MISSION STATEMENT

Michigan State University, a member of the Association of American Universities and one of the top 100 research universities in the world, was founded in 1855. We are an inclusive, academic community known for our traditionally strong academic disciplines and professional programs, and our liberal arts foundation. Our cross- and interdisciplinary enterprises connect the sciences, humanities, and professions in practical, sustainable, and innovative ways to address society's rapidly changing needs.

As a public, research-intensive, land-grant university funded in part by the state of Michigan, our mission is to advance knowledge and transform lives by:

- providing outstanding undergraduate, graduate, and professional education to promising, qualified students in order to prepare them to contribute fully to society as globally engaged citizen leaders
- conducting research of the highest caliber that seeks to answer questions and create solutions to expand human understanding and make a positive difference, both locally and globally
- advancing outreach, engagement, and economic development activities that are innovative, research-driven, and lead to a better quality of life for individuals and communities, at home and around the world.

December 2018
Interim President

CONGRATULATORY LETTER

DEAR FELLOW SPARTAN:

You have worked hard. You have earned a degree from one of the top 100 research universities in the world. And now, with your graduating class, you are ready to contribute to society as a globally engaged citizen leader. I join with your family, professors, and community in offering heartfelt congratulations. To paraphrase an old song, "You've done us proud to come so far!"

You are part of the Spartan family. You recognized the many good reasons to come to Michigan State: the great diversity of talented classmates, caring faculty, world-class programs, global connections, Big Ten athletics, and countless opportunities for enrichment. You no doubt also made this investment in your future because of our Spartan tradition of excellence—a tradition that is in our very DNA.

By joining our Spartan family, you became part of a tradition whose roots reach down to the founding of the nation. The American commitment to a quality education goes back to the Northwest Ordinance of 1787, whose "section sixteen schools" guaranteed that the dissemination of knowledge would be one of our nation's highest priorities. Within a few decades, the founders' commitment to an educated public inspired the creation of the land-grant college. Michigan State, established in 1855, was a pioneer land-grant college. We served as a prototype and beacon for the Civil War Congress when, in 1862, it passed the Morrill Act to establish more such colleges across the union.

So when you joined our Spartan family, you linked to one of the world's most empowering ideas: the land-grant university. You can forever be proud of Michigan State's role in pioneering that idea. With the seal on your diploma, you carry that great tradition forward. So be bold. Continue your transformation from learners to leaders. Show the world what we Spartans can do!

Very respectfully yours,

John Engler
Interim President
Michigan State University

December 2018
Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs

CONGRATULATORY LETTER

DEAR GRADUATES AND FAMILIES:

Congratulations to you and your families!

As a student of Michigan State University, you have been a member of our vibrant Spartan community, united by the common interests we share as scholars. I hope that even after earning your degree, you will always remain a member of our community—hungry to learn, to seek new knowledge, and to then share and apply that knowledge for the betterment of others by contributing to a more just and sustainable world, for the generations of Spartans who will follow you.

It gives me great pleasure to serve here at a time when MSU continues to create new opportunities on campus, in the state of Michigan, and around the world. With our students and faculty, we are achieving new levels of excellence and discovering solutions to some of the world's grand challenges. Our students are eager to engage in opportunities to expand their knowledge and perspectives, and to grow as individuals and global citizens.

As you may or may not know, I earned my degrees at Michigan State University. That education has served me well, and I am confident it will serve each of you well as you take on the many challenges and opportunities that await you.

As you and your families celebrate your accomplishments at Michigan State University, we join you in that celebration and wish you all the best in your professional and personal pursuits, and in your future endeavors as Spartans. May the relationships you forged here with your professors and fellow students continue to inspire you, and may the knowledge you acquired here as a student guide you as you embark on your next undertaking as Michigan State University alumnus.

Sincerely,

June Pierce Youatt, Ph.D.
Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Michigan State University, founded in 1855, is a leader in realizing the ideal of democratizing education and knowledge. Officially named the Agricultural College of the State of Michigan, it became the model for all land-grant institutions established by the Morrill Act, passed by Congress in 1862. The research and knowledge developed at land-grant institutions provides practical solutions that make a difference in the lives of individuals and in communities. Now, as a major public research university with global reach, Michigan State University continues this tradition with its commitment to advancing knowledge and transforming lives across the state, the region, and around the world.

From its beginnings on the site where Beaumont Tower now stands, the East Lansing campus has grown from 677 to 5,200 acres, and from three to 545 buildings. Today, nearly 20,000 acres are used throughout Michigan for agricultural and natural resources research and for education.

MSU has more than 50,000 students from all 83 counties in Michigan, all 50 states, and more than 130 other countries. There are more than one-half million Spartan alumni living around the globe.

