Dear Old Pard:-

As we part at the threshold of active life, let us not forget our pleasant relations during our College course.

You will ever be remembered as a staunch advocate of the right and as a Christian gentleman.

Truly Your Friend

Friend Clarence;

The purest treasure
Mortal times afford,
His spotless reputation,

Your Classmate
and Friend

But though these years of life
And friends spread far and wide,
May the friendships ever last,
A ~~not~~^{lot} left floating on the tide.

Yours truly
