tower back in '14. The original '16 is buried under the numerals of several succeeding classes but the spirit which prompted the scaling of the tower and the wielding of the brush is still alive, but like the class itself is widely disseminated.

Five years have passed with no reunion. We are scheduled to return this year along with '13, '14 and '15ers. William Hohenzollern prevented our meeting in '18, but nothing under the sun can prevent the old gang from holding a pow-wow this June. The East Lansing bunch is planning to cooperate with the Lansing bunch as a self-appointed committee on local arrangements, but it is up to you to make suggestions for the fracas. Write them to Ethel Taft or S. J. Brownell at East Lansing and do it right away. Remember we voted to print a directory before the reunion. So fill out and return at once the questionnaire sent you. Please send information concerning other '16ers. Do it now before you forget.

"CAMPUS DAYS"—FIRST UNION MUSICAL REVUE SCORES

Another signal honor was added to the list of this year's student achievements when, in a blaze of glory, "Campus Days," the first Union musical revue, completed its "run" of five performances Saturday night. To say that it went big is putting it mildly, "gorgeous" if we may quote President Kedzie.

Three capacity houses in Lansing and Owosso laughed hilariously at the Putterville folks, applauded the campus scenes sparkling with youth and enjoyed the tuneful music, while the Grand Rapids audiences made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers. The matinee performance at the Powers Opera House in Grand Rapids was little better than half attended although the evening show played to a fairly full house. "Youth," says the Lansing State Journal, "that most popular word in all of Mr. Webster's varied collection, came in for stirring delineation, in the lines, the music, the action and all, of "Campus Days," at the Gladmer, Thursday evening.

"The players from Michigan Agricultural College, their playwright, Henry DeHart, and whoever else contributed, put over the footlights in their initial attempt as fine a success as could be asked for of college players.

"Oh, it was all such good fun; it went so smoothly, with such precision and with such a quality of fervor, peculiar to a campus crowd; and it was such a good show on its own merits, that the capacity crowd surely enjoyed the production hugely."

Owosso and Grand Rapids people were very high in their praise of the production and characterized it as a polished professional performance, far from amateurish.

It is impossible to go into details of the piece. One hundred and forty students assisted by several members of the faculty did the work. Over a hundred took part on the stage in different capacities either in the cast, choruses, feature dances or special musical numbers and an eighteen piece orchestra of college men and women played the score. The business end was handled by a managing board of some fifteen men and women students who proved to be the hustlers of the student body.

The story is of some good Putterville folks who come to inspect the college and offers opportunity for campus scenes and campus songs and campus take-offs.

Among the principals who should be mentioned were Culver Wilcox '21, Leanore Kenny '21, Richard J. Liddicoat Jr. '21, F. N. Bateman '22, Ruth Stanton '24, F. M. Johnson '24, N. L. Aberson '24, L. J. Rothgery '21, Bernice Randall '24, H. H. Johnson '23, J. H. Barr '21, L. W. Ross '21, Mary Emily Ranney '23, Marion Larkworthy '24, Wayne Palm '21 and Marie Edmonds '22. Special campus scenery and settings transported the audiences to the college and gave the whole a campus atmosphere. One of the most pleasing features of the production were the lighting effects on some of these special settings which added much to the pretentiousness of the revue. The entire play was of three acts and twelve scenes and the snap and smoothness with which all moved off called forth the praises of even the most critical and stamped it as a professional production.

Much of the credit of the production goes to Mr. Henry DeHart, its author and producer. He was ably assisted by Professor King, Professor Bumer and Miss McCornack.

Three of the most catchy of the musical numbers have been published and may be had at the College Book Store.

The amount of money that has been made by the production for the Union Memorial Building Fund has not been determined but it is sure that it will run between one and two thousand dollars.

What Grand Rapids Says of "Campus Days."

Dear Mac:

I cannot express to you in a few words, how "big" the show "went over" in Grand Rapids, the thought of everyone is that, it is the best college play ever seen. It was almost professional and a lot better than most professional shows of its kind.