Since its agricultural beginnings, MSU has grown to 17 degree-granting colleges offering more than 200 programs of study, including graduate and graduate professional education. The Honors College attracts academically talented scholars and enables these students to pursue individualized, enriched programs of study.

Research and other grants total nearly $600 million in 2014–15. The top federal funding agencies include the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, U.S. Agency for International Development, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the U.S. Department of Education, and the U.S. Department of Defense. Other externally funded research programs include the MSU–U.S. DOE, Plant Research Laboratory, the Center for Advancing Microbial Risk Assessment, the Great Lakes Bioenergy Research Center, the Energy and Automotive Research Laboratory Centers, the Composite Vehicle Research Center, the U.S.–China Center for Research on Educational Excellence, the Center for Advanced Study of International Development, and the Center for International Business Education and Research.

The National Superconducting Cyclotron Laboratory is the premier rare isotope research facility in the nation. In December 2008, the U.S. DOE selected MSU to design and establish the Facility for Rare Isotope Beams (FRIB). The proposed $730 million facility will bring together an international community of leading scientists. Their work will help unlock the mysteries of the universe and promote breakthrough applications for medicine, security, and industry.

MSU Extension reaches into all 83 counties in Michigan to provide practical, university-based knowledge. The AgBioResearch encompasses the research of more than 300 scientists in a network of 13 research centers across the state. Their work ranges from agricultural production, alternative energy and biofuel production, food safety and environmental stewardship to childhood obesity, community development, and the quality of life of Michigan youth and families.

University Outreach and Engagement connects faculty with external audiences and constituencies to address community issues through research and collaboration. MSU Global extends academic and professional degree and certificate programs to off-campus learners.

MSU is a national leader in education abroad among U.S. public universities with more than 275 programs on all continents in more than 60 countries. Nearly 3,000 MSU students participate in education abroad each year.

Michigan State University is a member of the Association of American Universities, the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, the American Council on Education, the American Council of Learned Societies, the Council of Graduate Schools, and the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation).

CEREMONY LYRICS

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER
O, say, can you see
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free,
and the home of the brave.

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL
O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

ALMA MATER*
M.S.U., We love thy shadows,
when twilight silence falls,
Flushing deep and softly paling,
o'er ivy-covered halls.
Beneath the pines we'll gather,
to give our faith so true,
Sing our love for Alma Mater,
and thy praises, M.S.U.
When from these scenes we wander,

and twilight shadows fade,
Our mem'ry still will linger,
where light and shadows played;
In the evening oft we'll gather,
and pledge our faith anew,
Sing our love for Alma Mater,
and thy praises, MSU.

MSU FIGHT SONG
On the banks of the Red Cedar,
is a school that's known to all;
Its speciality is winning,
and those Spartans play good ball;
Spartan teams are never beaten,
all through the game they fight;
Fight for the only colors,
Green and White.
Go right thru' for MSU,
watch the points keep growing.
Spartan teams are bound to win,
they're fighting with a vim.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
See their team is weakening,
we're going to win this game.
Fight! Fight! Rah! Team, Fight!
Victory for MSU.

*The lyrics of Alma Mater were written by Bernard Traynor (MSC Athletic Department, 1925–1927). The melody is based on Donizetti's Lucia di Lammermoor. It was not until March 30, 1949, after a vote by the students, that the popular song on campus known as the MSU Shadows was finally adopted as the official Alma Mater.

Lyrics by Francis Irvin Lankey (MSU Engineering, 1916).

UNIVERSITY MACE

Michigan State University is pleased to include the University mace in commencement ceremonies. The introduction of the mace, at the 2005 Founders' Day celebration and inauguration of MSU's twentieth president, serves to commemorate the sesquicentennial celebration. The University, founded in 1855, celebrated its 150th birthday in 2005. The mace was designed by University Relations and produced by Physical Plant staff.

Historically, the mace is a symbol of authority dating from medieval times when knights carried them during processions with their kings. As the tradition grew, the mace became a ceremonial symbol of peaceful leadership, and maces were embellished with jewels and metals. Today, a university's mace is carried before the president or chancellor and platform-party dignitaries at commencement, Inaugural, and other academic ceremonial processions.

The Michigan State University mace, 42 inches in length, includes important institutional symbols in its finial, crown, and shaft. The finial depicts the circular University seal, which includes an image of "Old College Hall." This oak-carved seal derives from an 1869 State Board of Agriculture (now, Board of Trustees) authorization for a woodcut to be used as the frontispiece of the college academic catalog. College Hall, built in 1856, was the first instructional building erected in the United States for the teaching of scientific agriculture. When it collapsed in 1918, John Beaumont (class of 1882) provided funds to erect Beaumont Tower in 1928 at the same location. The tower stands as a symbol of Michigan State's beginnings as the first land-grant college dedicated to teaching "agriculture and the mechanic arts" with a "liberal and practical curriculum."