It would be a shame not to take the show to Kalamazoo, Jackson and Detroit or at least one of these towns, by all means Detroit; even though you only make expenses.

To you, DeHart and the managing board, are due a lot of credit for putting over a "hum-dinger." All Grand Rapids is talking about it. And M. A. C. has risen in the estimation of most people about one thousand percent.

I will endeavor to come down for the 19th but do not know definitely now.

Yours sincerely,
Arthur D. Wolf '13.

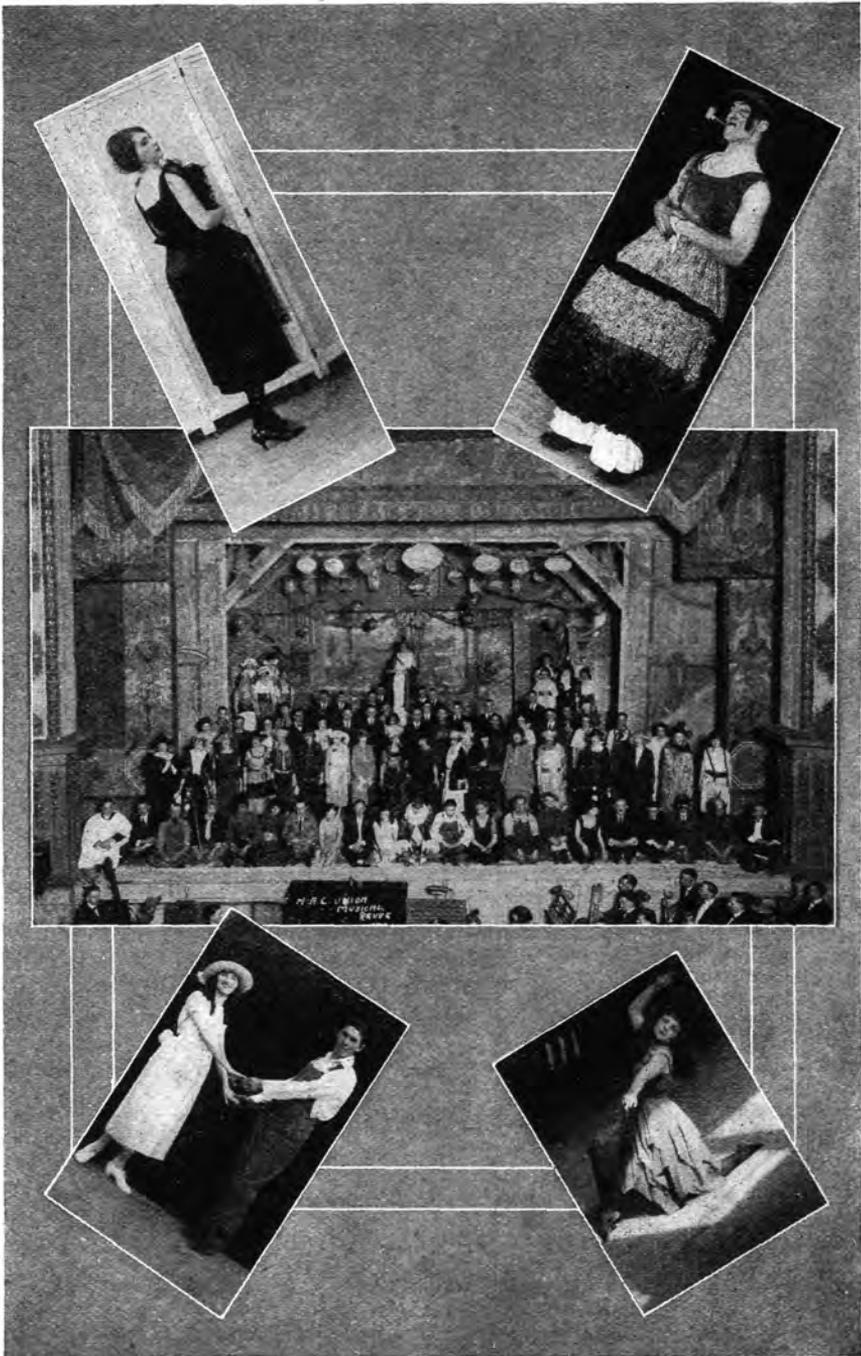

March 8, 1921.

Dear Mr. McKibbin:

Believe me we Grand Rapids M. A. C. folks are sure proud of the showing Campus Days made here Saturday and the impression it left in the town.

In the first place, the whole performance was far beyond anything we had hoped for. We were in school, you know, once upon a time and we made the colossal mistake of expecting about what we used to be able to stage.

Theatre people here claim it was by all odds the best college production that ever hit this place. And personally, I doubt the possibility of collecting so much talent in so many different lines in many colleges.

The effect here is that M. A. C. has taken this place into camp. The music, singing, and dancing sure was great. Those pretty, clever and capable girls can have anything they want in Grand Rapids and while we will admit that the boys had some real voices, stage ability and managed the whole deal in a most unusually capable manner, we have taken occasion to reflect around home that we can't see the necessity of so many remarks about their physiques, faces and futures.

The alumni just feel like telling everybody they see that they're from M. A. C. We're proud of it. M. A. C. has made good again. Grand Rapids people have had it proved to them that M. A. C. is made up of a good looking, vigorous, capable, jolly bunch of young men and women who are really getting all around training. And the result is going to be that Grand Rapids folks will want their sons and daughters to go there and the boys and girls will want to.

Again I say the Grand Rapids alumni are delighted with the showing made here.

Who's Who

Louise Clemens, '13.

Louise Clemens, '13, popularly known as "Louie" is now helping make history for her Alma Mater as Assistant Professor of Household Science. In no other line of work perhaps have more strides been made than in the study of food and its important bearing on the life and happiness of the human race, and "Louie" has helped lead the procession.

Miss Clemens, after graduating from college, went to Lawrens, Iowa, where she put the home economics work into the high school. The next year she was called back to M. A. C. as an instructor in 'Domestic Science' as it was then called, now raised to the dignity of 'Household Science.' In September 1919 she was made Assistant Professor.

Too busy, she says, to have a hobby, she is not too busy to identify herself with outside interests. She is on the college Y. W. C. A. cabinet, of which she was president in her senior year in college, is an honorary Sororian and a member of the Sphinx Club, and is active in Omicron Nu, honorary national home economics sorority. And besides these, she has a home on Evergreen Avenue, where she lives with Edna Smith, '03, and Miss Arms, Extension Specialist in Clothing. She puts into practice the home economics principles which she has learned, and anyone who has visited her bungalow attests to the spirit of genial hospitality there.

Like all other M. A. C. women, she is anxious to have a new home economics building at M. A. C. where the work may expand, until her Alma Mater stands at the head of home economics work in this section of the country. "Some of the girls who were in college with me would be amazed," she remarked, "to come back to the old school and visit a class in cookery. When we were students, our text book was the Boston Cook Book, and we made recipes. Now we make recipes only as they relate to nutritional problems. Much of the work which we had in college is now given to grade and high school students. Where nearly every girl in school was fitting herself to become a teacher or a home maker, now in addition our co-eds have ambitions to become dieticians, cafeteria managers, journalists, extension workers, and forty other professions to which a graduate of M. A. C. may aspire."

She feels that her college training helped her most thru her association with others, enabling her to get their view point. She would like to see the college grow along the lines in which it is now established. She would like to see it become one of the first colleges in the land in home economics training, she would like to see the girls and young men who pass thru its doors go out with a greater conception of the ideals for which we stand, and with a real appreciation of our democratic spirit of which we boast.

If anyone were to ask us about sensational things which Louis Clemens has accomplished at M. A. C. we would speak right up that there were none, for she does not do things that way. But she has accomplished much in a quiet unassuming manner. Always interested in the personal affairs of the girls, and with her ever ready sympathy she has endeared herself to all of them as a friend as well as an instructor. Six graduating classes of girls have gone out since she came back to her Alma Mater and another is nearly ready to leave, and each one of these 300 girls is going out with higher ideals of service and with a broader conception of what home economics means to the homes of our nation because of the inspiration of her personality.