The mace's crown is trimmed with a maple samara and acorn pattern carved from walnut, a pattern drawn from the "Michigan State College" limestone relief at the Abbot Road and other campus entrances. An image of Beaumont Tower lies in the crown's oak center. Below the crown is the cylindrical shaft, whose alternating, horizontal oak and walnut bands descend to a brass tip. Its oak is purported to be "Beaumont oak," that is, from one of the original saplings surrounding College Hall. Its walnut is from a tree removed to clear land for the Wharton Center for Performing Arts in 1982.

In its soaring verticality, Beaumont Tower continues to inspire the MSU community and is an appropriate symbol for the MSU mace. As President Robert S. Shaw (1928-1941) stated at the tower's dedication, it has served as "a unifying factor" to remind us, even through our individual activities, of the overall mission of Michigan State University to inspire us by "appealing to many of the better things in us" and to encourage us to "live up to higher standards, scholastically, socially, morally, and spiritually in all of our affairs."

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission, a group of leading American educators, introduced an academic costume code which by design of gowns and hoods would indicate the various degrees, and which by colors would identify the various faculties.

Three types of gowns are indicated by the code. Those worn by the bachelors have long, pointed sleeves. Those worn by masters have long, closed sleeves with the arc of a circle near the bottom. Doctoral gowns are faced with velvet. The sleeves are full, round, and open with three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The velvet facing of the bars on the sleeves may be black or the same color as the binding of the hood.

Hoods are made of material identical with the gown and are lined in the official academic color of the institution conferring the degree (e.g., green and white for MSU). If the institution has more than one color, the chevron is used to introduce the second color. Colored velvet or velveteen binds the hoods and indicates the department of faculty to which the degree pertains.

The color of the velvet of the hood is distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. For example, the trimming for the degree of Master of Science in Agriculture should be maize, representing agriculture, rather than golden yellow, representing science. Generally, the code for the velvet of the hood is the same as listed for tassels.

At Michigan State University, it is customary to identify the candidates graduating from the different areas of study by tassels of the official color as established by the Intercollegiate Code. Candidates graduating from the Honors College wear a white stole with the initials "HC." Candidates graduating "With Honor" or "With High Honor" wear a gold braid.

HONORARY DEGREES

Alumnus Eli Broad, for whom MSU's Eli Broad College of Business is named, is a renowned business leader who built two Fortune 500 companies from the ground up. Not only is he a successful entrepreneur, but Mr. Broad and his wife, Edythe, are engaged in many important philanthropic endeavors. In fall 2002, Michigan State University proudly awarded Mr. Broad an honorary doctorate of humanities.

Eli Broad and his wife, Edythe, with a total gift of $28 million, have made contemporary art available to the entire Michigan State University community and those who visit us from around the globe. The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum officially opened November 10, 2012. The world-class art museum is designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Zaha Hadid. For information about the facility, exhibitions, and programs, please visit broadmuseum.msu.edu.

We tell our graduates to "Come Home Often." We hope that you, and your family, will come home often and include a visit to the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

WILLIAM CUZICK

You have dedicated your life to the defense of our country.

Born in Germany as an army dependent, you grew up understanding the demands and sacrifice of military service. You moved 10 times in your youth, seeing the world from many different perspectives, including Okinawa and Germany.

Before joining the United States Air Force, you graduated from Texas A&M with a degree in aerospace engineering and later earned an MBA from the University of Nevada.

A flight test engineer with more than 300 missions in aircraft including the F-4, F-15, and F-16, and a technical leader and analyst in a variety of top Air Force positions, you rose to the rank of lieutenant colonel before retiring and joining the Air Force Research Laboratory. As director of the Systems Technology Office, you have overseen five-fold program growth, lead a 350-person organization, and oversee R&D activities delivering new technological capabilities in the air, space, and cyber domains. These game-changing technologies have led to significant advances in the survivability of U.S. Air Force personnel and have helped ensure technical superiority in the service of national defense.

You have also fostered excellence in many staff and students, bringing out the best in people and training the next generation of engineers. This includes personally mentoring Spartan graduates, many of whom have gone on to successful careers and numerous awards.

For your profound and lasting impact on our country's national defense, and your dedication to STEM education and mentorship of tomorrow's top aerospace talent, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Engineering from Michigan State University.

ANN DUNWOODY

You have devoted your career to serving and protecting our country.

Born in Fort Belvoir, Virginia, you grew up in a military family who has served in every conflict since the Revolutionary War. Your father, a decorated Army veteran, instilled in you the values and integrity that you continue to demonstrate today.