ATHLETICS

Creighton Bows to Wonderful Work of Aggies.

Basket ball of the highest caliber was unceremoniously corked at the Aggie Gym last Thursday when the Big Green took a 27-20 victory from the powerful Creighton team in the final contest of the 1921 season. The game was nip and tuck all the way with a spurt in closing minutes of play enabling the Aggies to pile up the margin of triumph.

Creighton took the route with a record of twelve wins and two losses, numbering the best teams in the west on the string of victories. That they packed the necessary credentials to back this claim became evident in the first minute of play when Condon slipped thru the Aggie guards and counted a field basket. This lead was increased to four points before the Green and White men settled down to business.

Gilkey started the scoring for the Farmers with a free throw and followed this by one from the field. Captain Foster put the Aggies to the front with a field basket from close range but this lead was only momentary for Kearney by making a foul shot placed Creighton on even terms. This deadlock prevailed until the end of the half and then Heasley dropped two thru the iron rings, giving the Aggies the big end of a 13 to 9 count.

At the beginning of the second period the Westerners came back strong, tying the score in short order and then taking a one point lead. Heasley reversed the tables with a long shot and the Aggies maintained this state of affairs until the end of the contest.

Heasley got going early in the game and played a wonderful game all the way. His wonderful eye for the rings made him high point man for the Aggies from the field.

Thirty Work for Place in Baseball.

With the nets installed in the Ag building pavilion, daily baseball practice of the 30 enthusiastic baseball men is progressing smoothly. Less than five weeks remain between now and the time of opening the season with Hope College on the home diamond April 16.

Work during the last week has consisted chiefly of batting practice and the crack of bats has drawn many students to the windows and doors to watch the squad in its daily workout. Every Saturday forenoon the entire squad takes fielding practice on the gym floor and the infielders still take this work twice a week besides the hitting practice in the pavilion.

Hartwig and Tichenor are the two old men who are back, Hartwig being a veteran varsity man of two seasons while Tichenor was a member of last year's squad but lacks some in experience on the varsity nine. Among the other hurlers who look good are Johnson, Kuhn, and Premo. The first two named were mound men on last year's all-fresh squad and proved good men. Premo has had a great deal of experience and looks promising.

Oas is the one oldtimer at the receiving end and fans are expecting some brilliant work from him this year. Nels Car, Brown and Fullen are some of the veterans from last year's squad who are looked to to stop everything coming their way. Captain Willman leads the list for outfielders with whom number, Kaiser, Pacynski, Hyde, and Farley. All the men are looking forward to a hard-fought season this year and lots of pep and entoziasm is already evident.

Track Carnival Friday.

As has been stated before, Friday evening, March 11 is the date set for the huge track carnival in the Aggie gym to which all of the high schools of the state and all the colleges, junior colleges and normal schools are expected to compete, each in their own class. Remember that one of the big events of the evening is a two mile dual relay to be run between M. A. C. and U. of M. while probably the most spectacular event will be the invitation 40 yard dash to which the best dash men in the state are invited regardless of whether or not they are in college. Jackson Scholtz was to have entered this event but due to the fact that he received an injury to his leg he will be here as an official so that everyone will have a chance to see him. He is a wonderful sprinter. Relays are arranged between the different high schools and late reports point to a big attendance and entrance from these institutions.

Dartmouth is raising $360,000 to provide an athletic field in memory of her war heroes. The quota for the undergraduates was $16,000; they have already subscribed $22,050 with a hundred men or more yet to hear from. The new field will include two gridirons, three diamonds, three hockey rinks, eleven tennis courts, and a new concrete grand stand.

Princeton had up to December 31 secured $8,262,682 of her $14,000,000 endowment; of this $3,982,248.48 had been paid in. '98, '16, '20, and '22 have each turned in a 100 per cent subscription, '23 records 99.7 per cent, and '95 has 99.1 per cent subscription.

MARRIAGES

Truman Louis Jackson w'16 and Miss Cora Mae Morneau of St. Ignace were married at the home of the bride on March 1. Jackson is Highway Engineer for Mackinac County, with headquarters at St. Ignace.

CLASS NOTES

'71

Richard Stocum and E. M. Shelton have written President Kedzie that they are making plans to come back for the fiftieth anniversary of their class on June 15.

'86

George M. Park, Mayor of Dunedin, Florida, writes us on a letter-head which sets forth the virtues of Dunedin-by-the-sea as the Paradise of the south. Roses, poinsettias, frezias, and begonias, are in a constant mass of bloom all winter at the mayor's residence, this letter-head informs us.

'88

L. A. Bregger writes from Outlook Farm, Bangor, that he has enjoyed the winter choring and with other necessary work. On the side he has been busy as secretary of the local grange and director in their local co-operative association and Fruit Growers' Exchange. He is able to store away three squares a day and some extra between times.

'90

Dr. J. W. Toan is still connected with the state tuberculosis sanitarium at Howell. He expects to have a daughter enter M. A. C. next fall.

'95

Dr. Wm. C. Bagley, Professor of Education at Teachers' College, Columbia, in the Educational Review for January, discusses the question, "Are the Older School Virtues Obsolete?"

L. H. Van Wormer sends greetings from College Park, Maryland, in the form of Memorial Building payment and M. A. C. Association dues.

S. H. Fulton asks to have his Record address changed to Exeter, Calif.

'97

H. E. Van Norman, Davis, California, Dean of the University Farm School, has been made President of the National Dairy Association and Director of the National Dairy Council. Their student body and faculty is twice as large as M. A. C. had when '97 finished. He is looking forward to a visit to old M. A. C. at the first opportunity. Next Commencement will be a good time, when '97 has her regular reunion.

'01

Don B. Jewell '01, who is just beginning his work as County Agent in Cheboygan County, was for five years in the same work at Grand Rapids, Minn., and when he left was Vice-President of the County Agent Association in that state.

'03

Under Edna Smith, Home Management Specialist, a campaign is being put on to secure figures on the proportion of the family living which comes from the farms. It is expected that five or six women in each of the 35 different counties will take up this work.

'05

George Baldwin (with) Manager of the Baldwin Service Co., Detroit, came back to the campus last week for the first time in twenty years. His brother, R. H. Baldwin (with '04) is connected with the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio. Charles Swales, 233 Puritan St., Highland Park, is in the insurance business, with offices at 1028 Detroit Savings Bank Building.

Roy C. Potts '06, President of the Washington M. A. C. Association, and Mrs. Potts, are happy over the arrival of Glenna Irene, weight 8 pounds, on March 3. They wish to have Miss Yakeley register her as a possible future candidate for the course in Home Economics.

Albert N. Robson, Penn Ave., Crestwood, Yonkers, N. Y., has been Forester to Bronx Parkway Commission for the past eight years. He is kept very busy in addition to his forestry work, superintending the planting in the field, general maintenance of the Reservation and grading work. He enjoys the Record and hopes he may never be without it.

J. V. Sheap (with) who was county agent in Jackson County in 1918, has been appointed to succeed H. E. Dennison '13 in Shiawassee as county agent there.

'09

Leroy C. Smith lives at 8708 Dexter Blvd., Detroit.

'11

Herb Duthie of Grand Rapids is in charge of the construction of Standard Oil stations in Indiana and Michigan.

It was represented at the annual meeting of National Association of Vocational Education at Atlantic City the latter part of February by Bess Frazier, Associate Professor of Education at M. A. C.; Edna Belle McNaughton, in charge of vocational education at College Park, Maryland, and State Superintendent of Vocational Education; and E. C. Lindemann, Professor of Sociology and Economics at Greensboro, N. C. "Lindy" appeared on the rural section program.