You joined the Army during your senior year at the State University of New York at Cortland. After graduating in 1975, you were commissioned as a second lieutenant and entered the Quartermaster Corps, which offered the opportunity to become a Parachute Officer in the 82nd Airborne Division.

You became the first female battalion commander for the 82nd Airborne Division and, later, the first female general at Fort Bragg.

You earned two master's degrees – one in logistics management from the Florida Institute of Technology and a second in national resource strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Services. You, then, managed the largest global logistics command in history, the Army Materiel Command, with over 69,000 employees in 145 countries.

For your service, you were decorated several times, receiving the Distinguished Service Medal and the Defense Superior Service Medal, among other awards.

In 2008, you were nominated by President George W. Bush and promoted to four-star general, to become the first woman in history to achieve this rank in the Army and the U.S. Armed Forces.

For your significant commitment to military service, your servant leadership, and the example that you set for women both in and outside of the armed services, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Michigan State University.

JANE HARMAN

You have committed yourself to public service and the betterment and safety of our country.

The daughter of immigrants, you understood from an early age the importance of fortitude and how this quality—coupled with education—made your potential limitless.

You received a degree in government from Smith College, where you were elected president of the Young Democrats. You continued your studies at Harvard Law School, earning your Juris Doctor.

After working for a Washington, D.C., law firm and then a U.S. senator, you later joined the Carter White House, where you served as special counsel to the Department of Defense and as deputy secretary of the Cabinet.

In 1993, you were successfully elected to the U.S. House of Representatives, where you served for nine terms. This included roles on the Armed Services and Homeland Security Committees. A recognized expert at the nexus of security and public policy issues, you are well-known for working across the aisle on key issues.

Over the course of your career, you have taught law and public policy at institutions including Georgetown and UCLA, passing on your knowledge to the next generation of policy makers.

Leveraging your vast experience, you now serve as the director, president, and chief executive officer of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, helping to bridge academia and public policy to inform and develop solutions to the nation's challenges.

For your dedication to public service in the interest of national security and global affairs, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from Michigan State University.

JOSETTE SHEERAN

You are a humanitarian, steadfast in your goals to improve the quality of life of people around the world.

Inspired by your late father, a World War II veteran who organized food drives to benefit those he helped liberate, you have chosen a life of service.

After graduating from the University of Colorado, you pursued a career in journalism, which led to a White House correspondent position for News World. You went on to become the managing editor of its sister paper, the Washington Times.

Your expertise in world affairs led to government sector positions including deputy United States trade representative and later the undersecretary of state for Economic, Business, and Agricultural Affairs. In those roles, you improved trade agreements and helped foster and implement aid and development initiatives in Afghanistan, Lebanon, and other rebuilding countries.

Later, as executive director of the United Nations World Food Programme, you guided the agency's work in more than 70 countries where it feeds an estimated 100 million people each year—the biggest humanitarian operation against hunger in the world.

You have previously served as vice chairman of the World Economic Forum, and you remain president and CEO of the Asia Society. In your most recent appointment as the United Nations Special Envoy to Haiti, you oversee efforts to reduce and ultimately end the transmission of cholera, and address the long-term issues of water, sanitation, and health systems in Haiti.

For your efforts to end world hunger and build global capacity through trade and development, I am pleased to award you the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Michigan State University.

HONORS

The University acknowledges candidates for the bachelor's degree who will graduate as Academic Scholars (A), from the Honors College (H), With Honor (*), or With High Honor (). Academic Scholars completed a two-year honors program including at least four honors-caliber courses. Honors College graduates are academically talented students who have participated in rigorous, highly individualized programs of study, including at least eight honors-caliber courses.

Graduation Honors: the current minimum grade point average for seniors graduating With Honor is 3.73 and those graduating With High Honor is 3.91 (which is approximately 20 percent of graduating seniors who have earned the highest grade point averages). Recognition of graduation honors in the commencement program is based on the grade point average of all work at MSU completed prior to the opening of the semester of graduation. To be eligible for graduation honors, transfer students must earn a minimum of 50 semester credits at MSU.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES AWARDS

Awards are made at fall and spring commencements to the six or more graduating seniors who achieved the highest cumulative scholarly records by the close of the preceding semester. At least three-fourths of the credits for the degree must be earned at Michigan State University with numerical grades by the close of the preceding semester. Fall, spring, and summer graduating seniors are eligible. The President of the University acts for the Board in determining the recipients of the awards.

"Until the moment degrees are conferred and diplomas presented, a university and its students are in a temporary relationship. Either can disclaim the other at any time before that final moment. But when commencement is concluded, Michigan State University places its stamp of approval upon you. You become part of this University . . . forever."

John A. Hannah (1902-1991)
President, Michigan State University (1941-1969)