C. R. Garvey "Speed" is in the lumber manufacturing business at Indianapolis, Ind. His address is 560 E. Drive, Woodruff Place.

L. L. Jones, 339 W. Oak St., West Lafayette, sends for news "Same old job—Extension Poultryman at Purdue University."

This from Russell A. Warner, 111 Waverly Place, Schnectady, N. Y. "I recently passed the District of Columbia bar examination and have been admitted to the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia as entitled to practice Patent Law on the register of Attorneys of the Patent Office."

'13

V. A. Clemens lives at 5617-17th St., Detroit.

Chester and Mrs. Spaulding 1933-10th St., Des Moines, Iowa, announce the birth of James Chester on March 1.

George Smith hopes to attend the reunion of '14 in June. He is still at his old work as Insect Specialist for Western N. Y. Fruit Growers in Orleans Co., and lives at Albion, N. T., 30 E. State St.

'15

Mrs. K. F. Boucher (Arda Strong) hopes to see a great many familiar faces at the '15 reunion.

Albert H. Jewell, Chief Engineer and Director of Laboratories of the Kansas State Board of Health, does considerable traveling about the state in connection with his work.

Walter Hildorf, 521 E. Main St., Lansing, sends this, "I have left the college and am now connected with the Engineering department of the Reo Motor Car Co. Practically all of my work is along metallurgical lines. Most automobile factories are shut down. The Reo is still operating. Like their cars and the speed wagon, they always run."

"The second son the old man has turned over to us"

A REPRESENTATIVE of the Alexander Hamilton Institute included this paragraph in one of his recent reports:

"At his request I telephoned to Mr. Blank, President of the big wholesale hardware and mill-supply firm here. He said that his inquiry was for his son who had just graduated from the State University. This is the second son the old man has turned over to us."

And why?

Why should a successful business man who has paid the expenses of sending his son thru a great university, seek to enrol that son immediately in another educational institution? What has the Alexander Hamilton Institute to offer a man in the nature of post-graduate training?

A working knowledge of business taught by business men

THIS much: The university gives a man a background of general information; the Alexander Hamilton Institute gives him the specific tools with which he is to work.

He may enter the sales department of a business, and if he does, his danger will be that he may become an expert salesman or sales manager and nothing more. Or he may enter the accounting department, and spend his life in that one department.

This Institute gives him—out of the experience of the leaders of business—an all-round working knowledge of all departments; sales, accounting, costs, factory and office management, transportation, advertising, corporation finance and the rest.

Department training makes department heads; only an all-round training fits a man for executive responsibility over all departments, or for the conduct of a business of his own.

Why every great industry has accepted it

THIS is why so many successful men have recommended the Alexander Hamilton Institute to their college-bred sons. This is why 24,054 corporation presidents have enrolled for its Course, many of them side by side with their younger associates.

This is why you cannot name a great American business which has not its quota of Alexander Hamilton Institute men. There are enrolled in the:

- United States Steel Corporation 545
- Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. 346
- Standard Oil Co. 801
- Western Electric Company . . 190

and so on thruout every nationally known organization.

The greatest educators and business men

NO school of commerce has an abler Faculty and Advisory Council than the Institute.

Its Council is made up of Frank A. Vanderlip, the financier; General Coleman duPont, the well-known business executive; John Hays Hammond, the eminent engineer; Jeremiah W. Jenks, the statistician and economist; and Joseph French Johnson, Dean of New York University School of Commerce.

And every phase of its training is presided over by men who have demonstrated by the success of their own business careers their right to train other men.

Thousands of successful men, in every kind of business and every position in business, have tested the Modern Business Course and Service in their own experience, and proved its power to shorten the road to success.

"Forging Ahead in Business"

A BOOK of 116 pages explains in detail the Modern Business Course and Service of the Alexander Hamilton Institute.

It tells just what the Course covers; just how it is arranged, and precisely how its training builds onto the foundation which the college or university lays. Many men have found its pages a guidepost to a shorter and more direct path to success.
